Rome Sunday 27

Dear Child I was glad to get your letter we are glad to have you. I was calm from Clock will suddenly the other day the news shock me to hear that Ruth was dead it was shocking news she was as common when she was to the farm to milk she was I want at home I did not yet home I did not a day it was I think we were lost a prize was gates is here she found and for further proof also she spoke of you of tell we were had a letter we are well Tell Mrs Gust and Ruth gone to the other

I want a lock of your hair send it in your letter please mine

I sit down to night to write you a line (Eliba and I had a good visit up to Clockville we went to visit Benard Palmer heard that the wanted your poetry Benard has a brother in the war at Cairo with Palmer we had a funeral here some I sick Chestnut Dided at night for he was in the of the military went out the Companies they were to our Church there was a house full. We are lonely here Ruth gone you gone Rush gone the love is lost my love to all your friends
