

Dear Sir,

I have received from Mr. W. J. L. a letter sent me some time ago last, a copy of which I send you - I conceive that as Mr. J. is in possession they ought to pay the rent without further delay, but they seem determined not to do so & I don't know how it will be of any use, your writing to them on the subject, perhaps it may now be as well to wait until the term arrives - When it does I will attend to your observations as to the Company,

I remain

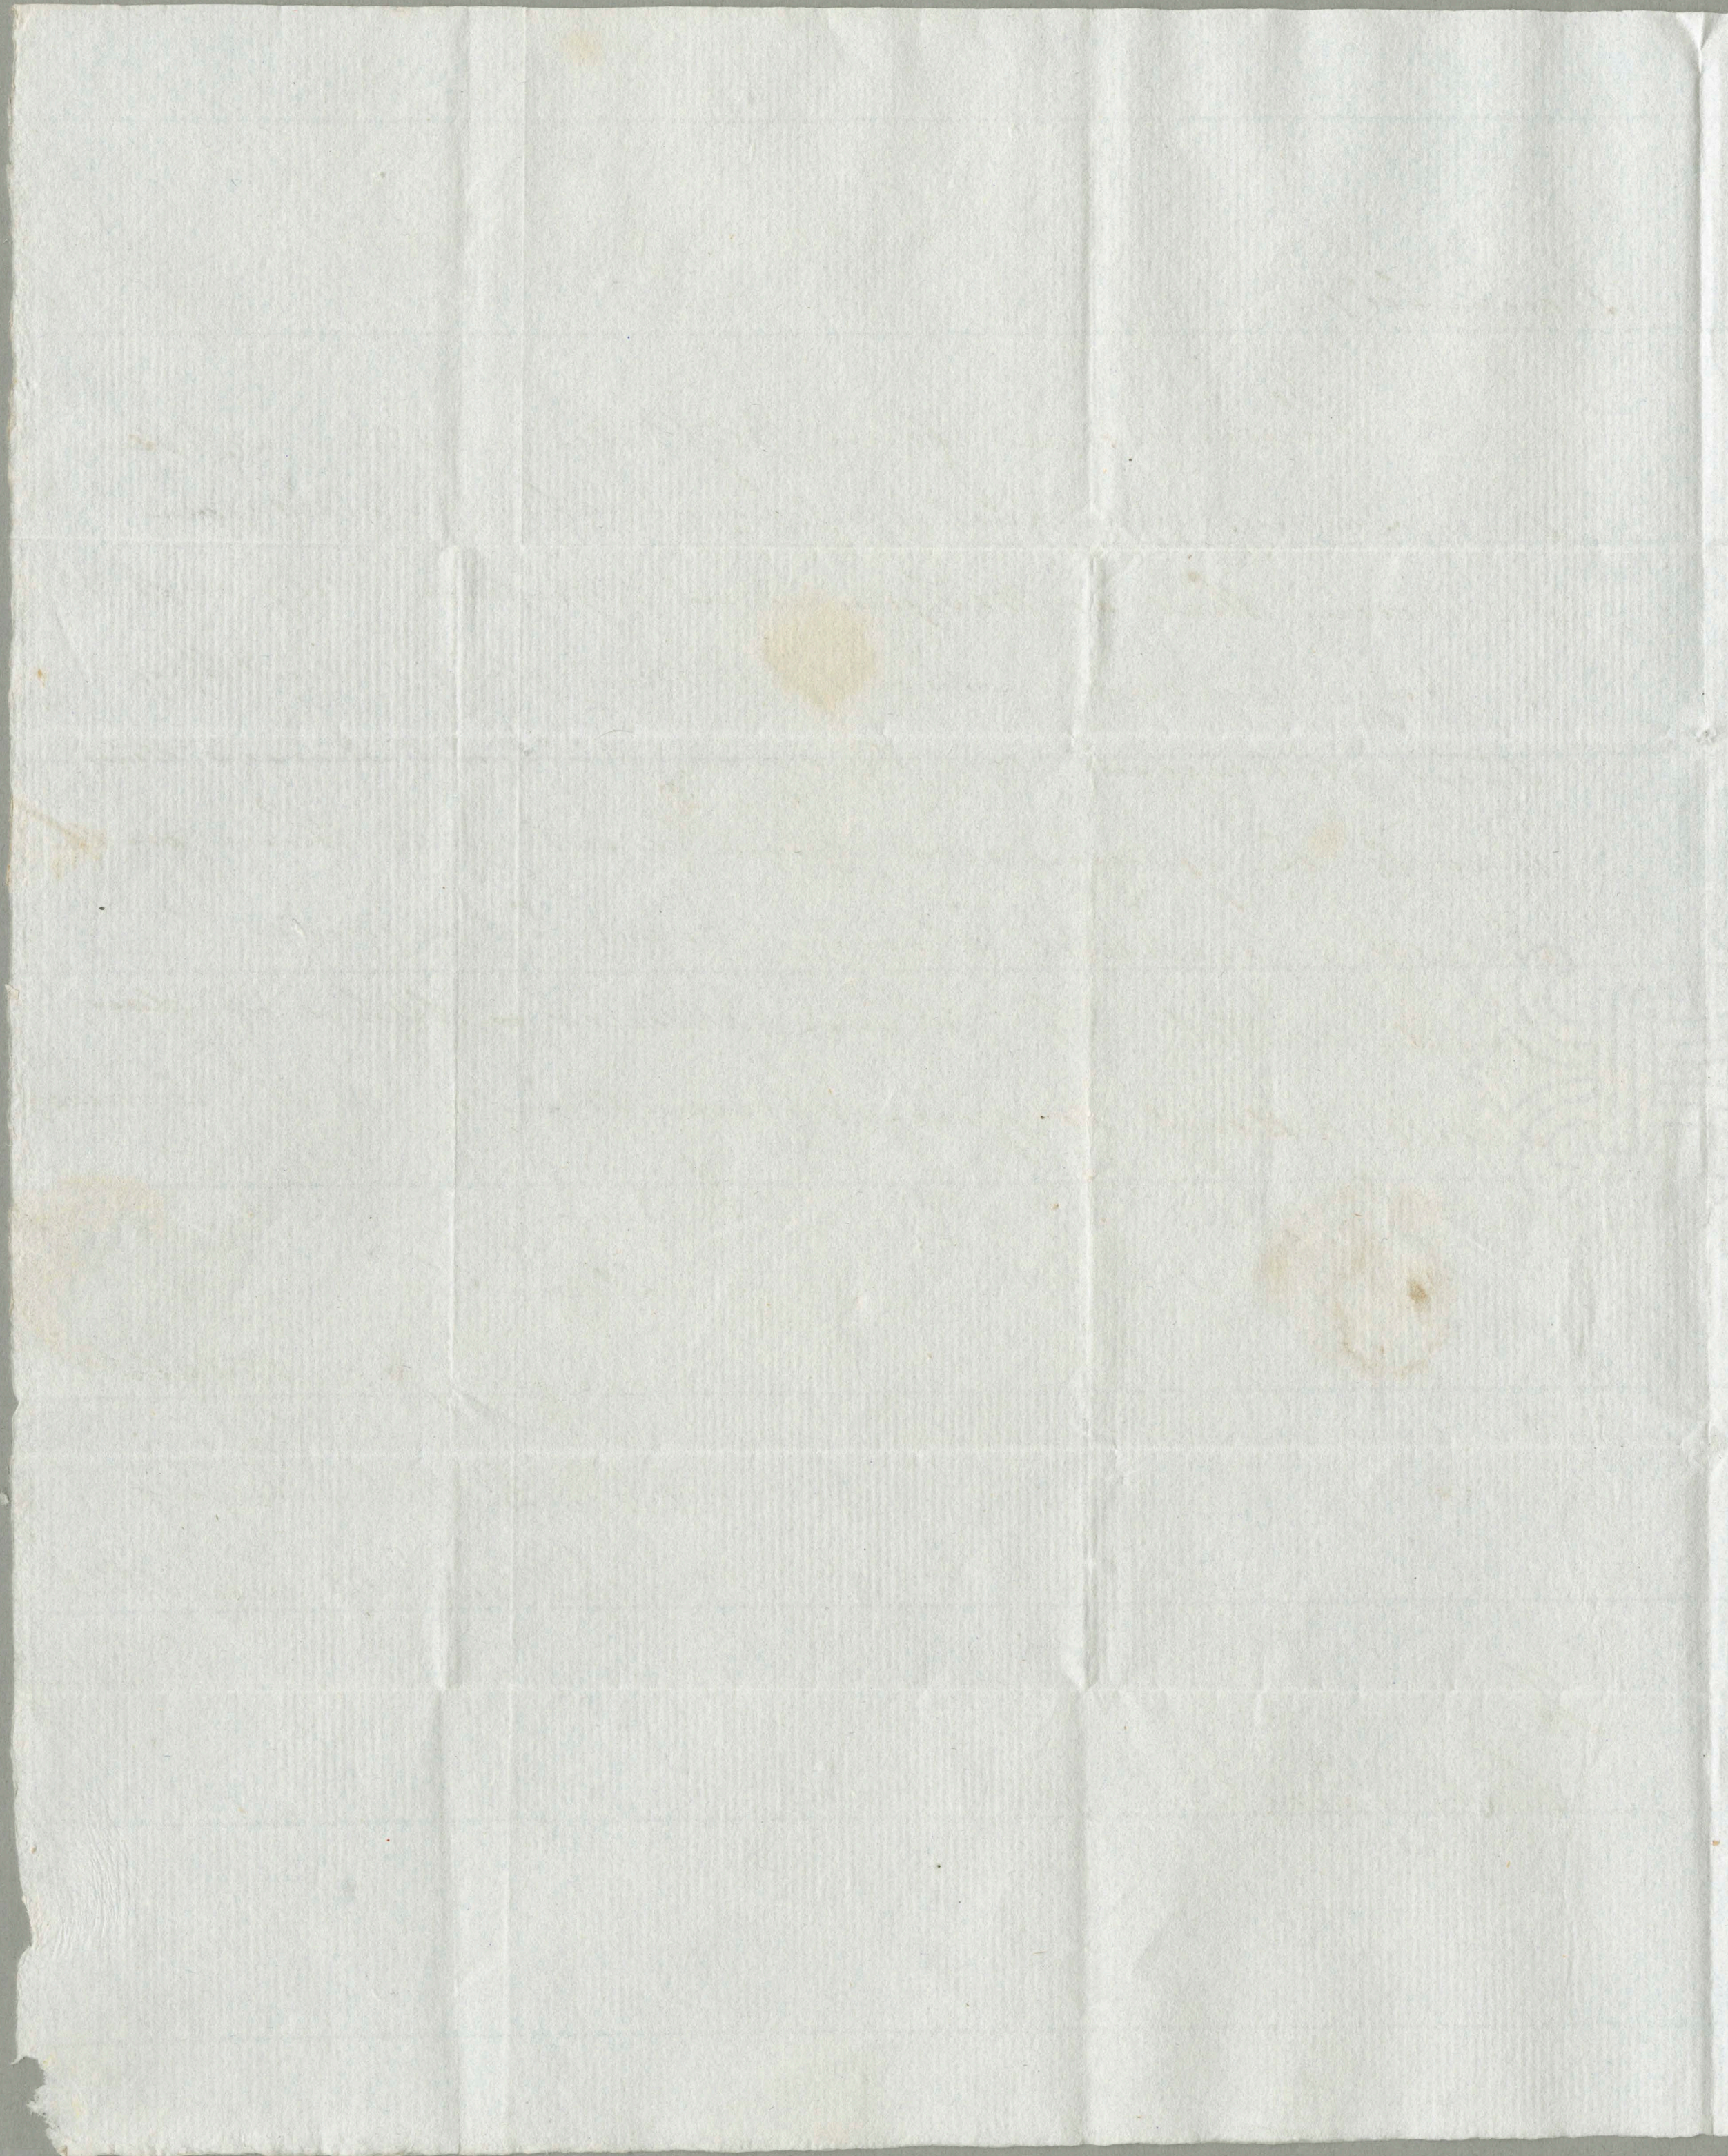

Dear Sir

Yours very respectfully

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 21st April we beg to inform you that in a late communication from Mr. John Tyson he states "the next packet will carry "home the Lease of Wingfield manor for final execution" of course we cannot make any payment to account of rent till it is finally executed - Were we however inclined to act otherwise we have yet no ~~order~~ order from Mr. Tyson on the subject: but we expect by our next ship a remittance to meet it.

We are Dear Sir,
