

Dear Sir,

I perfectly understood the object of your Inquiry in your former letter, but sending out a Copy of the Document you allude to will be of no use. as a Copy however authenticated is no Evidence unless you prove the original lost - Therefore if you send out any thing it must be the original keeping an attested Copy here to serve as Evidence if such wanted in the event of the original being lost - From the antiquity of the Counterpart here you mention I apprehend require no further Evidence to authenticate than its mere production.

I am glad that you have made a satisfactory arrangement with Mess^{rs} Deponsetours, but shall be much more so to hear that their quarters is actually executed & you receive the list regularly from them, as from Mr. Hall's information I could not help entertaining some doubts thence I could wish to have done with respect to Mr. G's proposals

I am dear Sir

Yours very respectfully

John Norton Forbes

By Mail 20th July 1819

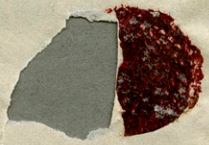

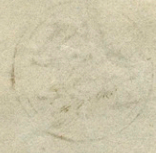

To

Major Gen. C. Scappon

Handwritten text in cursive script, likely a list or address, located in the upper right corner of the document.

Vertical handwritten text in cursive script, possibly a name or address, located in the center of the document.

Vertical text consisting of large, stylized letters, possibly a brand name or decorative element, located in the center-right of the document.

Mr. Norton Forbes July 20 1819 Relation to sending out an attested copy of a lease to the States will not be Evidence Consequently of value

M119h6

Genl. C. Scapteson
Hullington house
Newmarket

