

(Dear Sir)

I have received a letter from Mr. P. (Dumaineau) in reply to mine in which they state that they were then (the 15th Inst) prepared for to me but would reply to my letter on the subject of the loan early next week - and the letter was written last Saturday I am expecting to hear from them daily.

The case of Sweetmeats by the Proc. Heil has arrived & I have employed a person at the custom house to clear it - I am certain the duty. He informs me the duty will come to a comparatively large sum, shall I have it paid at once or inform you the amount that you may have an opportunity of pursuing the duty or abandoning the same as you think proper

I will pay Mr. Woodley's Post.

I remain

Dear Sir

Your very Affectionate Son
