

My Dear Sir

I have this moment received your Letter, and am sorry to say a violent fall from a young Horse confined me to my House, being much bruised and having sprain'd my limbs considerably.

Be assur'd that you will command my service on all Occasions, and in every thing which may promote your Interest as far as my Ability and Judgment will enable me to communicate any thing of Importance, but as it would be an arduous task to commit all you wish to Paper, I am very desirous for an Opportunity of seeing you on the Subject in person at any time, between the end of the Newmarket Meeting after the Bustle of Bay Fair, and I need not add

how happy you will make Lady Blake & myself if Lady Gannon Town and you will make off convenient to pay us a visit at Burg.

The postmen & Slave of the State are highly expected to have with you, and any further Information than what I perhaps I can always procure for you if necessary, provided the Privilege allow of it before the Expiration of your Leave with L<sup>d</sup> Burgh.

Lady Blake is ill in Bed & has sore throats with a violent Cold & Lumbago, but is something better;
She writes with me in kindest regards to Lady Gannon Town, Miss Jefferson & yourself & Believes me Dear
My Dear General
Burg 14th Oct<sup>r</sup> 1813
Yours most faithfully
Patrick Blake
