Father Divine Stirs Bridgeport Audience

All Kingdoms Duplicates Of Sayville, the Sweet Field of Eden Itself

To Believe Father Divine Is God Is a Real Blessing

Father Divine's Remarks at the Banquet Table, Bridgeport Kingdom, 468-70 Broad Street, Sunday, February 18th, 1934. 3 P. M.

When 72 Macon Street, Sayville, L. I., was a Shrine to all the World, and throngs of visitors made pilgrimages there every day, a great feature was the Banquet Table, which for a period of years was spread as a free gift to mankind, many times each day from morning until the late hours of the night, to accommodate the Throngs who came from far and near to hear the Words of Him Whose Fame had reached the ends of the Earth.

Sayville Spreads Out

Since that time, duplicates of this great Banquet Table have spread throughout the World, wherever the Name of Father Divine is called, and the Abundance that flowed so freely in Sayville, has now been extended universally. But there is one particularly reproduction of this Table that is more like Sayville than any other, and that is in the beautiful new Home of Father Divine in Bridgeport, Connecticut, better known as the Bridgeport Kingdom. In fact, the whole establishment has been referred to as a reincarnation of Sayville, although 72 Macon Street is still operated as one of Father's Private Homes, and the same Abundance freely flows there.

On Sunday, February 18th, at the Bridgeport Kingdom, the same expression as that of Sayville took place, when Throngs from New York and New Jersey filled the Building, and the Banquet Table was set many times over, up until ten o'clock in the Evening.

It was the occasion of a Public Meeting that filled the Kingdom Auditorium and Dining Room, and also a large Hall at 521 Hallett Street, where Father Personally appeared during the late afternoon. Before going to the Meeting in the Hall, however, Father Personally served two Tables at which the Services lasted for many hours while Songs of Praise and testimonies of Thanksgiving came forth and Father poured forth His Words that are Spirit and Life.

Father, Lead Me

At the second of these Tables, the Song was sung, "Lead me, lead me, Father lead me lest I stray, Father lead me lest I stray, Gently lead me all the way." To this, Father responded Personally, as follows: "Good health, good will, and a good appetite, and a full and plenty to supply, yea sufficient to satisfy, every good heart's desire. It is indeed Wonderful! At this particular juncture I rise to say, I heard you say and I heard you sing, 'Father, lead me lest I stray.' I said, don't say it unless you mean it, for if you continue to sing it I will bring it forth into expression in your experiences, and you cannot pro-

Bridgeport Kingdom Is Full of Sunshine of God's Gentle Love

Functioning Under a Name That Has Power, Fame

"Our Father's Message at the Banquet Table, the Bridgeport Extension, 468-470 Broad Street, Bridgeport, Conn., Sunday Morning, February 18, 1934. Time—Twelve O'Clock

The week-end trips would up at the Beautiful Extension Kingdom, in Bridgeport, Connecticut, where not only a large group of people had assembled, but where devout and devoted Followers from each of the other Kingdoms, for instance, the 115th Street, 117th Street, 126th Street, and 63rd Street Extensions, in New York City, as well as Delegations and Representatives from the other Connections in Brooklyn, New Jersey and other places, had congregated in great numbers. Happy they were for this opportunity, to go spread the Tidings around to those who are yet in the World, and who had not yet heard of "The Second Coming of the Saviour," and to those who were starving for this Message of Love, the Gift of God to the World. Not only are these Beloved Ones happy to tell "The Good News," but they rejoice to sit and listen to the Words of God, which proceed directly from His Own Mouth, and to drink from this Living Fountain, which flows so freely, and which never runs dry. Despite the fact, that the second recent public Meeting in Bridgeport had only been announced a week prior to the date of the Meeting, there were at least 15 Bus loads, of people, from the various centers in other Cities present. The Meeting which was held in several halls, including the Dining Room at the Kingdom was largely attended, in fact, every place was full and running over, and this always is the case, whosoever Father's Name is mentioned. It could no other be, for "DIVINE IS LOVE, and LOVE expresses UNITY, and UNITY begets the people into an aggregate whole," and no matter how much FATHER says: "It is not necessary for you not to attend any of the Public Meetings unless you wish to, for you can be blessed just as much at your homes, at your business, and whosoever you may be, as you can where I AM, if you will but live Evangelically," the people delight themselves in going whosoever Father may be, or wherever a Meeting in His Name, is held. This again is the fulfillment of the Scriptures: "These are they which followed the Lamb while whosoever HE goeth. These are redeemed from among men, being the First Fruits unto God and to the Lamb," and again where it is recorded: "In the day of MY Power, MY People shall be willing." The multitudes of the people are so willing to follow God Evangelically, for they have found in this Way, just what they have sought for, for generations long. Their hopes have materialized and they are receiving their Reward.

Sunshine of God's Love

The Bridgeport Kingdom is a beautiful expression of the material Kingdom on Earth among men. It is full of the Sunshine of God's Love, and the warmth of the Praises to God, penetrates one's very Soul, and the GLOW of the RAYS of GOD'S OMNISCIENCE floods one's being, with Heavenly DELIGHT.

In the Series of Lectures given during the Day, at the Home, and the various Halls, Light and Understanding came forth into expression, as Father imparted WISDOM and KNOWLEDGE to the people. The Message that is herewith recorded, is the first one for the Day, and it was delivered at the Banquet Table, during the Morning Meal. The place was abundantly full packed well and running over, for all out in the hallway and on the stairway and in the doorway, the people listened to hear Father sing this little Composition and deliver the Message, which was, and is sustenance for their

2 Tons of Quinine Curb Malaria in P. R.

SAN JUAN, P. R.—Puerto Rico is taking a two-ton dose of quinine as one step in the malarial control measure, a part of the general health rehabilitation program, for which Federal aid has been arranged through James A. Bourne of the Relief Administration.

In the first two months of the program, 51,000 patients were treated, with an appreciable reduction in the death rate from that of the corresponding months for the previous five years in fifteen municipalities. Enough quinine was purchased to give 28,000,000 single doses.

God That Is Within and Without Shall Reign

God acts as a father because man is weak and sick and needs Him, the Rev. Dr. Wallace MacMullen declared in his sermon at the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Temple, Seventh avenue and Thirteenth street.

"The scientists point to the whole vast universe, with planets many times larger than the earth, and claim that it is ridiculous to believe that God should bother with such a small, weak creature as man," he said. "Yet it is not true that fathers everywhere do bestow the most attention upon the small and the weak?"

"Look at our own families. Do not the youngest receive the most attention? Is it not the poor who get the benefits of the vast sums we spend on charity? Are not our own vast governmental expenditures going to the relief of the needy, and not the powerful and rich? It is a wonder that man cannot learn the real nature of God by looking about him.

"Man is a wanderer and an invalid. His sickness may be the result of his own sin, but that does not make it less desperate. Man is sick; his being is poisoned; the poison is running all through his veins. If people say that man is a rebel, that is only a diagnosis of the disease, which still remains.

Our Mother Is Source of Joyful Peace

Full of Loveliness, Angelic Nature, Kindness

By MAYMIE L. T. DeMENA

The unfolding of God's Kingdom at Bridgeport, Conn., which is the same as its unfolding here on earth, was indeed beautiful. And this beauty was immensely heightened by the diffusion of loveliness, of Angelic Smile of Mother Divine who is the source of joy and happiness to all who call her with "Peace, Mother Dear." Mother is truly wonderful!

Early in the day buses, cars and more buses, cars, cars and more cars wound their way over the Boston Road, Route No. 1, to the Beautiful Kingdom at Bridgeport, Conn. Our Father's Spirit, leading the hosts, kept His vigilant eyes over His children as they journeyed.

Father's messages were full of inspiration as He poured out His wonderful love to the thousands who had congregated to the beautiful table groaning under the good eats, of all description. Men screamed, women jumped and even four-year-old children shouted for "Joy to the World, The Lord has come."

The meetings were held also in a very spacious auditorium where thousands greeted with screams, cheers and handkerchiefs flying, as Father arose to say, "Peace everybody," etc. Oh, it was Wonderful! Truly God is in the land and there is "Rest for the weary on this side of Jordan," the Father assured us.

Tennessee Ministers For Anti-Lynch Bill

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—The Ministerial Alliance, composed of the white ministers of this city, met in special session here Monday for consideration of the Costigan-Wagner Anti-Lynching bill, and by a large majority gave their endorsement to the measure and wired their action to Washington.

The Alliance had ordered the special meeting for the specific purpose of considering this bill and copies of the measure had been sent to every minister a week in advance.

President Sees Outlook 'Better'

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—President Roosevelt believes that prospects are "much better" than a year ago.

In a letter to Mayor Dickmann in response to a recent proclamation asking St. Louisans to celebrate March 3 and 4 as the "first anniversary of national recovery in St. Louis," the President said:

"I do appreciate your letter of Feb. 8, with enclosed copy of proclamation, and I am more than happy to know that the situation is such that you feel justified in doing this. I believe that almost everywhere prospects are much better than they were a year ago."

Seek Salvation In the Present, Not in Future

Only a Song in the Heart Can Give Courage and Strength

The time for salvation is the present, not the future, the Rev. Dr. William H. Boddy of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Minneapolis, declared at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth street. Interpreting the lyrics, praised in the psalms, as Faith, he said:

"There are some riddles which an inquiring mind cannot help us solve. Logic only adds confusion to the soul; only a song in the heart can give courage. If one's religion does not enrich life, it should be given up. I have no faith in a religion which is respectable according to the conventions, with salvation in the future. Now is the accepted day. Now is the time for salvation. The value of one's religion must be measured by what it does in life. Does it strengthen and steady you in time of crisis? Does it unseat fountains of sympathy until you are bowing beneath burdens not your own? Religion must be brought to the test of life.

"What the intellect can't solve, the spirit can. When we can't find an explanation, we must seek an inspiration. One may subscribe to a moral code and be enslaved. Another may adhere to the same code and find the fullest freedom. In no realm of moral life may we find beauty and freedom hedged in by a lot of 'don'ts'."

"Godness that is constrained is deadly. Goodness based on faith is free and a high adventure. The relations of the sexes can only be solved on the lyre. There is no finer test of the human spirit than that imposed upon ourselves. Let us be enslaving, but let love take up the harp of life; let men and women take up higher adventure than promiscuity ever gave and marriage becomes a thrilling spiritual adventure. Love is not half so much moral obligation as glorious moral opportunity. The real moral conflict is not between man and society but between the higher and the lower elements in man. Only when we bring mystical devotion and brave abandon to love do we find release."

Dr. Boddy said that until the commandments became beatitudes and the laws lyrics we would find no answer to these problems.

Trade Unions in Britain Decline

Membership Falls Swiftly Almost by Half; Unions Bulwark Against Revolution

LONDON.—Striking figures showing the decline in membership in the trade unions were given officially in the House of Commons last week by Sir Henry Betterton, the Minister of Labor.

At the end of 1929 the membership in Britain and Northern Ireland reached 8,346,000, but this had fallen to 4,441,000 by the end of 1933. Stanley Baldwin in a speech at Preston mentioned how the trade unions were going through a difficult time, and added: "In England the trade unions have become an integral part of the machinery of our industrial life, and as I see things developing here, my view is the principle of collective bargaining should be maintained and probably increased," he said.

Ten Million Know Father As Only God

Fluttering White Flags Harbingers of World Peace

Father Divine's Message at Public Meeting, Sokol Hall, 521 Hallett Street, Bridgeport, Conn., Sunday February 18th, 1934. 4:30 P. M.

About half-past four Sunday Afternoon, February 18th, two Packards and two Lincolns rolled up to the door of the Sokol Hall, at 521 Hallett street, Bridgeport, Connecticut, and the occupants stepped quickly out with merry hearts, and entered the Building. It was Father Divine and His immediate Staff coming from His Bridgeport Headquarters at 468-470 Broad street, for a Public Meeting in the great Hall.

Dance and Sing

All day, the Bridgeport Headquarters had been thronged with those attending a similar Meeting there, and Father had lectured several times and served two great Banquet Tables, but now He had come to the Sokol Hall that those assembled there also, might have His Personal Presence.

As Father stepped upon the Platform, a shout went up from the few hundred that filled the front part of the Auditorium, and they sang and danced for joy in the Presence of the Lord in constantly increasing numbers, until the great Hall and Balcony were completely filled.

In the meantime, the neighborhood had been aroused, for suddenly buses had begun to arrive from New York, New Jersey, and elsewhere, filling the streets for blocks around the Hall, unloading happy throngs. In less than a half hour after Father's Personal arrival, every space in the Hall was filled, with what the Police declared to be the best behaved group of people they had yet seen, and the largest crowd the Hall had ever held. They had come from Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, and other surrounding States, by Bus, Train and Automobile, and many of them had been at the Bridgeport Headquarters, earlier in the day.

I Know It Is Father

While a Throng from the surrounding neighborhood filled the rear of the Hall, the Praises went on with increasing joy, until a Song came forth by Inspiration,—"There is Somebody here, and I know it is Father." Instantly, the Audience was on its feet, and thousands danced as one. As Father Personally came forward and joined them, handkerchiefs began to wave with the rhythm of the Song, and soon a sea of waving, fluttering, white flags filled the Auditorium. They were not the red flags that had covered Russia, as might have been expected since a Russian organization occupied the Building, but they were the white flags of Peace, and they were flying because "Somebody is here," and more than ten Million in all parts of the World, "know it is Father."

As the demonstration subsided, Father stood silent for a moment, and then spoke as follows:—"Good health, good will, a good appetite, good manners, and good behaviour! We have a good Congregation tonight,—something we always have whosoever we are, for the Scripture is fulfilled this day in your hearing. It has long since been said, according to the Scripture,—"The Sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor the Law-Giver from between his feet, until Shiloh come . . . and when Shiloh comes, the gathering of the people shall be unto Him." This is a Biblical quotation you read back in the Scripture, but in the Gospel Jesus said,—"Where the eagles are gathered together, there shall the body be, in accord with that Song I heard you sing, and which we all have been singing,—"There is Somebody here, and I know it is,"—"Father," shouted

Roosevelt for Government Ship Subsidy

Favors Frank Admittal Of Direct Assistance; Action on Ocean Mail Contracts Likely

Aid is Held Essential

Plan Would Help American Merchant Marine Compete with Foreign Vessels

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—President Roosevelt expects soon to revise ocean mail contracts and at the same time strip from many of them any pretense that government aid is anything except a straight subsidy to assist the American merchant marine.

In indicating that he favors subsidies for the merchant marine, Mr. Roosevelt made it clear that he held that without government assistance American vessels could not operate as they now do in competition with foreign ships while paying wage scales based on American standards of living.

Describes Impractical Routes

Discussing the subterfuge under which such assistance had been given, the President cited post-office contracts to carry mail over impracticable routes. For instance, it was said, a line operating from Texas to Europe might receive many thousands of dollars annually for carrying a possible maximum of ten pounds of mail, or similar assistance might be given through mail contracts to a line operating from a mid-Atlantic port to the Balkans.

In either case the efficient way of carrying the mail would be to send it to New York City and put it aboard a fast liner, it was pointed out.

Under the President's plans, the lines which now receive ocean mail contracts, if in each case it were deemed desirable in the economic scheme, would receive aid as at present, but Congress would be requested to grant the lines assistance frankly in the form of subsidies rather than through postal contracts.

Secretary Roper announced today that the Shipping Board Bureau of the Department of Commerce is conducting a study of ocean mail contracts, looking toward formulating definite policies. This study is being made through individual contracts.

Reorganization of shipping interests gradually, and in the light of all facts, was predicted rather than cancellation of ocean mail contracts.

President Roosevelt made it clear that no such drastic action as cancellation of contracts would be taken in ocean mail contracts. He is said to feel there has been no evidence of irregularities or improper activities in relation to them, but that their use has become somewhat of a farcical nothing to say as to the basing of subsidy payments on the type, method of disguising subsidies.

The President did not challenge the considerations on which the subsidy was based, and had speed and mileage of ships of lines possessing contracts.

The Shipping Board Bureau of the Commerce Department is engaged in a thorough study, under the direction of Henry H. Heilmann, of the differences in cost of building and operating American and foreign vessels with a view to possible revisions of present ocean mail contract rates. Until the completion of the study it is not expected that any alteration of contracts will be undertaken.

Urges State Keep Forestation Aims

ALBANY, Feb. 21.—The importance of keeping alive the State's reforestation program, even though it may have to be curtailed or postponed, was stressed by Conservation Commissioner Osborne yesterday in his annual report to Governor Lehman and the Legislature.

In 1931 the voters approved a $20,000,000 bond issue for reforestation, to be expended over nineteen years. The appropriations from this bond money have been greatly curtailed in the last two years because of the State's financial conditions, but Commissioner Osborne said that under no circumstances should the program be allowed to die.

Roosevelt Plans National Survey

Drafts Cabinet Members to Study Long Range Resource Control

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—A permanent program of national development based primarily on control of water resources is expected by President Roosevelt to grow out of a preliminary study being conducted by a departmental committee.

The committee, including the Secretaries of Agriculture, Commerce, Interior and War, was designated, the President said, as the result of resolutions by the House and Senate asking for a correlated program for development of rivers and harbors.

President Roosevelt expects a tentative report from this committee within two or three weeks, and it is thought probable that it will become the groundwork for detailed studies by some form of permanent commission.

The ultimate object desired, the President said, is a program that will provide for the maximum use of watersheds, rivers and harbors development, elimination of soil erosion, reforestation where this is desirable, land reclamation where feasible and the abandonment of agricultural lands which are found unprofitable.

It is hoped by the President that the program can be made self-sustaining in the long run. However, he also looks on it as a natural successor to the temporary expedient of public works building now going on, to provide a labor reservoir for the unemployed who in some degree will have to be provided for in years to come.

Roosevelt Signs Retail Coal Code

Price-Fixing Provision to Get 90-Day Trial at Johnson's Suggestion

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—A qualified price-fixing provision in the retail coal code was approved this week by President Roosevelt, at the suggestion of General Johnson, on condition that the provision may be modified after a ninety-day trial. The code for coal selling was then approved. It is the 230th code sanctioned.

The code provides a 48-hour week for employees engaged in loading, storage and delivery service, and forty-two hours for clerical workers.

Forum Hears Ex-Envoy on The New Deal

Nicholas Roosevelt Reviews Conditions of Year Ago

Control of prices and profits by a super-state of administrative officials with practically dictatorial powers is seen as necessary to the success of the planned economy program of the national administration by Nicholas Roosevelt, former Ambassador to Hungary, who spoke Tuesday evening before the open forum at the Forest Hills Jewish Center. His topic was "Recovery Under the New Deal."

Introduced by Nathan Seidman, chairman of the forum, the speaker pointed out that the effectiveness and maintenance of a planned economy program presupposes the ability of the administration to procure people with sufficient wisdom and intelligence to carry it through successfully.

Keep Politics Out

The question arises, he declared, whether we, as a nation, have among us persons of such ability or whether we can develop them. Another question to be considered, he said, is whether we can keep politics out of an administration that is required to accomplish the desired planned economy.

Mr. Roosevelt reviewed conditions in America a year ago when the nation was on the verge of collapse due to uncertainty arising out of the pending change in administration.

Roosevelt's Problems

Outstanding problems facing the Roosevelt administration as it came into power were relief for the banks and the unemployed, and the devising of plans for recovery, reform and the settlement of private debts.

Telling of how the administration tackled the relief problem by the creation of agencies such as NRA, CCC and CWA, the speaker stated that the President succeeded in cutting down the number of unemployed from approximately 12,000,000 to 6,000,000.

Hits 'Respectable' Sin

The sins of the flesh, though popularly accepted as the gravest of all, are not as insidious as those of the spirit, said the Rev. Dr. Malcolm James MacLeod in his sermon in the Collegiate Reformed Church of St. Nicholas, Fifth avenue at 48th street.

"The sins we denounce, as a rule, are the sins of the sot, the thief, the gambler, the sensualist, the tenderloiner," he said. "But there are sins of the spirit as well as of the flesh. Sins of the spirit are more dangerous than sins of the flesh. They are more dangerous because more subtle. According to Jesus, respectable sin is the great sin."

When I Grow Old

By ETHEL R. PEYSER
When I grow old,
God grant that every child
Will feel the youthful texture of my soil,
And will not turn away from me
As from a shade or shrunken vine.
When I grow old,
God grant that I may have some task
Which must be done, or some one

That in some corner of the earth
Some one will need my hand
When I grow old.

State Feeds Wild Animals

Held Foodless by Snow
ITHACA, N. Y.—Food sent by the state has saved the lives of hundreds of wild animals, mostly deer, in Northern New York. These animals live in the mountains, and because of the deep snow, could get nothing to eat. If they had not been fed by the state's men they would have died.

Elected to State Regents Board

HON. OWEN D. YOUNG

Senate Votes Ask N. Y. State Approval of To Probe Nazi CWA Job Fund Actions Here

Federal Relief Projects Will Continue Until May 1

Assembly Resolution Seeks Joint Investigating Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The administration's request for $950,000,000 to continue Civil Works operations until May 1 and for other relief purposes was finally granted this week when the Senate passed the administration bill. Two moves that would have changed the whole structure of the CWA were rejected. Both houses having now approved the conference report, the measure will go to President Roosevelt for his signature.

Although Harry L. Hopkins, the administrator, can use any or all of the $950,000,000 either for direct relief or for the CWA, he says he desires to apply $500,000,000 to the latter. The CWA, he asserts, will be wound up by May 1, since by that time its workers can largely be absorbed by the Public Works Administration, business activities.

Simultaneously with the passage of the bill, the Civil Works Administration immediately ordered the termination of all work on nineteen Federal projects in the South. It was estimated that 150,000 of the 300,000 men employed on Federal projects would be dropped as the result of this order, the first step in the administration's tapering-off program.

Those continued on the payroll are to be dropped at the rate of 10 per cent a week until May 1, when the last of the 4,000,000 employees are scheduled to be let out.

Secretary Wallace of the Agriculture Department was instructed to cut the number of men assigned to him from 91,147 to 48,000. Included in the department's total force are 55,516 employed on various projects ordered discontinued under the non-Federal property order.

The War Department was ordered to cut from 57,311 to 25,000; the Navy from 12,000 to 8,000; the Lighthouse Commission from 537 to 250; the Fisheries Commission from 2,349 to 650; the Coast Guard from 717 to 360; the Veterans Administration from 849 to 150, and the Bureau of Mines from 446 to 225.

The state administrations in each case were authorized, however, to continue the work as State and local projects, with a promise of CWA funds where this is done.

"Hitlerism is the very antithesis of Americanism. It is common knowledge that the Nazis have been spreading Hitlerite doctrines in the Yorkville section of New York City, in Long Island, Queens County and in Sullivan County. Let us stop this poisonous propaganda and let us stop it before it is too late."

The Assemblyman stated that he counted fully on the support of an aroused public opinion aware of the danger inherent in the Nazi activities, and of such great organizations as the American Federation of Labor, which was cognizant of the danger of Nazism.

SPIRITUAL FREEDOM URGED

Unstinted allegiance to the truth was described as the message of Christ by the Rev. Dr. Minot Simons in his sermon at All Souls Unitarian Church, 80th street and Lexington avenue. "Jesus freed his mind always from the bondage of the spiritual dogmatism of His day," he said. "He was spiritually independent."

Young Elected to Board of Regents

Democrats and Republicans Alike Join in Unanimous Approval of Selection

ALBANY, Feb. 21.—Owen D. Young was formally elected a member of the State Board of Regents this week.

Republicans and Democrats joined in the unanimous selection of Mr. Young to fill the place left vacant by the death of Chester S. Lord. Several years ago Republicans blocked his election when Franklin D. Roosevelt, then Governor, proposed him.

The selection was made at a joint session of the Senate and Assembly presided over by Lieut. Gov. Bray.

Jerome A. Holl of Cortland was re-elected a member of the State Council of Agriculture and Markets. The Democrats did not put up any candidate. They followed their usual custom on the ground that the members of the council should be appointed by the Governor.

Race Fallacies

By Albert Muntsch, S.J.

Professor Boas concludes his book on "The Mind of the Primitive Man" with the following words: "I hope the discussions contained in these pages have shown that the data of anthropology teach us a greater tolerance of forms of civilization different from our own, and that we should learn to look upon foreign races with greater sympathy, and with the conviction, that, as all races have contributed in the past to cultural progress in one way or another, so they will be capable of advancing the interests of mankind, if we are only willing to give them a fair opportunity."

Unfortunately, many of our people have not learnt the wise lesson here taught by the well-known anthropologist. And yet it is not too much to say that in a country like ours, composed of diverse races, nations and classes, amicable race relations are a requisite for social progress.

"Race prejudice" has become a very familiar term in recent writing, especially journalistic writing, and crops up again and again in treatises on sociology and history. Europe has seen more of race rivalry, race friction, and race hatred than America, though the K. K. K. movement in our own land and the antipathy shown Negroes, even by persons whose education and station ought to free them from such pettiness, show that the United States is not immune to this evil.

In view of the distressing results to which they have led, Professor Augustine Miller is justified in listing "one hundred per cent patriotism" and "the myth of Nordic supremacy" as two of the most dangerous manifestations of public life in America.

There is, fortunately, a turn in the tide in our attitude toward race. Sometimes it is the younger groups of intellectuals in institutions of learning and in editorial offices who are helping us to get rid of the barbares foisted upon social progress by the upholders of the ancient regime, the defenders of nationalism and those afflicted with the racial superiority complex. Many years ago Munsey's Magazine printed an enlightening series of articles on the debt of America to the various foreign elements of its population, while now even college students of sociology are familiar with "immigrant contributions to American culture."

A race is an ethnic stock or larger division of mankind, possessing in common certain physical (somatic) and psychic hereditary traits, and thereby separated from all other groups. One people may be related linguistically and culturally to another, without any racial similarity existing between them. For the representatives of one cultural or linguistic group may bring their civilization—in a peaceful way, or by war and conquest—to another, which is racially different. The latter will often assimilate these contributions, perhaps losing their original culture which may die out in the new environment. There are Indo-Germanic, Aryan, Germanic, and Romance languages and peoples, but not races. "Aryan" is a term of very wide extension, embracing people between Hindostania and the Bay of Bengal—Melpotas, Persians, Greeks, Italians, Celts, Slavonians, Teutons, and perhaps even peoples of whom we no longer have any definite linguistic or other cultural records.

Fittard warns us against certain fallacies. He says: "It must be fully understood that Race represents the continuity of a physical type stands for an essentially natural grouping, which can have nothing, and in general has nothing in common with the people, the nationality, the language, or the customs corresponding to groupings that are purely artificial, in no way anthropological, and due entirely to history. Thus there is no Breton Race, but a Breton People; no French Race, but a French Nation; no Aryan Race, but Latin Civilization."

CWA Gathers Data For State Redistricting

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Civil Works Administration employees will undertake a special survey of 1930 census statistics to provide figures for the reapportionment of the New York Legislature, under an order issued this week by Harry L. Hopkins, administrator. Three hundred and ninety skilled and ten unskilled employees will be used on the work which will be done here. Dr. L. E. Truesdell, chief statistician for population of the Bureau of the Census, will supervise the work.

Kaiser to Be Back in Reich Within 2 Years

BERLIN.—"Within two years Germany will be a monarchy and her ruler will be called the Kaiser of the Germans," is the opinion of one of the shrewdest observers of events in Germany. He is an Anglo-Saxon and a Catholic, with exceptional sources of information.

SPICE OF LIFE

Mr. Cutter—No man with any sense would permit his wife to carry on the way you do.

Mrs. Cutter—How do you know what a man with any sense would do?

Divorce Lawyer—Do you think $25,000 damage would be enough judgment for his breach of promise?

Client—No, indeed. I just want to marry him, the miserable fish! Then I'll show him!

Landlady—I'm sorry the chicken soup isn't good. I explained to the cook very carefully how to make it but perhaps she didn't catch the idea.

Boarder—It tastes to me as if it was the chicken she didn't catch.

There was a day in your life when there was no yesterday; there will be no tomorrow.

size of parts of the bony skeleton. The criterion most widely used is the cranial or cephalic index, which expresses the ratio of the breadth to the length of the skull or head.

In physiological functions races do not present any noteworthy differences. The period of puberty in general is earlier among lower races than among civilized people, but this is due to climate and to the less artificial life of primitive conditions. Hrdlicka says that "the time of puberty in Indian boys differs apparently but little if any, from that in whites," and he holds that the greater our knowledge of the facts, the more it appears that in physiological functions the Indian does not differ considerably from the white man. And even as regards social inhibition, "an examination of the facts," says W. I. Thomas, "shows that the savage exercises definite and powerful restraints over impulses, but that these restraints do not correspond to our own. In connection with taboos, totemism, fetish, and ceremonial among the lower races, in the hunger voluntarily submitted to in the presence of food, as well as stoicism under physical hardships and torture, we have inhibitions quite as striking as any exhibited in modern society or in history."

All these facts show the fallacy of the reasoning of Gobineau, H. S. Chamberlain, and Lothrop Stoddard—ardent defenders of the myth of racial supremacy and of the high study of the people of the world, Professor Felix von Luschan, of Berlin, came to the conclusion that there are no "wild and inferior races" and that the unity of the human species is a scientific fact.

The Nordic myth and other fallacies of racial superiority, especially those advocated by Guenther, Madison Grant, McDougall, C. S. Burr, C. Brigham, and others, have been definitely disproved. During the European War race hatred revived crude opinions as to the pretended racial position of some of the belligerents over other nations. Brinton, one of the earlier American anthropologists, admitted that "human groups have differed less in inherent psychic capacity than in stimuli and opportunities." The opinion now generally held is that there is no difference in mental capacity between races and that cultural variations are to be explained by history and not by biology. Boas, therefore, concludes that "considerations make it probable that the wide differences between the manifestations of the human mind in various stages of culture may be due almost entirely to the form of individual experience, which is determined by the geographical and social environment of the individual. It would seem that, in different races, the organization of the mind is on the whole alike, and that the varieties of mind found in different races do not exceed, perhaps not even reach, the amount of normal individual variation in each race. It has been indicated that, notwithstanding this similarity in the form of individual mental processes, the expression of mental activity of a community tends to show a characteristic historical development. From a comparative study of these changes among the races of man is derived our theory of the general development of human culture."

Fair Play as Solution for Nation's Ills

President Urges It as Safe Method to Save Democracy

ATLANTA.—President Roosevelt suggested to the Emory University Institute of Citizenship today that "in considering our problems, the purposes or goals of our democracy should be kept constantly in mind."

In a letter to Professor Cullen B. Gosnell, director of the institute, the President said that college graduates and others who attend institutes of the kind, "by free and open discussion" can help formulate solution of the problems caused by the changes in political, social and economic life which occur from year to year.

Declining an invitation to make a radio talk to the Emory Institute, the President wrote:

"The idea of holding a conference on citizenship is an excellent one and I am delighted to know that such a conference is being held at Emory University. I hope that more institutes similar to yours will be organized throughout the land. Changes in our political, social and economic life occur from year to year. Such changes create new problems for which a solution must be found. College graduates and others who attend institutes of the kind that you are holding can, by free and open discussion, help formulate a solution.

"May I add that in considering our problems the purposes or goals of our democracy should be kept constantly in mind. These purposes are very clearly stated in the preamble of the Constitution of the United States, and they are just as good goals today as they were when 'We, the people,' wrote them into the preamble of our Constitution.

"All of the purposes enumerated may be attained by means of fair play or a square deal. If every American were to make fair play his objective in his dealings with others, most of our problems would disappear, many of which have arisen because of greed and selfishness. At times we may have lost sight of the fundamental purpose for which our Constitution was ordained and established, in which case we lose our way, just as does the mariner who takes his eyes off his compass or off the beacon light."

How to Work Out These Word Games

1. Read the games, study the words of each line and stop with the last line which has a number in it.
2. The number of letters in the word which answers the game is the same as the number of lines.
3. Read carefully the last lines, which give you an idea of what the answer should be.
4. Start the game by taking one letter for each line, as the words in each line tell you.

Answers will be printed next time.

Some Trouble?

John: "Mr. Long, I would like to marry your daughter."
Mr. Long: "No, you can't marry her."
John: "Why? What is the trouble with her?"

When to Talk About Them

Mary: "Does your husband tell his business troubles to you?"
May: "Yes. Every time I want to buy a new dress."

Blind Typist Wins Prizes

BERLIN.—Twelve blind typists for the first time were admitted recently to a public competition in typewriting by the German Federation of Stenographers. Of these, six won prizes in a group that wrote 160 syllables a minute, and four drew awards in a group that wrote 140 syllables a minute. The blind competitors took dictation in Braille shorthand.

Wedding customs are peculiar things. We attended a marriage recently. At the ceremony, the bride's mother wept bitterly, and everybody commiserated with her and said they "knew just how she felt." Later, at the reception, the bridegroom's father wept, and everybody said he was drunk and tried to put him out.

'Sun Center' Exposed, Enlightened by Sphynx

Tells Wonders of Father Divine's Work, Mission

Sphynx Enlightens February 10th, 1934 1026 Ingraham Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sun Publishing Co. Akron, Ohio Dear Friends:

Am in receipt of your kind and prompt letter of February 3, with lessons on the Inner Life and the circular entitled "The way to the Kingdom", which book, you state is now ready for distribution.

It has been particularly noted what you say regarding your "hopes," that I am doing more than reading your lessons with deep interest and that the impersonal "lessons" are intended for such, who are now earnestly seeking the "Kingdom" and making it first in their lives and who are no longer satisfied with intellectual studies, but are hungering for the "True Bread of Life."

The little book entitled "THE IMPERSONAL LIFE," I purchased many years ago, and studied thoroughly its contents, not however, from any intellectual point of view, but with real and great universal love in my heart, a love that could only emanate from the soul and heart of one who has a deep distilled interest, compassion, and love for the uplift of his brother man and therefore in reading and studying this great masterpiece, though little book, called, "THE IMPERSONAL LIFE," I found it to be the greatest and most powerful work of one who had certainly entered into the fullness of the Christ Sonship, degree in consciousness and that its author knew beyond cavil the impersonality of the spirit's advent here, (temporarily) encompassed in its so-called sheaf of matter.

The little book was my almost constant companion and I knew that all who would come into a recognition of the realization in fullness of its impersonal import, not alone within themselves, but in each and every brother and sister, would behold the CHRIST of that selfless author, made manifest in the universality of its sacred message, and must become a vital conscious part of their own Christed Center within.

Hence, the writer always knew and felt (inspirationally) that the advent of that CHRIST EXPRESSION and work of the IMPERSONAL LIFE, upon the earth-plane, must be the forerunner of another stupendous Revelation to be brought forth.

The writer has been an extensive traveler and a deep and earnest searcher always for the TRUTH for no other motive than that of UNIVERSAL LOVE, in which to be of benefit for the enlightenment of his fellowman, not only that he may receive a better understanding of himself but a greater insight into his own CHRISTED CENTER and birthright, and that mankind as a whole could be lifted into a higher strata of being.

Futility of Beliefs

Most of the Religious and religious belief were studied by this writer, for the same motive stated above and consequently the conditions of the disrupted nations and empires were seriously thought over. What had the so-called religions, religious beliefs, ecclesiastical dogmas and Church bound creeds, throughout the ages, brought about? (Nothing but sorrow, inharmonious, discords, and chaos.) This poor old world of mankind and man created beliefs was as earthbound and creed bound and as ignorant of a higher state of life, as an acorn, imbedded in the darkness of earth, while yet knowing nothing of its someday becoming a great and mighty oak tree.

What has been the results and outcome of all the religious creeds and so-called forms of dogmatic beliefs, throughout the centuries? What has been accomplished? What are the results of this pharisaical hypocrisy? When the whole poor old Planet and mankind in general, has been kept in the darkness and denseness of superstitious, crass ignorance, history, and fear—a world disrupted, disorganized and plunged into a state of the most terrible chaos, so that poor deluded mankind cannot find a way out of this great cloud of infamous darkness and despair. That is what your religions and so-called organizations and institutions have accomplished. That is what your High Potentates of political power have brought about. That is what the so-called world at present and from out the long past has been facing; a great hypnotized and crystallized mesmerism of delusions.

Advent of Father Divine In the midst of all this chaos, suffering, sin, and fear stricken human condition comes along our beloved, and blessed FATHER DIVINE. Crashing through the miasma of crystallized intellectual mentality and breaking assunder the veil of darkness and chaos. Breaking through and rending all this religious farce and awakening all who have been sleeping and dead, throughout the ages, FATHER DIVINE comes through with His GREAT ILLUMINATING LIGHT, here, there and everywhere, freeing these poor deluded mortals, out of their long endured hypnosis, showing them the way into the LIGHT of the REALITY of their OWN GREAT SPIRITS—their true birthright in CHRIST; taking away their sickness, sins, diseases, and poverty; freeing the minds from all preconceived ideas, so-called Master Teachers and all proscribed rules of authority, etc. both from the within as well as the without. FATHER DIVINE is freeing us from all organized teachings, institutions and what not. FATHER DIVINE is showing us the way of freedom, LIGHT, LOVE and LIBERTY. He is teaching us the recognition, from our own INDIVIDUAL CHRIST CENTERS, —the Spirit of the CONSCIOUSNESS of the PRESENCE of GOD, in its universality and fullness of BEING. Thus FATHER DIVINE has come, as did Jesus before HIM, to bring the LIGHT to the children of men, and in this great LIGHT, FATHER DIVINE is ILLUMINATING this dark and sorrowful planet, with the RADIANCE OF HIS INFINITE PRESENCE. No wonder the whole world is arousing itself from out of its lethargy. . . . It would seek to crush out all FATHER DIVINE'S glorious work. However, HIS GREAT LIGHT HAS ALREADY SPREAD OVER THE EARTH AND THE POWER OF THAT LIGHT IS SO BRILLIANT, THAT IT IS RAPIDLY BURNING UP THE DROSS and disintegrating conditions and fast ushering in the NEW DAY and AGE.

Nothing can hinder the great power, and might of this LUMINOUS SPIRIT OF THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE PRESENCE OF FATHER DIVINE, IN ITS UNIVERSALITY AND FULLNESS OF BEING. No wonder, this great political machine built up through the ages is beginning to sit up and take notice, for ALL COMMERCIALISTIC GRAFT AND GREED IS COMING TO AN END. The Tower of Babel has had its day and is fast tottering to the ground of its tottering, never to be built up again, no wonder they are still trying to cling to the last straw of their fading out dreams of bliss, having held a deluded race in the clutches of its so-called power. No wonder they are trying to suppress and crush out all FATHER DIVINE'S most glorious work. FATHER DIVINE is healing and freeing us from the yoke of this oppression and depression and is showing us the fallacy of going on, in the old man-made order of autocracy. FATHER DIVINE is showing and proving to us that we have come to the parting of the ways; That we are being led out of THE RED SEA unto dry land.

Choose from the Bible It is true that the Bible has had many interpretations, and there is much in it that we need not accept, however the great inspirations of the TRUE LIGHT, which goes on and on through the ages, can NEVER BECOME LOST OR ANNihilATED. FATHER DIVINE tells us to study only the truths of this GREAT BOOK. Who can stop the great monumental work of "THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT"? Who that has read and studied it together with the FOUR GOSPELS and thought deeply and seriously enough, can hold up his head and earnestly state that the building of great Church Edifices, all over the world, costing millions of dollars, would not be put to better use feeding and clothing the millions of poor, hungry, cold and starving children, and men and women all over the world. That is what Jesus taught when he said "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel" and this is what FATHER DIVINE IS DOING. FATHER DIVINE is taking us into a new day and a new age. He is pouring over us this great effluence of LIGHT and LOVE, and showing us how we can throw off our old mortal beliefs and thinking and come into this NEW ORDER and REALIZATION of our own Christ Birthright in consciousness. FATHER DIVINE is pointing out to us, the REAL CHRIST TEACHINGS, as CHRIST JESUS taught nineteen hundred years ago, which awakens us out of our spell-bound illusions.

FATHER DIVINE IS GIVING ALL, WITHOUT MONEY OR PRICE OR INFLUENCES OF ANY NATURE, PAST OR PRESENT. He is healing the blind; the lame; the deaf; the dumb; the sick; the sorrowing; the sinful; in short FATHER DIVINE is raising the dead. FATHER DIVINE is proving to mankind that a NEW DISPENSATION is at hand. FATHER DIVINE is revolutionizing the whole world, and is proving conclusively to all who have eyes, with which to see and ears with which to hear, that the old order of GRAFT and GREED with its whole political machinery, including so-called religions and creeds are being broken down, never to rise again, as an entirely new order is coming into manifestation. FATHER DIVINE is not teaching any new cult or creed. HE is teaching us only to recognize and bring into manifestation our OWN GREAT LIGHT WITHIN. . . . FATHER DIVINE tells us if we will live EVANGELICAL and study the Four Gospels of the NEW TESTAMENT and continuously recognize the UNIVERSAL SPIRIT OF THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE PRESENCE OF GOD, here, there and everywhere, it will bring us into the realization and recognition of our own great spirits and all things will be made new and all the old established order will fade out of our consciousness.

This is what FATHER DIVINE is doing to the children of men. This is what the last chapter in REVELATION is and has been telling us. This was the great master's teachings and revelations two thousand years ago. Awake, Arise and Shine, for thy light has come, FATHER DIVINE, in the final analysis is pointing out the true, real and only way out.

True Deliverer Father Divine has come at this cycle of the world's great need to emancipate and deliver mankind into its real heritage of LIGHT and LOVE and FREEDOM and FATHER DIVINE has a tremendous host of INVISIBLE as also VISIBLE BROTHERS OF LIGHT (prepared throughout the ages) in constant attendance upon him to bring to fruition this deliverance. . . . THIS GREAT UNIVERSAL LAW OF LOVE can never be broken or tampered with, without its reactionary results, and therefore FATHER DIVINE is lovingly calling us all out of the darkness into the LIGHT. FATHER DIVINE is delivering us out of mortality into IMMORTALITY. Thank you FATHER. It is truly wonderful. Yours in UNIVERSAL LIGHT, LOVE and TRUTH.

In Thy Service The "SPHYNX"

The above is the answer from the "Sphynx" to the Sun Publishing Company's letter which follows:

'Black Eagle' All Set to Go

Hopes to Fly Non-Stop 7,509 Miles and Break Record

The "Abyssinia," Colonel Hubert Julian's fleet Bellanca monoplane is poised on Floyd Bennett Field today ready to take-off on the imperial flight which he hopes will break the world's long-distance record.

The "Black Eagle," as Julian is known, has been training for the last nine months for the flight. Each week he stays up three or four nights in succession, sitting in the position for flying. He has also lived on a special diet and gets plenty of exercise in order to ready him for the flight which, if completed, will cover 7,509 miles, from Floyd Bennett Field to Aden, on the southern tip of the Red Sea.

Pledge to Royalty The purpose of the trip, according to Colonel Julian, is twofold—to bring the long-distance record back to America, and to fulfill his pledge to Emperor Haile Salsie, of Abyssinia, who sent Julian a cable on Oct. 16 giving him permission to return to Abyssinia.

Because of the poor flying conditions in the North, Julian will take the much longer Southern route across the Atlantic. This will take him around Bermuda and south of the Azores to the Straits of Gibraltar. He will then follow the North Atlantic coast to Alexandria, from there to Port Said, along the Suez Canal and down the Red Sea.

Weather conditions at this point will determine whether he lands at Aden or crosses to Abyssinia, which has an elevation of 10,000 feet.

His large black Bellanca plane, powered by a Wright J. 6240 engine, is especially designed for long distance cruising. It was obtained at a cost of $35,000 by a popular subscription of the people of Julian's race in this country.

G. M. Bellanca also donated to the fund. In a letter of introduction which Bellanca wrote for Colonel Julian, he said: "To my knowledge, he could have been the first to cross the Atlantic, but because of lack of financial support, his desires and ambitions have not been fulfilled. I am sure that his main purpose is that of fostering aviation among his race."

Colonel Julian attempted a non-stop flight across the Atlantic in 1924, but a pontoon fell off the plane and he had to abandon the project.

In the event that the flight is successful, he will break the existing record of Rossi and Condos, made on Aug. 7, 1933, by approximately 1,800 miles. Julian also has a margin of safety. The load for which the plane is designed is 7,235 pounds, whereas the load, which he intends to carry will be 6,960 pounds.

According to his calculations, he will carry 650 gallons of gasoline and 30 gallons of lubricating oil, which will give him a margin of 700 miles of possible flight over the actual distance from Floyd Bennett Field to Aden.

The "Black Eagle" soars again, this time on an exceptionally hazardous and pretentious flight, but he is ready and eager to be off. All he awaits is word from the weather man.

3 Seconds Is Kiss Limit For Films

DUBLIN, Irish Free State.—Three seconds is the limit on screen kisses in the Free State. That is as long as James Montgomery, gray-haired censor, thinks proper.

What Is the Color of White Race?—C.B.S.

Not much gets away from the observant George Bernard Shaw. In his latest play, "On the Rocks," he suddenly discovers that white men are not white at all. This comes out in the play when one of the characters reminds the Prime Minister that, after all, "we are white men." The Prime Minister replies:

"You are not, Rosy, I assure you. You are walnut color, with a touch of claret on the nose. Glenmorison is the color of his native oatmeal—not a touch of white on him. The fairest man present is the Duke. He's as yellow as a Malayan headhunter. The Chinese call us Pinkies. They flatter us."

"Sir Benmore—I must tell you, Arthur, that frivolity on a vital point like this is very bad taste."

This bit of frivolity is simply Bernard Shaw letting off steam. He is off on another topic the moment after.

Government Vote Drops in By-Election

LONDON.—Another by-election, this time in the town of Lowestoft, has resulted in another sharp decline in the government's vote.

The Conservative candidate squeezed through today with a majority of 1,920 over the Laborite in a total of 22,000.

This is in contrast with a Conservative majority of 11,992 at the last general election and one of 2,917 in 1929.

A Liberal also ran this time, but polled so few votes that he forfeited his election deposit.

17 Firemen to Get Medals as Heroes

Outstanding acts of bravery in line of duty performed in 1933 have won the Department Medal, the only official medal of the department, for seventeen firemen, Fire Commissioner John J. McElligott announced this week.

The medals will not actually be given to the seventeen until some time in June, when Mayor LaGuardia will make the presentations as is the custom, on the steps of City Hall.

A list of the seventeen men who will be awarded are: Fireman George S. Magnusson, Capt. Harold V. Kinney, Lieut. Frank A. Toomey, Fireman Stephen J. McArdle, Fireman Benjamin A. Moore, Lieut. John J. Metz, Fireman George J. Grau, Lieut. John McCormack, Fireman Daniel Herlihy, Fireman Charles Wolfinger, Rudolph F. Tausil, Roland G. Church, Charles H. Smith, Thomas Brady, Joseph Steinger and Edward F. McMahon, and Capt. Timothy F. Costello.

Only Path to Content

It is Through the Spirit With Christ as Guide, Says Scherer

The only path to contentment is through the spirit, and "the only specialist I know in that field" is Jesus Christ, the Rev. Dr. Paul Scherer said in his sermon at the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity, Central Park West and 65th street.

"The problem of Christ was the same problem which has confronted human existence from the beginning of time—the problem of living a well-rounded life," Dr. Scherer said. "His life teaches that the only supreme and satisfying experience is that which comes in the realm of the spirit of man."

Nehru Jailed in India

Nationalist Gets Seventh Jail Sentence for Sedition

CALCUTTA.—Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, fiery All-India Nationalist Congress leader, was sentenced today to jail for two years for sedition as a result of three speeches delivered in Calcutta early in January. This is his seventh prison sentence.

Pandit Nehru admitted his activities for many years had certainly been seditious, "if by sedition is meant the desire to achieve independence for India and a country free from every kind of foreign domination."

Democracy Hard Pressed

Fosdick Holds It This Nation's Duty to Defeat World Chaos

Collective determination to face and overcome the "tumultuous forces of chaos" sweeping the world was urged by the Rev. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick at the Riverside Church.

"Only a few places now are left on earth where democracy has standing ground," he said. "To keep the essential meaning of personal freedom and cooperative government and still discover a way to a planned economy that will meet the demands of a new machine age, that is a task which the world more and more lays upon the doorstep of this nation."

BEAUTY HINTS

By NINA TEMPLE Rest for Beauty

It's strange what magic rest will work upon a woman's face. You may find your face covered with a thousand tiny lines of care at the end of the day and your eyes may be red and puffy and dull, but take heart—just lie down, relax and rest for an hour and then behold how smooth and lovely your face has become. The lines disappear, the puffs go down and your eyes sparkle. This is your real beauty and is more permanent and attractive than your whole turnout of cosmetics.

Cows Paid Way

ACTON, England.—Irish cows paid their way. When a carload shipment arrived from Fishguard, it was found that six had given birth to calves en route.

Care of Caged Canaries

Canaries should be kept in a warm pleasant place, carefully protected from draft. Sunshine is essential, but avoid long exposure to the direct rays of the hot sun. Give them fresh seed daily, and change their drinking water several times each day. Keep them well supplied with gravel. Red gravel is preferable to silver gravel because of its relish and softer texture, although some bird owners favor a good grade silver gravel. Clean the cage once a day and let them bathe three times a week, especially during the warm weather. Use for this purpose a dish somewhat larger than the conventional bird bath.

Good food is essential to health and the canary should therefore be given the best canary seed obtainable, and occasionally summer rape seed. Do not give damp seed, as it is likely to lump and turn sour. Always prepare fresh each feeding, if a moist food is necessary for the bird's well being. Birds are frequently sickened and die, or have their voices permanently injured or destroyed, from being fed hard, musty, or wormy seed. Similarly, lump sugar and other delicacies, although relished, may injure the bird's health and ruin his song.

Hempseed should be fed sparingly. Give no salt. To Sharpen His Bill Place a piece of cuttlefish bone between the bars of the cage where the bird can easily sharpen his bill on it and eat a little if he desires.

Every two or three days the bird should have a piece of lettuce or a small piece of apple or orange, and after the bird has been accustomed to it a bit of one the other every day is a fine thing. A bird out of condition should be fed a small piece of stale whole-wheat bread soaked in a little warm milk each morning. If troubled with looseness of the bowels, place a rusty nail in the drinking water.

During the moulting season, which extends from June until September, birds should be given a little grated, hard-boiled egg about three times a week and a small piece of lettuce about twice a month. As previously stated, birds should be kept out of a draft at all times of the year, but particularly when in this denuded state. Cover the cage with a lightweight cloth to protect the bird from the glare of electric light and a falling temperature during the night.

Perches of various thickness are commendable to promote a variable leg and toe exercise induced by the different grasps. Strict Cleanliness Necessary In caring for caged birds strict cleanliness is essential—avoid dishes with corners which hold dirt—use round cups or dishes. Keep all dishes absolutely clean. Feed the bird and attend to its cage regularly and at the same time every morning. Clean the perches by scraping—never by washing. A piece of wrapping paper cut to fit the bottom of the cage makes the most sanitary floor covering. It quickly absorbs moisture and can be discarded daily. When the habit is formed there will be less danger of the bird's being forgotten. If possible, never delegate this care to another person.

If a brass cage is not kept perfectly clean, verdigris collects and the bird will peck at it and suffer in health—perhaps fatally. When a canary is restless either the food is not to its taste, or it has no food in the seed dish, or the water dish may be empty, or the bird may feel a draft, or feel the presence of a cat or mouse, or some object to which it is not accustomed. Fluttering about is also a signal of distress and calls for an immediate inspection. The bird may have its claw caught in the mesh of the wire guard of the cage.

If the nails are overgrown or deformed they need trimming. Sore feet require the application of a little petroleum ointment. Scald the cage frequently with boiling water to destroy the mites that lodge thereon.

Mayor Seeks Park Space for Bocce

So that his former neighbors may be able to play the game of bocce, a sport resembling bowling that is popular in Italy, Mayor LaGuardia yesterday asked the Park Department to install courts in the Thomas Jefferson Park at 111th street and First avenue.

A bocce tournament will be held on the courts in the spring, thus bringing the game, which has been played in vacant lots in the neighborhood, from the sand-lot to the stadium stage. The official court measures about 60 by 18 feet and is enclosed by a low wooden border. A small guide ball, a "pallino," is thrown into position and eight larger balls thrown at it.

The game is recognized by the National Olympic Association in Italy.

Group Travels 760 Miles to Sunday School

PORTLAND, Me.—Fifty teachers of Port Maitland, N. S., traveled 760 miles to attend Sunday school here today.

They joined hundreds of other men and women from sixty-two towns in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts for the services held by the "13 Class" in a theatre here.

The gathering was one of a series of attendance contests the local organization, under the leadership of Henry F. Merrill, is conducting with the Bartholow Bible Class of Mount Vernon, N. Y. The attendance was 1,430 persons.

The Port Maitland visitors, including a women's quartet and a male chorus, traveled from their homes to Boston by water and thence to Portland by bus. They will return tomorrow by the same route.

Home of Walkers In Village Sold

The old red brick dwelling at 6 St. Luke's Place, in Greenwich Village, which for many years was the home of James J. Walker, former Mayor, has been bought by Eric Coupey, an importer and broker in essential oils.

Transfer of the property, which had been held by the Walker family for nearly fifty years, was recorded this week. The former Mayor lived there from boyhood, having been 7 years old when his father, William H. Walker, bought the house for $18,000. In 1928 Mrs. Janet Walker had the house remodeled and installed much expensive furniture and decorations. In 1929 Mr. Walker was reported to have declined $50,000 for the property.

Senator Norris has introduced a constitutional amendment to abolish the Electoral College. A college without professors is of no use to the government.

O'Ryan Warns Police They Face Pay Cuts

The Police Department must share in the economies the city must make to wipe out its $31,000,000 budget deficit, Commissioner O'Ryan said yesterday. He indicated that it might be necessary to reduce salaries or to require men to take payless vacations.

Until a survey, now under way, is completed, he will be unable to tell just what economies he can effect, the commissioner said. One move under consideration, he admitted, is the abolition of the ranks of first-grade detective and deputy inspectors and the reduction of holders of these ranks to the next lower rating. First-grade detectives get $4,000 a year and deputy inspectors $3,500.

"We have been doing everything in our power to make cuts where they will not interfere with the running of the Police Department," he said. "However, the outlook is not too bright for those drawing salaries."

Philanthropist Feeds Idle in Montclair, N. J.

MONTCLAIR, N. J.—Montclair's first soup kitchen was opened yesterday in a vacant store at 217 Bloomfield avenue by Town Commissioner James J. McMahon, Public Safety Director and philanthropist.

Every day, between 3 and 5 p. m., soup, rolls and coffee will be served, according to Commissioner McMahon. Several hundred unemployed men were in line when the kitchen was opened today.

McMahon also instructed police to serve rolls and coffee at restaurants to persons who received lodging at the police station. He also will pay for that.

McMahon recently gave 1,000 pairs of shoes to needy children of the town.

SPANISH TRANSLATION OF FATHER'S MESSAGE

Padre Divino es una Dádiva Para la Humanidad, Para el Bien de Uno y el de Todos

Soportará y Ayudará, Solo a Aquellos Oficiales que Estan en el Poder y a las Organizaciones que Crean y Practiquen en Verdad la Justicia—Su Espada es el Amor, Su Unico Escudo Conferencia por Padre Divino. En la Mesa del Banquete, Calle 126, Nos 150 al 160, Nueva York. El jueves, 15 de Febrero de 1934.

La gran Mesa del Banquete de Padre Divino si se extendiera de punta a punta cogería casi un bloque de la Ciudad, como estaba reglada en la hermosa extensión de "El Reino" en la Ciudad Nueva York, calle 126 y Nos 150 al 160 el jueves de su noche, 15 de Febrero de 1934.

Las mesas dobles y larguissimas, hermosamente decoradas, ocupaban casi todo el espacio del gran Salon Comedor, sin embargo una gran multitud se aglomeró alrededor de la mesa y en contra de la pared, mientras otros subían al balcón que coge los cuatro testeros del comedor; aún no habiendo más espacio llenaron también la escalera de entrada en forma de "V" dando un aspecto jamás visto por persona alguna.

Fue una escena para no olvidarse jamás, pues el espíritu, la mente y el cuerpo henchidos de amor, derraman sus Alabanzas a El, el cual es la Fuente de todas las Bendiciones, y los escuchaba sentado en Su Tabernaculo Personal a la cabecera de la mesa.

En verdad era la Gloria de Dios puesta de manifiesto, esto es algo que el Mundo no puede entender, pues mientras muchos con propiedades no tienen un dollar, teniendo que aceptar la caridad, aquí está este Establecimiento terminado con todo el lujo posible, los suelos y los muros terminados con marmol importados y con todo el confort de palacio. En el subsuelo estan instaladas las piscinas para nadar y regaderas de agua fría y caliente, todo arreglado con la mayor pulcritud y comodidad. Se ven lámparas eléctricas por todas partes, dando un aspecto palacial y como si fuese la luz del día. En el principal se encuentran el Salon de Conferencias a la derecha, y el salon del comedor a la izquierda donde estaba preparado el Regio Banquete con la Abundancia de todo que un epicureo puede desear y todo gratis para todos, no sólo para el acompañamiento de Padre Divino, sino también para los de fuera que desean sentarse y lo hagan saber a Padre.

Se Sostiene De Por Si

Esto no se mantiene por donaciones, ni contribuciones de ninguna clase ni tampoco se mantiene por alguien personalmente, pero esta bajo el mando de Faithful Mary, pero como no habéis oído más de una vez en sus testimonios, cuando ella fué curada por Padre Divino todo lo que poseía era un cuerpo completamente estropeado y enfermo a causa de la bebida y además en el último grado de la tuberculosis y comiendo de lo que encontraba en los bidones, no teniendo ni aún dónde reposar, pues los que ella pudiera llamar suyos la habían atrojado de la casa y siempre que volvía la echaban a palos a causa de la bebida. Cuando Padre la curó de sus enfermedades dándole pulmones nuevos, y quitándole del vicio le dió nueva manera de vivir; pues para que se cumpliera el Evangelio, tuvo que nacer de nuevo, por medio del Espiritu Divino y desde entonces muchos miles han sido sustentados y se mantienen cada día, aquellos que a igual que ella han sido curados y deseosos de seguir la bella senda del bien, están participando de toda comodidad en este hermosísimo Centro conocido por una Extensión del Reino, y todo absolutamente de balde, y dirigido por El Espiritu de Padre Divino. Paz, Gozo y Felicidad, corria como un rio, mientras muchos daban sus testimonios de Alabanzas y acciones de Gracias por lo que Padre había hecho por ellos, pero se aumentó cuando Padre se levantó una hora mas tarde, cantando y hablando como sigue:

La Plenitud de la Abundancia de todo lo Bueno
De todo lo Bueno, de todo lo Bueno
Le Plenitud de la Abundancia de todo lo Bueno
Se halla doquier estoy, doquier estoy.

La Conferencia de Padre Divino

Buena Salud, buen apetito, y buena voluntad. Estos son los Atributos que os traigo. Cada uno de vosotros que sintoneis (o haga el contacto mental y espiritual) con estas cualidades las produciréis y las traeréis a vuestras experiencias, viviéndo según esta vida y estas enseñanzas las cuales estos enseñando e intercediendo. ¡En verdad es admirable! No necesito decir que tendréis un buen apetito, y que tendréis una buena salud; pues estos de vosotros que estáis viviendo según a Mis Enseñanzas la tenéis.

La Creencia y la Fe, Indispensables

Yo no soy responsable si vosotros no lo creéis. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Debéis ser verdaderos ignorantes radicales y con fanatismo bastante para creerlo, y si sinceramente lo creéis, lo recibiréis y lo traeréis a expresión, manifestándolo exteriormente. ¡En verdad es maravilloso! Mientras se cantaba el canto, traje a consideración el gran misterio que podéis ver aquí y ahora. ¡En verdad es admirable! Si creéis lo que el canto en verdad dice. ¡Es Admirable! Requiere a alguien que sea radical, requiere a una persona que lo crea y que esté llena de Fanatismo y sólo que sea bastante inteligente para ser bastante ignorante para creer cosas increíbles y dichos increíbles. ¡En verdad es Admirable!

Por esta causa, estoy lleno de regocijo y excesivamente alegre, el ver este gran desarrollo y la manifestación de la creencia de algunos individuos. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Bien, ¿No es esta gloriosa expresión de una creencia, de la fé de alguien traída a Materialización, y a expresión exterior, donde todos pueden verla? Sin embargo Dios no tiene miramiento de personas. ¡En verdad es Admirable! ¡Pensadlo solo! Hoy, si cada uno de vosotros pudierais creer radicalmente, para traer a expresión exterior las bendiciones ilimitadas que ahora estáis observando, la Ciudad de Nueva York y el Mundo entero, se volverían al Cielo material. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Es una expresión que puede verse y nada hay oculto en ella, puede verse y puede ser comprendida por todo el género humano. Dios está siempre Siempre-Preente y Dios está Gobernando en los asuntos y negocios de los hombres ¡En verdad es Admirable! Por eso digo tan ameno, no lo digais a menos que lo creais. No es necesario que me digais que lo creéis y que lo decis de corazón a menos que Yo lo vea manifestarse. Yo puedo verlo en vuestras palabras a más en vuestras acciones y hechos cuando en verdad lo creéis. ¡En verdad es Admirable! No es necesario decirme que creéis y estáis por ahí pidiendo. ¡En verdad es Admirable! La Biblia declara por uno bien conocido: No he visto justo desamparado, ni su simiente que mendigue pan" (Salmo 37-25); Si en verdad sois Hijos de Dios, como podéis estar mendigando? ¡Podéis ver que El es justo! ¡Es Admirable!

Sed Sinceros En las Alabanzas

Tomad estos pensamientos en consideración, vivir en este reconocimiento y seréis participantes de estas bendiciones sin límites que ahora estoy expresando. ¡En verdad es Admirable! No tendréis ocasión de ir por ahí como vagamundos, no tendréis ocasión de pasar necesidades, ni ver limitaciones y condiciones indeseables. Si las tenéis es porque no Me habéis creído firmemente, ni de todo corazón. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Entonces cuando cantéis este Canto con sinceridad, creyéndolo, —"El Señor ha venido" podréis cantar con el coro Invisible como lo hicieron los Reyes Magos en su camino hacia Bethlehem de Judea. "Gloria a Dios en las Alturas y en la Tierra Paz, entre los hombres de buena voluntad." Encontraréis Paz en vuestras casas, encontraréis Paz en vuestros negocios, y tendréis éxito, y seréis prósperos, seréis saludables, y felices, tendréis riquezas. Encontraréis Paz, y Gozo, Exito y Prosperidad, donde quiera que estéis. ¡En verdad es Admirable!

Vivid Siempre en la Presencia de Dios

Considerad estos pensamientos y vivir en este reconocimiento continuamente, y el Espiritu de Mi Presencia estará con vosotros. Como la palabra de Dios cuando le dijo a Josué, "Así como estuve con Moisés estaré contigo." ¡En verdad es Admirable! Mientras estaba sentado mirando este vasto auditorio, meramente en un comedor, algo que está al alcance de la mano, y digo que este algo también se pondrá de manifiesto universalmente como lo tenemos aquí. Es algo en que podemos mirar fuera de lo ordinario, pero pronto y muy pronto será visto y comprendido por toda la Tierra. Entonces digo lo mismo que he cantado. ¡La Plenitud de la Abundancia de todo lo bueno, por doquiera que voy! ¡En verdad es Admirable! Ha sido crecida y multiplicada y traída a expresión exterior donde lo podéis ver, así pues, YO tengo Bendiciones ilimitadas flotando en abundancia de vosotros a Mi, y de vosotros a otros, y desde Mi hacia vosotros, pues estan flotando libremente, de un lado para otro, para uno y para todos. ¡Entonces digo que es Admirable!

Vuestro Celo Tendrá Recompensa

Cuando estaba mirando a esta asamblea, estaba considerando vuestra fidelidad hacia Mi, vuestra devoción, vuestro Amor, vuestra cooperación, La buena voluntad para servir mental y espiritualmente, y de todas maneras. Estas acciones no serán en vano. Yo he venido para el bienestar del hombre, ¡En verdad es Admirable! y estas devociones de vosotros colectivamente como se las puede llamar, vuestro celo, y vuestro valor, y vuestra buena voluntad en servir, recordad, que estas acciones no seran en vano.

¡En verdad es Admirable! Considerad algunos rasgos de una acción de lo que Yo estoy haciendo. Podéis leer los Semanales "Las Noticias de Nueva York" y también "El Eco del Mundo" meditad sobre ellos. Yo no pararé hasta que haya universalizado este amor, y Mi Obra Mis Actividades, no serán para ningun propósito egoista o interesado. Usaré este Poder que me habéis dado hablando humanamente. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Es usado para el bien común de los hombres, y no para el propósito egoista de nadie. ¡En verdad es Admirable!

Su Amor Esta Limpiando la Nación

Así pues habéis dicho, y otros han declarado,—Yo voy con El todo el camino, hasta el final,— ¡En verdad es Admirable! Habéis declarado que sostendréis mi causa, sea lo que sea. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Entonces digo Yo "El Amor de Padre está limpiando la Nación." ¡En verdad es Admirable! Condescendientemente vine, insignificante entre los hombres, como puede aparecer que soy, sin embargo estoy alcanzando a todo el género humano en toda acción de vida y en todas las profesiones y clases, y estoy mandándoles que hagan el bien y vivan bien. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Si no lo hacen, los pondré fuera de sus oficinas y puestos. Eso es lo que haré. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Les podemos dar puestos, y también podemos echarlos fuera. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Si un hombre vive bien, y hace justicia entre hombre y hombre, y juzgan a las gentes con equidad y justicia esa persona o personas quienquiera que sea, las defenderemos y cooperaremos con ellas para el bien común de todos. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Así pues no estamos aquí meramente confinados o limitados a eso que se le llama mundo religioso, pero estamos funcionando en toda esfera de acción. Llegaremos a la corrupción del mundo político, al judicial, al social, al financiero y a toda esfera de acción que estemos y en donde tengamos negocios que pueda concernirnos. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Donde quiera que haya algo que concierna con el bien común de los hombres, o la Humanidad en general, allí estaremos para averiguar y llegar a la corrupción de tales sociedades, y organizaciones y clases, dondequiera que esten, y nos proponemos arrancar de raíz toda corrupción. ¡En verdad es Admirable!

El Nombre Solo es Suficiente para Recibir Bendiciones

Paz para todo el mundo! A este momento quisiera decirnos que vamos a Jamaica mañana. Recordad que no estais obligados a ir. Si deseais ir, eso queda para vosotros, seréis bien venidos. Yo creo que os alegraréis en ir. ¡En verdad es Admirable! También iremos a Bridgeport el domingo (Gracias Padre contesta la Asamblea). No vayáis todos a menos que así lo deseáis. No tenéis que ir solo porque Yo voy allí. Yo estoy aquí, y Yo estoy allí, y estoy en todas partes. Yo no tengo que ir, puesto que estoy allí ahora. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Aun así, estaré allí, pues estoy allí, ahora, y con todo estoy aquí. ¡En verdad es Admirable!

Padre es una Dádiva Para el Mundo

Yo sé que vosotros estais conmigo mentalmente y Espiritualmente, Yo sé que estais conmigo socialmente, políticamente, y de todas maneras. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Por esta causa podemos regocijarnos y estar excesivamente alegres. Yo vine no para buscar honores para Mi; pero vine, para el bien común de toda la Humanidad, como sirvo entre los hombres, y como un Don para ellos; Dios amo tanto al Mundo que dió a Su Hijo. ¡En verdad es Admirable! ¡Pensadlo! Tomad por consideración "El Eco del Mundo."—Ese semanal llevando tal Mensaje al Mundo entero, solo una traducción cuesta treinta y seis dolares, sin contar con las otras traducciones, y el mensaje es gratis para todos; vosotros podéis comprar el semanal por tres centavos. Si Yo estuviese vendiéndoles a la manera de los hombres, y si fuese Mi publicación, el semanal realmente cuesta cerca de doscientos cincuenta a trescientos dolares cada copia. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Todos los Mensajes estan en la una sola copia. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Aunque son miles y miles de copias las que se envían fuera. Pero Yo os traigo a este punto y acentuo este gran misterio de unión de ayuda y de propósito. ¡En verdad es Admirable!

Solo pensad queridos míos del regalo gratis que podéis obtener para vuestras almas, y como un regalo gratis para vuestros cuerpos. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Un regalo gratis para la Humanidad! ¡En verdad es Admirable! Al mencionar el mensaje que es traducido a un idioma y que cuesta Treinta y seis dolares, sin contar el otro trabajo. Si tuvierais que pagar por ello, y pagar a una persona por sus servicios, veriais que subiría a doscientos cincuenta o a trescientos dolares por cada copia. Pero ha sido hecho posible para que lo tengais sin costo. Desde que Yo estoy contribuyendo a él, se ha rebajado un sesenta por ciento de su coste anterior. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Rebajado el precio por copia y sin embargo a dado al periodico el valor de algunos dolares por cada tirada, sólo para el servicio profesional, la manufactura y traducción y otros que se necesitan para completarlo. El coste de la suma total para una sola copia como pudiera decirse para una y una para, todas las demás. ¡En verdad es Admirable!

Por lo tanto os digo, si solo pudieseis ver y saber lo que Dios está actualmente haciendo para vosotros todos. No algo para ser visto o gozar de ello después de la muerte, pero para levantarlos de todas las necesidades y miserias y limitaciones, condiciones adversas e indeseables, y liberarlos de todas las dudas y temores aquí y ahora mientras vivimos. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Por esta causa podemos regocijarnos y estar excesivamente alegres al ver el gran desenvolvimiento de esta Verdad arraigándose en el corazón y las vidas de los hombres y también en sus asuntos. ¡En verdad es Admirable! ¡Es Admirable!

Luz Divina

También quiero decirnos que tenemos la ultima edición "La Luz Divina" acaba de salir de la imprenta. Hice que se apresurasen con ellas y salieran cuanto antes. Quizas tengan algunas faltas, pero creo que os ha de alegrar. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Es alimento para vuestra alma y alimento para vuestros pensamientos. En consideración a los de inmediata comunidad pedimos que después de haber tomado uno, pásenlo a los demás y así daremos a los demás una oportunidad de leerlo también. 'Amad a vuestros Próximo como a Vosotros mismo' Son para distribuirlos gratuitamente, es verdad pero hay millones y millones que quisieran tener la Palabra, o este Mensaje, así pues aceptar uno y no traten de tomar más. Como una expresión exterior estoy enviando un reflejo, el cual es el reflejo de las bendiciones y estas van dentro de las mismas líneas. Todos los que hayais cogido una 'Luz Divina' id pasándolas para los demás, y cuando lleguen a la escalerilla tomad cada uno la suya si así lo deseáis y pasadlas a este otro lado, dejad que den la vuelta, así, como el agua corre libremente, así mismo estas bendiciones. ¡Es en Verdad Admirable! Después iran arriba al balcón. Pasadla de unos a otros. Os doy las Gracias.

Además de eso quiero decir que nuestros mitins públicos siguen aquí diariamente, también en la Calle 115 y No. 20 Oeste, y en la calle 117 y No. 103 Oeste y en la calle 63 y No. 204, estos son los lugares públicos en la ciudad de Nueva York; desde las diez de la mañana hasta las diez de su noche. Todos sois bienvenidos si deseáis atender a ellos, y si no atendéis a ellos Mi Espiritu es suficiente para cualquiera condición en que os encontréis y donde quiera que estéis. Ese es el misterio, no tenéis el porqué verme Personalmente, solo llamada en Mi Nombre. ¡Es en Verdad Admirable! ¡Qué os importa este cuerpo! (Instantáneamente la asamblea entera se puso en pie con un grito y estrechando los brazos hacia el Cuerpo.) ¡En verdad es Admirable!

es solo un reflejo de lo que haré, desde la A hasta la Z, que quiere decir en cada movimiento, si no desean intervenir con justicia entonces haremos alguna cosa drástica. ¡En verdad es Admirable!

Sed Honestos y Justos

Ahora escuchad, Si las Compañías Utilitarias (Compañías de electricidad y aparatos, gas etc.) no son justos en sus negocios no necesitaremos tener nada de ellos para nosotros solo cooperaremos con ellos si hacen lo que es justo en verdad. ¡Es Admirable En Verdad! No hay nada imposible para Dios. ¡Es en Verdad Admirable! Desde hace cierto tiempo se dijo: "Y a Aquel que es poderoso para hacer todas las cosas, mucho más abundantemente de lo que pedimos o entendemos." ¡En verdad es Admirable! Así digo al Público en general que den una trato de buena fé a todo hombre. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Digo al Público en general y a todas las organizaciones e instituciones, si, aún al mundo político que sean honrados en todos sus tratos o negocios con todo hombre, si faltais en ser honrados en todos vuestros tratos y negocios, sentireis los efectos de ello en Este Año.

¡En verdad es Admirable! Ahora si todo hubiera ido sistemáticamente y en armonía con la otra Empresa quizás no tendría Yo cinco o seis Omnibuses en conexión con esta Asamblea en Particular. ¡En verdad es Admirable! "Una pequeña insinuación al sadio le es suficiente." ¡En verdad es Admirable! No he hecho aún nada para lo que pienso hacer. Cooperaré de buena gana si vosotros cooperais conmigo y si negociais y tratais honradamente entre hombre y hombre, sin que haya discriminación y segregación entre vosotros. Sed justos, y honestos y verdaderos con vosotros. ¡En verdad es Admirable! Os doy las gracias.

Paz para todos. En esta ocasión os quisiera decir que aún tenemos cosas perdidas y halladas anunciadas en las columnas del semanal "El Eco del Mundo" y también en el "Nuevas de New York" Si alguno de vosotros habéis perdido algo pudo haber sido encontrado, y no dudo que haya sido encontrado. Anunciamos todos artículos en estos semanales, si quieren leerlo. Si no queréis podéis venir y preguntar a algunos de nuestros centros y si lo hemos encontrado con mucho gusto lo devolveremos al que lo haya perdido con sólo la identificación del mismo. Gracias.

Le Père Divine Proclama L'Omnipotence Éternelle et le Ciel sur la Terre par Son Esprit

A la réponse la Divinité personnelle Je dis comme l'apôtre militant de la Vie du Christ: Je déclare la Divinité actuelle de l'homme sous la paternité de Dieu.

Vivant et mettant en actions la loi de la Chreïté, comme il est révelé de la Génèse à la Révéation, Père M. J. Divine incarne Lui-MÊME l'Esprit du fils de DIEU. La paternité de Dieu et la Divinité conséquente de l'homme sont vraies comme l'Écriture Sainte, telles que décrétées par le Tout-Puissant Lui-Même, que quiconque croit en Lui ne mourra pas, mais aura la vie éternelle et que par sa foi et ses oeuvres, nous pouvons devenir de même comme Dieu et que Dieu sera en nous sont les réponses, essentiellement, en appui à ce que, si le Père Divine est vraiment Dieu, Tout Pouvoir reste et demeure en Lui et que l'homme sanctifié est de même comme Lui.

Audessus toute la création est la première pierre de la consécration du Père Divine et la première pierre, de la Vie du Christ. C'est de part le pouvoir de l'Esprit manifesté partout ailleurs et transmis par Lui que l'humanité est sauvée, corps et âme. La santé, la richesse, et le bonheur sont donnés à ceux qui croient en Lui et le suit. L'entrevue est comme suite: Question:—"Père Divine, ce qui vous a porté à commencer à éparpiller cette Foi dont vous êtes maintenant le représentant direct?"

Reponse: l'Esprit de Dieu a été toujours l'inspiration. Question: Combien de temps y-a-t'il depuis cette inspiration vous faisait l'appel? Reponse: "Je n'ai pas de record materiel ni naturel." Question: "Seulement un record Spirituel?" Reponse: "C'est cela." Question: N'est-ce pas, Père, que vous déclarez d'être le Dieu Lui-Même?"

Reponse: Je declare d'être le Rev. M. J. Divine, c'est mon nom. Question: La raison pour laquelle je vous demande cette question est parceque nous avons remarqué parmi vos adhérents, possiblement, on dit que vous avez dit que vous êtes le vrai Dieu?"

Reponse: Vraiment parlant ce serait pas essentiel pour aucun de se baser sur ce qu'une autre personne dit qu'il est mais on devait se baser, réclément, sur ce qu'il est." Question: "A l'égard de votre jugement au tribunal, après votre condamnation par ce tribunal, vous étiez mis en prison. Combien de temps vous y avez passé?"

Reponse: "Vers un mois." Question: "Est-ce qu'il est vrai que vous auriez pu vous librer de cette prison, comme il nous est raconté longtemps avant que vous l'étiez?" Reponse: "Mais oui, certainement, tout de même, j'étais libre. C'était de toute urgence que j'y fusse j'enjouissais. Il y avait là une mission à remplir." Question: "Est-ce que c'était dans le plan?" Reponse: "C'était dans le plan." Question: Est-ce que c'est votre intention, Père, de répandre partout dans l'Univers l'Évangile dont vous nous enseignez en ce moment?" Reponse: "Absolument." Question: Que deviendront les différentes Fois d'antiquité et la croyance variée des Églises?" Reponse: "Elles peuvent en participer car c'est gratis pour tous." Question: Humainement parlant est-ce c'est le seul et vrai chemin dont vous êtes le représentant?"

Reponse: "Humainement parlant, dites-vous, naturellement que ce serait à Moi, ou autrement Je ne serais pas véridique." Question: "Qu'avez-vous à dire contre les autres religions, si vous en avez?" Reponse: "Pas un mot." Question: "Quel âge avez-vous à présent, Père Divine?" Reponse: "Je pense qu'on a en record environ de Cinquante—cinq ans!" Ils l'ont obtenu selon les différentes transactions légales que pour les automobiles et autres documents. Humainement parlant, il leur fallait des références des années passées ou au point de vue légale, et de fait, nous le traçons de ce point de départ en réalité nous n'avons pas spirituellement et mentalement aucun record."

Question: "Père, il est dit, que vous avez déclaré que vous n'êtes pas né d'aucune femme. Est-ce vrai?" Reponse: "D'ou, ou, de qui vient ce rapport?"

Question: "De quelqu'un qui avait assisté à vos meetings à New-York. Je ne sais pas si c'est un canard ou quoi?" Reponse: "Eh bien tout ce qui aurait une tendance à réfléchir de ma part essaye à me justifier, mêmes dans les procédures légales. Je refuse de dire out de faire quoique ce soit qui aurait une tendance à me justifier ou à réfléchir à la pensée que Je voudrais me protéger d'aucune façon légale—Je ne dis rien en cet endroit à cause de cela. Je suis resté silencieux à l'égard des témoignages cités me concernant. Je déclare que Je ne suis pas venu pour témoigner pour Moi-Même selon la chair Je suis venu pour témoigner de l'Esprit qui appartient à la Vie Éternelle qui est incorruptible, non-ternie et qui n'évanouit pas, quelque chose qui est pratique, quelque chose qui peut sauver l'homme et corps et âme. Mais si Je témoignerais de Moi-Même selon la chair, ce serait seulement un record matériel ou littéraire. Ce ne serait pas vraiment pratique ou essential pour le bien d'humanité. Le vrai bien que Je veux prôner est quelque chose que l'homme n'a pas en conscience. Consciencieusement l'homme a en lui dans son histoire les records de toutes choses matérielles, sur l'histoire de l'homme et sur l'histoire de la terre. D'une façon cela ne prouve rien vers le salut réel, en mon opinion. Ainsi Je suis venu pour témoigner et faire record de Celui qui vit toujours pour toujours. Comme Jésus, le Grand Maître d'Amour avait dit en une occasion, Je n'ai aucun record de Moi-Même, il y a quelqu'un qui a record de MOI Alors Je ne veux pas témoigner de Moi-Même ou aucun autre selon la chair."

Question:—"Père, est-ce que c'est votre intention d'élever des bâtiments comme églises." Reponse: Pas des bâtiments matériels. Je n'ai aucun désir à rien construire. Je désire répandre cette Vérité partout dans l'Univers, afin que les hommes soient comme Moi-Même.

Question:—"Il est une grande question dans la pensée du public. C'est ceci, et j'aime croire que vous avez entendu ceci autant de fois comme moi, ou d'un Père Divine prend-il tant d'argent pour payer la locatoin si élevée pour des salles et

Father Divine Is the Very Life Breath of All

"Our Father's Message" at the Banquet Table, 20 West 115th Street, New York City, on Thursday morning, February 15, 1934. Time: eleven thirty A. M.

TIME: ELEVEN THIRTY A. M.

"GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST: and ON EARTH, PEACE, GOOD WILL TO MAN."

God in His Infinite Mercy, condescended, as it were to the Earth Plane this Morning, and led His Children up to the Mount of Glory, where a beautiful survey was made of the Holy City and the New Jerusalem. It was truly a glorious scene, there in the Field with GOD. He led us into the "Vale of Archaeology," and He explained the secrets therein. He guided us to the Orient, and there He explained the origin of the Peace of God on Earth to man. He carried us from thence, through the space of many years, to the coming of Jesus, when the reproduction of this same PEACE was heard in a melody as a song, being termed the Angel's Singing: "GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST and ON EARTH PEACE, GOOD WILL TO MAN." We followed the direction of our Father, to Jerusalem, and there we stayed awhile, where we obtained valuable information concerning Jesus and how the Wise Men of the East worshipped Him. We learned many wonderful and marvellous things of ancient days, and we travelled along down to the reign of Jesus, and saw the Mystery of the Vineyard and the letting of it unto husbandmen, how they abused and wounded the servants, and beat and killed others, and finally they beat and wounded and killed Jesus, but the CHRIST was never defeated, therefore, Jesus was the Example and the Sample of perfect FAITH, and thus HE could not be defeated, even though HE was crucified by cruel and wicked men, and put to death, the sting of death could not hold HIM fast, for HE was the VICTOR, and so it was written of Him, and it is: I AM the First and the Last: I AM HE that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I AM alive forevermore.

Peace the Watchword

"PEACE" was the watchword for consideration. It was spoken of by the Sister who gave a testimony just preceding Father's Message. Such PEACE, she stated she has never known in a life time, as the sweet PEACE that now dwells in her being since she has contacted this "Haven of Peace." She asked for complete healing of her physical body, and for Spiritual Guidance and Understanding.

It was upon this subject that Father spoke, giving us the origin and the significance of this ATTRIBUTE OF GOD, how it had been undermined by the wicked husbandmen, which HE likened unto "human theories and doctrines of men, the human intellect, skill and the ability of men, culture, sciences and its many branches, how it had sought to rob God of His Glory, and give the inheritance to themselves, to their intellect, their ingenuity, their skill and their ability. Father took us out into the great Field of Modern Civilization and showed us the Mental and Intellectual Cultivators, Methods of farming in the Universal Vineyard of God, how those husbandmen, the keepers of the Vineyard, the farmers thereof, tried to keep the inheritance for themselves and their descendants, but because of their injustice, their inhuman and unrighteous dealing, their cruelty to the Lord's Servants and to the Legal, Lawful and Rightful Heir, the Son, the Lord of that Vineyard came Himself to control the management of it, and to give the inheritance unto others, to those who would recognize the Ownership of the Vineyard, and would respect and reverence the Lord of that Vineyard, and so HE has come, and the fruit of the Vineyard is now being rightfully distributed to the laborers, for it is written: "And the Laborer is worthy of his hire." It was a wonderful Message and a wonderful experience, "out in the Field with God." You will enjoy same, therefore, tune in on the Principle, and the Message you will appreciate, for these are the Living Words of God. The song of PEACE proceeds the Message.

A Son to Man

It was a Message, the CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS, as being born in Bethlehem was bringing; bringing a Message of PEACE and GOOD WILL to men, through and by their recognition of the actual materialization of Him that would have PEACE physically, Mentally and Spiritually, for HE condescendingly came to be as a CHILD born in Bethlehem, and to bring HIMSELF up into materialization from a CHILD, a SON to a Man. ("Oh it's wonderful!" proclaimed the people.) It is indeed wonderful! The Work of God had begun. It was going on in the hearts and lives of men, but Jesus as the real Personification of all of God's GOOD condescendingly came, being born as a BABE in Bethlehem. It is indeed wonderful! Living in this state of expression as being called a CHILD, to bring to fruition in the consciousness of the people, the conscious realization of God's Presence, of His LOVE, and of His MERCY towards His People. It is indeed wonderful! Therefore, the very coming of the CHRIST, in the Person of Jesus, in itself, created an atmosphere and a recognition of the same, it composed the Composition that we just sang "GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST, and on Earth, PEACE GOOD WILL TO MAN." It is indeed wonderful! And as this was heard by the Wise Men, they created the Message, and it has been handed down through the Ages, up until this present time, and we, as individuals, humanly speaking, are now recognizing this GLORY of God in the highest and also this PEACE that surpasses all human understanding. ("Truly wonderful!" returned the echo of the people.) It is indeed wonderful! This is it of which the last Speaker was speaking, the glorious PEACE and REST and LOVE, that they surpass all human understanding, that she as an Individual received, after coming in contact with ME. It is indeed wonderful! ("That's right," sanctioned the lady.) It is indeed wonderful! Then I say: "MY PEACE I give unto you: MY PEACE I leave with you, not as the World give, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

MY PEACE I give, My PEACE I leave,
MY PEACE I give, My PEACE I leave,
MY PEACE I give, My PEACE I leave,
Not as the World give, give I unto you.

My PEACE and My JOY and My HAPPINESS,
My PEACE and JOY and My HAPPINESS,
My PEACE and My JOY and My HAPPINESS,
Not as the World give, give I unto you.

The Original Oriental Message I have brought it to you for consideration:
"My Peace I give, My Peace I leave,
Not as the World give, give I unto you.
Let not your heart be troubled, Neither let them be afraid."

Concerning The Wise Men

These Words were spoken long before the Coming of Jesus as a Person. They were spoken into existence by the CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS submerged in the hearts and lives of men, those Wise Men as being termed "Wise Men of the Far East," but when Jesus came as a Person, being born and laid in the Manger, they apparently heard the reproduction of that same PEACE in a melody as a song, being termed the "Angels' singing: "GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST, and on EARTH, PEACE, GOOD WILL towards MEN." The Message was brought into materialization as Jesus was the Person to be the Personification of every good and desirable expression. These Words having been incarnated in Him, HE brought the very Spirit and the Words to fruition, and as an Individual HE brought PEACE to all mankind. ("It's wonderful, Lord," shouted the Assembly.) It is indeed wonderful! HE LIVED IT, HE BELIEVED IT and HE BECAME TO PHYSICALLY BE IT and thence, these are the Words that HE spoke unto His Disciples of Nineteen Hundred Years ago:

"MY PEACE I leave with you,
MY PEACE I give unto you,
Not as the World give, give I unto you,
Let not your hearts be troubled,
Neither let them be afraid."

This Message condescendingly came through and by those who were called Wise and Holy men years and years before the Body called Jesus was born, but condescendingly they came, apparently in the Message of a Song, as the Wise Men had heard them long before Jesus was born, the Words of "PEACE and GOOD WILL to MANKIND," when they were coming from the Land of Egypt, or in other words from the East to Jerusalem to worship HIM. Those men who were called "Wise Men," humanly speaking, "Astrologers, etc., having discerned the STAR and believing within themselves, it was about the time one should be born who would RULE all Nations of the Earth, they heard the echo of that Song in a melody of Praises by Inspiration. It appeared to them as if though the Angels as man, were singing: "GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST, and on Earth, PEACE, GOOD WILL to man."

It was a Message, the CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS, as being born in Bethlehem was bringing; bringing a Message of PEACE and GOOD WILL to men, through and by their recognition of the actual materialization of Him that would have PEACE physically, Mentally and Spiritually, for HE condescendingly came to be as a CHILD born in Bethlehem, and to bring HIMSELF up into materialization from a CHILD, a SON to a Man. ("Oh it's wonderful!" proclaimed the people.) It is indeed wonderful! The Work of God had begun. It was going on in the hearts and lives of men, but Jesus as the real Personification of all of God's GOOD condescendingly came, being born as a BABE in Bethlehem. It is indeed wonderful! Living in this state of expression as being called a CHILD, to bring to fruition in the consciousness of the people, the conscious realization of God's Presence, of His LOVE, and of His MERCY towards His People. It is indeed wonderful! Therefore, the very coming of the CHRIST, in the Person of Jesus, in itself, created an atmosphere and a recognition of the same, it composed the Composition that we just sang "GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST, and on Earth, PEACE GOOD WILL TO MAN." It is indeed wonderful! And as this was heard by the Wise Men, they created the Message, and it has been handed down through the Ages, up until this present time, and we, as individuals, humanly speaking, are now recognizing this GLORY of God in the highest and also this PEACE that surpasses all human understanding. ("Truly wonderful!" returned the echo of the people.) It is indeed wonderful! This is it of which the last Speaker was speaking, the glorious PEACE and REST and LOVE, that they surpass all human understanding, that she as an Individual received, after coming in contact with ME. It is indeed wonderful! ("That's right," sanctioned the lady.) It is indeed wonderful! Then I say: "MY PEACE I give unto you: MY PEACE I leave with you, not as the World give, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

"MY PEACE I give, My PEACE I leave,
MY PEACE I give, My PEACE I leave,
MY PEACE I give, My PEACE I leave,
Not as the World give, give I unto you.

Let not your heart be troubled, neither be afraid,
Let not your heart be troubled, neither be afraid,
Let not your heart be troubled, neither be afraid,
Not as the World give, give I unto you.

He Is Filling All Space, Ever Present, All Pervading, All Powerful, All Knowing, Yea, All Knowing

vidual received, after coming in contact with ME. It is indeed wonderful! ("That's right," sanctioned the lady.) It is indeed wonderful! Then I say: "MY PEACE I give unto you: MY PEACE I leave with you, not as the World give, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

Be Not Afraid

If you will live Evangelically, the Spirit of MY Presence and the Presence of MY Spirit, as it goes forth sponsoring this Infinite PEACE MISSION for you Universally, it will be expressed, it will be manifested and I will give you PEACE and JOY transcending all human understanding where-so-ever you are. ("So wonderful Father," remarked the Hearers.) Then I say: "MY PEACE I give, MY PEACE I leave, not as the World give, give I unto you. Let not your hearts be troubled, collectively, yea even universally, neither let them be afraid." It is indeed wonderful! Such a glorious privilege to live in this recognition, where the Spirit of God's Presence sponsors this Universal PEACE MISSION on Earth among men, and this Infinite PEACE MISSION in the consciousness of them, giving you JOY and HAPPINESS and a real true, and an EVERLASTING EMANCIPATION; an EMANCIPATION from wars and from rumors of wars, from trouble of every kind, and establish your goings in the Land of the Living, from all of your sickness, sorrows and diseases, you

Deny Not Facts and Figures

These are facts and figures too stout to be denied, for you can plainly see them manifested here and now and everywhere I AM, "the ABUNDANCE of the FULLNESS of all good things is manifested wheresoever I AM." It is indeed wonderful! "ASK, AFFIRM, GIVE THANKS and GIVE PRAISES, GOD will GIVE, CONFIRM, INCREASE and MULTIPLY." ("It's wonderful!" exclaimed the Assembly.)

War On Bigotry

I AM casting out the worse enemies of all kinds, prejudices, bigotry and fear. These are the enemies to the Souls of the children of men. They are the enemies to the bodies of the children of men. I AM, indeed wonderful! Such chaotic conditions, as fear and bigotry, prejudice, hatred and resentment and all of those detestable characteristics, they will cause

The Case of An Angel

Peace Everybody: At this time, I AM calling your attention, yea, your attentions to the testimony of one of our Speakers, saying a little while ago, in bearing witness of conveying the thought of contacting the different individuals and seeming to take on their sympathetic conditions, or the conditions through sympathetic feelings. I would like to say that is a psychological TRUTH to some extent, and mentally and Spiritually, it is equivalently the same. "The physical condition is but the outward expression of the condition of the mind within." It is indeed wonderful!

Vanity Is All Wrong

That is why CHRIST requires a complete self denial, a wide open sacrifice and a whole hearted consecration. If you are not detached from all of your relatives, friends and kin and every other mortal mind, the Spirit and mind of them may enter in your sub-consciousness and unwillingly and unconsciously, you may be forced within yourselves to say something you would not desire to. ("It is wonderful!" shouted the people.) It is indeed wonderful! That is why it is written: "You can not serve two Masters." So long as you are receiving your HEALINGS. It is indeed wonderful! (A great throng corroborated these facts.) It is indeed wonderful! Live in this recognition, and you will enjoy this true and real EMANCIPATION, and the PEACE that surpasses all human understanding. "I AM putting forth into expression in Words, Deeds and Actions, and you as well as I will come to your rightful inheritance as a child of the Living God. You will have a PEACE and a JOY that no man taketh, for no man can take this JOY that I have produced in My Own Consciousness, and this LOVE that transcends all human imagination. It goes into Infinitude, the end you can not vision. It is out of your imagination. It is indeed wonderful! Live in this recognition, being continuously in the Spirit of Praises, and Thanksgivings, you will increase your Blessings and multiply them, for the asking, the Blessings are given. "He that asketh of Him, it shall be given, therefore, the Blessings are given to the Asker." It is indeed wonderful! "For the affirmations you make, God confirms. . . . therefore, the confirmation takes place for the affirmation, and for you giving thanks, God increases the Blessings; for giving Praises, God multiplies them. Therefore, I say: "ASK, AFFIRM, GIVE THANKS and GIVE PRAISES, GOD will GIVE, CONFIRM, INCREASE and MULTIPLY." ("It's wonderful!" exclaimed the Assembly.)

takers of these limitless BLESSINGS that I have created in the consciousness of men that I AM bring to fruition in the midst of them and they are being INCREASED and MULTIPLIED continually, "for of His Kingdom and of His INCREASE, there shall be no end." Therefore, by so doing and by it so being, the PEACE that surpasses all understanding, through these BLESSINGS, I AM giving. ("So wonderful Father," assured the Gathering.) Then I say, "MY PEACE I give, MY PEACE I leave with you, not as the World gives give I unto you: Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid." You know within yourselves, you have never seen it, and the time where-by mankind was filled with such zeal and courage and hope as you are today. ("Never," supported the people.) It is indeed wonderful! This Zeal and this Courage will prohibit you from being afraid. This PEACE and this JOY that surpasses all human understanding, will prohibit you from fretting or worrying. I have made your HOPE substantial and caused you to be unshaken in FAITH. I have stirred up your zeal and your courage with FAITH in God, substantiated and with unshaken confidence, you can not be afraid. . . . Then I say: "Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid." You can not be afraid through this recognition and through this zeal and through this courage, I have stirred up in your hearts and in your minds. It is indeed wonderful!

Let Earth receive her KING,
Let every heart prepare his room,
And Heaven and Nature sing,
And Heaven and Nature sing,
And Heaven, and Heaven and Nature sing."

your physical bodily form to be in a chaotic condition, but such AM I eradicating from your system, by the conscious recognition and the realization of God's Presence, therefore, you are LETTING not your hearts be troubled, neither are you LETTING them be afraid, for this zeal and this courage, with this recognition, such conditions, they are adverse to your highest good, the Spirit of MY Presence is dispelling. It is indeed wonderful! You can see doubts and fears disappearing. It is indeed wonderful! You can see all negation in your consciousness dispelling. You can see the chaotic conditions of your physical systems being eradicated. You can see the great and glorious Hope and the glorious APPEARING of your LORD and SAVIOUR. ("Yes Lord it is wonderful!" acclaimed the people.) It is indeed wonderful!

Do you not see the glorious APPEARING of your LORD and SAVIOUR in the place of chaos and the chaotic conditions and all negation in your systems and in your mentalities? ("Yes Father," responded the Assembly.) It is indeed wonderful! Then I say: "Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid, for I have COME." Therefore, with the Psalmist, you can say: "The Lord reigneth." It is indeed wonderful! "Let the multitudes of the Isles be made glad; let the trees of the field, clap their hands," and you can say as you have sung and still we can sing:

Then I say: "MY PEACE I give, MY PEACE I leave with you, not as the World give, give I unto you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid." It is indeed wonderful! live in connection with the mortal consciousness and any mortal person, you are subject to their tendencies and their inclinations and their fancies and their pleasures and they will transmit their thoughts to you unconsciously, and unwillingly you will become to be subject to those tendencies, and if you are not watchful, you will be cursing and swearing, but remember, if you will allow those things to be in you, you will be responsible for the crime or deeds that are done in your body. It is indeed wonderful! ("Truly wonderful," bespoke the people.) You may hold on to those old mortal relatives and kin and they cursing and swearing, and hating for this zeal and this courage, with this recognition, such conditions, they are adverse to your highest good, the Spirit of MY Presence is dispelling. The Very Life Breath

As you heard a party testify the other day, some person said: "What would become of you all if Father would disappear?" How can I disappear, when I AM the very SUBSTANCE of your being, when I AM the very LIFE BREATH you breathe: when I AM your very MIND, FILLING all space and absent from none; when I AM in every joint, every sinew, every limb and every bone, yea, even in every fibre and every cell of your bodily form. To where can I disappear and to where can I go, and from whence have I come. It is indeed wonderful! I have risen in the hearts and minds of men, and it is a PRINCIPLE that is LIVING throughout all ETERNITY with or without the Bodily Form, it is absolutely immaterial to ME as far as I AM Personally concerned.

Jesus as a Person disappeared, and yet in that Sonship Degree of expression, it did live partially, although it was beaten unto the Lord of the Vineyard came HIMSELF to destroy those husbandmen who had beaten the Son, and had killed HIM. It is indeed wonderful! Graft and greed, doubts and fears, prejudices, resentment, anger and strife and all of those tendencies of the lives of the children of men, had beaten the Son, and had killed HIM. It is indeed wonderful! ("Yes Father," stated the Listeners.)

Beware of Environment

Your relatives, your kin, your races, your creeds, your nationalities and your colors and every other mortal versionated point of view or individual does not have to speak to you personally, but the spirit of their mind can be transmitted to you, if you are not detached, or if you are in contact with them mentally and Spiritually, and whatsoever they think, you will also think, and if you are not watchful, the first thing you know, you will do what they want you to do. The first thing you know, they will do in you and through you what they want to do in their own personal bodies. It is indeed wonderful! "Oh Father," gaspingly spoke the throng. Then I say CHRIST said as a Person, speaking to the Disciples: "Except you forsake all you have, even your own life, you can not be MY DISCIPLE." It is indeed wonderful, and tell all of the World at large, if they desire to oppose this Message of Love that I AM bringing to them, read the Gospel, for themselves and if they will live Evangelically, they will be more devoted than the majority of you. CHRIST in the Person of Jesus was a Sample and an Example. He was leading and teaching the people. He was guiding them and directing them and instructing them in the way they should go. Therefore, if we are, as the Believers in the CHRIST that was called Jesus, who never accept of His Teaching as a reality, as the Foundation, as the only IDEAL, and copy after this fashion by LIVING IT. (Applause.) It is indeed wonderful!

God's Inheritance

Those husbandmen, the keepers of the Vineyard, the farmers, they tried to keep the inheritance for themselves with human intellect, that has been cultivated, the skill and the ability of men, the great farmer of Modern Civilization, the human intellect, culture, the great Mental and Intellectual Cultivist. It is indeed wonderful! The great Mental and Intellectual Agriculturist. It is indeed wonderful! FARMING in the great FIELD of Civilization, taking POSSESSION of GOD'S INHERITANCE. It is indeed wonderful! God LET out the Vineyard to those husbandmen, human intelligence. It is indeed wonderful! ("Oh it's so wonderful Lord," commended the people.) It is indeed wonderful!

Time will not permit, for ME to go out at this particular juncture, into the mystery, but I have given you a slight touch. I have just touched the SURFACE of the MYSTERY. . . . I AM giving you enough to know at this particular juncture, that there is a MIND OF WISDOM, hidden there. It is indeed wonderful! I will not go deeper into the MYSTERY, you will come again - you will come again to this state of consideration, and when you do, you will come to the recognition of this Place having been tapped especially, touching the surface and tested and found to be a HIDDEN TREASURE OF GOD'S WISDOM, GOD'S OMNISCIENCE there. I thank you.

Every Knee Shall Bow

"At this Name, every knee shall bow and every tongue confess", says the Scripture, referring to the Name of Divine. It has been considered by the great majority of the people that this would take place only in the Spiritual Realm, and not actually on Earth, for modern Civilization has seemed to get further and further from it.

But a change has taken place, for more than Ten Millions, all over the World, have discovered that this Name is in a Body and that this Body is not only Divine by Name, but Divine by Nature, being known as Father Divine,—and they have discovered that since this Name is here in Body it must be acknowledged in body, and no longer only in the Spiritual Realm. Therefore all of the fields of life are bowing, no longer only in Spirit, but their Representatives are coming in bodies, bowing before the Body, though Father Divine has said, "It is a Principle I am advocating, and not the Person, though it is a Principle that is convertible into a Person at will".

Therefore, all of the fields of life eventually come visibly, to the great Banquet Table of Father, to offer themselves for His Service. It was the field of Aviation that came up in the person of Colonel Hubert Julian, as the usual great throng gathered in the Banquet Hall at 20 West 115th Street, New York City, February 14th, Colonel Julian being the holder of the World's Non-Fueling Endurance Record, and being about to start on a trip to Abyssinia, Africa,—a non-stop flight,—hoping to establish a long distance non-stop record.

Vision of Father Divine

He testified that he had come to Father for His Guidance and Protection, through a recent experience he had when he was flying from Chicago to New York in a severe storm which experts had said he could not survive. At the most critical moment Father appeared before him in a vision, he said, and urged him on, with the result that he landed safely. Father Responded with His Words of Spirit and of Life, as recorded herewith, and after He concluded His Lecture, Colonel Julian again spoke in part as follows:—

"Peace! Reverend Father Divine, Members, and Friends, I must indeed confess that in the thirty-six years of my life, having travelled over the entire World, and having listened to the King of England, the King of Abyssinia, and some of the greatest Theologians in the World, mainly in St. Paul's Cathedral in England, having been to Rome, Babylon, Egypt, the Tombs of the Kings, and being in contact with the Governments of all of the Countries of the World, having served as Minister to Abyssinia, I have heard doctrines upon doctrines. I have heard orations of great theologians, I have heard Ministers of the Gospel, I have heard false Prophets, but this is the first time in my life that I have ever received true enlightenment.

"Friends, I have never had so much confidence instilled in me and my ability, as I have through this Divine Inspirator, not only to cross the Atlantic, but to fly the greatest distance individually, that any man has ever flown. It is going to be done, it shall be done, and it will be done . . .

'Abyssinia' Now 'Angelica'

"We have a Plane across the Bay that cost Thirty-five Thousand Dollars. It belongs to Father Divine and this Association, and if Father wants to go to Chicago, He is not going to travel in any train, I am going to take Him there in the Plane. We are going to have Ten Thousand pictures of Father and the Plane, and Father says we can christen it 'Angelica', instead of 'Abyssinia', and we will take the Message all over the World. I want every Nation, and every King in all the World, to see the picture of Father Divine and our Plane, and I want to go across the Atlantic, then to Egypt, from there to Abyssinia, and then fly back here."

Father's Words after Colonel Julian's first testimony, were as follows:—

"Peace! Good health, good will, and good appetite to one and to all, and good luck to the World at large. At this particular time I rise to say, you were listening to a Speaker lastly,—Colonel Julian,—expecting to take a non-stop flight to Abyssinia. He came for My Spiritual Cooperation, and for My Mental and Social guidance. The Spirit of My Presence and the Presence of My Spirit, without My Person, is sufficient. Mankind the World over, is coming to this recognition. If such a conviction can change mankind in distant Countries, and can be a protection for them without My Personal Presence, it is far reaching. The great significance of this Message that I am conveying is, as you know, the Principle and not the Person. The Impersonal Life firstly is to be observed, with the Characteristics of the Christ as a transmitted Message to the Children of men, but remember, these Characteristics must be produced and brought into materialization, for our conscious recognition and realization. It is indeed Wonderful!

Fellowship of Man and God

We cannot realize the Mystery of God's Presence and the great significance of His Omnipotence, until it shall have been brought into materialization. We can consciously realize the great significance of God being Omnipotent, when it shall have been brought into materialization on the material plane for the common good of men. It is indeed Wonderful! For this cause I came, and for this purpose I stand, to universalize the fellowship of man and man, and God and man, conveyed that mankind might become the actual Personification of God on Earth, and the real Life Substance, expressed on the material plane. It is indeed Wonderful!

These are some slight sketches and reflections of a percent of a fraction of a grain of God's Wisdom to man. Through modern Science and new discoveries and inventions, you even through the materialists, God is conveying mankind that He is a Reality in the hearts and lives cant as I may appear to be, Condescendingly I came, sponsoring this Universal Peace Mission on Earth among men, and establishing the Kingdom of God in the midst of them. When it transcends the Earth plane it is Infinite, but it is universal in its scope on the Earth plane in materialization. It is indeed Wonderful! In materialism, we can see the unfoldment of God's Wisdom, knowledge, and understanding, and of His Love, Mercy, and Tender Compassion, expressing Itself universally as it is being unified with man, and man is being unified with it, universalizing Itself as a connecting link between man and man, Wisdom, Knowledge, and Understanding. It is indeed Wonderful!

As one of the Speakers said a little while ago in reference to My pre-rehearsed statement some years ago,—if My true Believers and Followers will really follow Me, not one of them would smoke a cigarette. It is indeed Wonderful! If perchance it would be that I would answer the call in Person, to christen the Ship that Colonel Julian will take to Abyssinia, making a non-stop flight, it would be My Endeavor to convey the thought and the great significance of living whole heartedly Evangelical. Remember, the great men of past time and of this present time that have ascended to the height of fame, that came through the limited degrees and the average degree of expression through relinquishing their claims on habits, customs and fashions of men, and adhering closely to their highest intuition. Their highest intuition led them, it guided them, it protected them. It is indeed Wonderful! We haven't a record of Colonel Lindbergh's having an accident,—not until after he had made the famous Flight. It is indeed Wonderful!

Col. Lindbergh as Model

Up until that particular time, Colonel Lindbergh did not even smoke cigarettes, corresponded not with the opposite sex, even as lady friends in a social way of expression,—It is indeed Wonderful,—neither did he associate himself with the masses of the people living in the lower state of expression. It is indeed Wonderful! It was said that he did not even go to dances, etc. Do you not see the great mystery of living in yourself, that the Christ in YOU might express Himself as Wisdom, Knowledge and Understanding and give you the ascending Spirit? It is indeed Wonderful! When Colonel Lindbergh made his famous Flight, it was well worth considering just to read the story of his Trans-Atlantic Flight. It is indeed Wonderful! Forgetting even the things that were behind him apparently, and risking his life for his adventure! It is indeed Wonderful! Believing he would accomplish that which he endeavored! But firstly he lived in himself, out of the World, being detached from the weights of the World, whereby they could not cause him to sink, nor fall in his endeavors. It is indeed Wonderful! It was declared that he did not smoke, chew, nor drink any sort of intoxicating liquors. It is indeed Wonderful! It was said or declared, that he did not keep company even with the modest opposite sex. It is indeed Wonderful!

He made his non-stop flight and ascended to the height of Fame. The height of Fame was his first endeavor, and that is where he ascended above the level of the average person, or average aviator. The aviators had endeavored many long distance flights, but not with such a small ship as that, and alone. But God expressed in him, God unfolded in him, and proved to the World conclusively in that particular Flight, God in one man is a majority. It is indeed Wonderful! If you notice it closely, the great men of every field of life, they have relinquished the ordinary social functions of the day. It is indeed Wonderful! For them to ascend to the place where they have ascended, it was essential for them to relinquish such human fancies and pleasures as the ordinary person sought after. It is indeed Wonderful! And that is the mystery of this great unfoldment, that man cannot understand. These of My Followers, Co-workers and friends, that are willing to live Evangelical, they detach themselves from the old sinking wrecks, and they WILL go, and they HAVE ASCENDED, to a height above the ordinary level of the people. It is indeed Wonderful! Socially, financially, morally, and even intellectually it will be if they will but dial in on these qualities, for the Omnipotence of God is lying dormant in the subconscious mind of men. If you as individuals will still your conscious mentalities, you will re-conceive God's Intelligence and it will be quickened in your conscious mentalities and will cause you as individuals to be super-intelligent. If there happens to be one, or even if there are some of My Believers that do not express it, it is because they have not dialed in on it.

Message of Salvation

This broadcast Message of Salvation, it is going out from this Infinite Broadcasting Station, broadcasting all Wisdom, Knowledge, and Understanding, for it is coming from the Fount of God's Omnipotence, Each and every individual can dial in on it if he will, and can become super-intelligent. It is indeed Wonderful! All of these qualities are in the Christ, and it is verified in reality,—"Christ is rich and all you need". It is indeed Wonderful! If you as individuals will believe it sincerely, and will live it sincerely, after-a-while you will BE it sincerely, and you will be able to manifest it materially. It is indeed Wonderful!

"Father's Love", I heard you say, "is stirring up the Nation", and it is not only stirring up the Nation but it is CLEANING up the Nation. It is cleaning up the Nation collectively, yea even universally, for as this last Speaker said, as he goes forth he desires to carry My Message to the other Lands and other Countries, that they might see and observe the Mystery of God's Presence as It is now functioning. It is indeed Wonderful!

The 'Black Eagle' All Set to Break Record

COL. HUBERT JULIAN, who seeks Father Divine's Guidance.

The "Abyssinia," Colonel Hubert Julian's fleet Bellanca monoplane is poised on Floyd Bennett Field today ready to take-off on the imperial flight which he hopes will break the world's long-distance record.

The "Black Eagle," as Julian is known, has been training for the last nine months for the flight. Each week he stays up three or four nights in succession, sitting in the position for flying. He has also lived on a special diet and gets plenty of exercise in order to ready him for the flight which, if completed, will cover 7,509 miles, from Floyd Bennett Field to Aden, on the southern tip of the Red Sea.

After Col. Julian came under the influence of Father Divine he has made up his mind to change the name of his plane to "Angelica." It is indeed Wonderful!

junction, but the Spirit of My Presence is sufficient, and it will dictate to you when I cease speaking. It is indeed Wonderful! Live in this recognition, always giving God Praises and Thanksgiving for the limitless blessings we are receiving, and they will be increased and multiplied until you will have no end to the blessings, for they are flowing freely for one and for all, for every Nation, language, tongue, and people, if you can but believe it and live thus accordingly. It is indeed Wonderful!

Life Is Contagious

There are many things I could say, as I aforesaid, but it is not necessary to speak so much in words, I choose to speak more so in deeds and in actions. I am putting My Spirit in the people collectively, yea even universally, and I am causing the natural at-mosphere with the germs of Life, the germs of the Spirit of the Consciousness of the Presence of God, and they are contagious. It is indeed Wonderful! Greater are the germs of the Spirit of the Consciousness of the Presence of God, the germs of this Message of Life and Love, than that of any national hook-up, or any broadcast message coming out from any Broadcasting Station. It is indeed Wonderful! You can make a National hook-up and get a reflection of the Continent the same as though it were next door, but remember, this National hook-up is but a slight sketch and a percent of a fraction of a grain of the reality of the Mystery of God's Kingdom, and of God's Wisdom, Knowledge and Understanding, that He is now transmitting to the people throughout the Universe, for it is not confined as to a national hook-up, but it can be termed on the Earth plane, as an International hook-up. It is indeed Wonderful! They will catch these wave lengths, and these wave lengths are conveying the Message of My Love, My Seed Ideas and Opinions, to all of the Nations of the Earth. It is indeed Wonderful!

I need not Write as I have Written, I need not Speak as I have Spoken. It is indeed Wonderful! I need not Live as I have been Living, I need not Stand as I have been Standing, but the Spirit of My Presence is sufficient, with or without My Person. I have Lifted up a Standard for the people, and through this Standard and this Understanding, through the wave lengths of Salvation I am transmitting My Message, and they will receive it, for the Spirit of My Presence will carry it. It is indeed Wonderful! Just live in it and believe it, and you will see it, and if you see it vividly and gaze upon it enthusiastically, eventually you will be it, and nothing can defeat you. It is indeed Wonderful!

Mystery and Victory

It is immaterial to Me as far as I am Personally concerned, whether I am functioning as My Personal Tabernacle or bodily prohibit anything from overcoming you. The Fathership Degree has Dominion in Itself. It has the victory over all adverse conditions, and will bring everything into submission to Itself. It is indeed Wonderful! And this is the Fathership Degree that we are teaching and bringing to fruition. When you shall have received the Fathership Degree, you within yourselves will have the victory. It is indeed Wonderful! I am bringing you out from under the Sonship Degree. It is indeed Wonderful! You are no longer in the Sonship Degree, whereby mankind, and adverse and undesirable conditions, can have Dominion over you. It is indeed Wonderful! In this Degree you will have the victory, for you are now under the Administration of the Fathership Degree. It is indeed Wonderful!

Each of these expressions are Degrees brought to fruition for the people that they might enter into these different Degrees of expression. Yet it was essential to go in, and enter in through the Sonship Degree,—the spirit of meekness and of obedience, and long suffering, patience, etc.,—until you shall have been brought out from under the Sonship Degree and entered into the Fathership Degree, wherein you have the victory over all of your adversaries and over all of your adversaries. I thank you."

Boxer Testifies

As Father concluded His Remarks, the Brother formerly known as Panama Joe Ganz, Middle-weight Champion Boxer of the World, arose to testify in part as follows:—"Peace Father. Every Word you have just said, hit me. When I was young I lived a clean life like you said, but after I got money and was successful, I changed, and that is the reason I am where I am today. But I am coming back Father. Liquor, fast women, and slow horses, were my downfall Father, but I am coming back. After I won the Championship of the World I wanted to go on. I never weighed over one hundred and fifty-five pounds in my life, but I got so that everything I hit would move, and if I had not fallen for sex I could have held the Championship of the World, and if I had lived this life you are advocating now, I would have been Heavy-weight Champion of the World. I thank You Father. Every Word you said, was true Father, every word was true . . ."

When Mr. Ganz had finished, Father arose again, after a short interval, and continued:—

"Peace everyone! And a further extension of the universalization of this Message, this Light, and this Understanding! It is indeed Wonderful! I rise at this time to verify what the last Speaker said in accord with My Message. I have so often stressed the Prize Ring, and how each and all of them that have ascended to Fame, they did not lose until they condescended to the level of the human affections. I have gone back into the mystery of the Prophets and the Patriarchs of old, Samson, David, Goliath, and many other great men you read of in the Bible, how they stayed in their own integrity and did have the victory over adversity and over their adversaries, until they condescended to lower their standard of thinking to the lower level of human affection. It is indeed Wonderful! They lost their power and lost the reality of their calling and their standards, through and by looking upon the standard, or the lower degree of themselves, and not looking diligently to their higher calling. Truly might the Apostle have said on one occasion,—"Set your affections on things above, and not on things on the Earth". It is indeed Wonderful!

On Lindbergh's Tragedy

Lindbergh, Tunney, Dempsey, Jack Johnson, Harry Mills,—all of the great men of the Ring, they lost their Fame through human affections, or some such affection. It is indeed Wonderful! As I said a little while ago, Lindbergh never failed, neither had an accident that we have any record of, until he married. It is indeed Wonderful! Human affection, human connections,—lowering the standard of thinking,—caused his Fame to fade. It is indeed Wonderful, caused his standard of perfection to be lowered from the highest standard wherein he stood. It is indeed Wonderful! Even from this point of view, the Country received a great honor through the Christ in Lindbergh. It united the Nations of the Earth closer together. But when he condescended to marry and become a father,—through his marriage and father degree as a person, many suffered and many have been in trouble. It caused his wife and his mother, and others, to be in much trouble, and himself also, concerning the loss of his baby, don't you see! It is indeed Wonderful!

All of the great men, as long as they live in God, and do not condescend to human affection, and allow nothing to get in between them and their highest intuition,—the HIGHEST intuition,—they have the victory and they are famous. It is indeed Wonderful! But when they cease to live in this state of expression according to My Teaching, it causes them to be subject to being defeated and being failures, etc. It is indeed Wonderful!

God Is a Majority

Take these thoughts into consideration. I am not criticizing the people, nor the persons, nor the person, but I am conveying this thought to you for the good of those of you that are desiring to advance and to bring forth the Christ in YOU to fruition. It is indeed Wonderful! The American Joe Ganz, he did not fall saving through and by the same thing. It is indeed Wonderful! If he could have, and would have stayed in his integrity, the Power of God within his body would have been the victory, for "God in one man is a majority", and God in one man is greater than all things that can be against him. It is indeed Wonderful!

Therefore if you take these thoughts into consideration and will even notice our present history, even backward to the earliest existence of it, you will see thousands and thousands of people that have been defeated, through and by condescending to something that was not in the beginning with them, in their experiences. "As you have found Him, walk therein." It is indeed Wonderful! You cannot fall, if you "stand in the Liberty wherewith Christ has set you free", for Christ in you is greater than all that can be against you. It is indeed Wonderful! But if you give strength to the beast, or to their mortal or human affections, or any of their fancies, tendencies or pleasures, you will be losing your energies and your Powers that Be, and you cannot express the great Power of Him that Liveth Forever. It is indeed Wonderful!

You all know within yourselves, nothing else has ever brought such an expression. I recall when Mr. Tunney said that you must live a pure life, and not smoke and drink and gamble, and keep late hours at night, to win the victory. It is indeed Wonderful! And practically every real famous person will tell you the same when he or she has the victory and is standing in this Liberty,—It is indeed Wonderful,—but when they fall from their steadfastness, and deviate from the direct standard of expression, they may change their minds. But when they are expressing it, I declare unto you they can also tell you the same I am telling you.

Father Knew Everything

I knew of Mr. Ganz,—Panama Joe,—and I knew of the American Joe Ganz, and I knew of the Prize Fighters of our present Age, and I know they ascended to the height of perfection in the Ring, through and by standing independent from those things, in the beginning. But as soon as they descended to them, they lost. It is indeed Wonderful! Every one! It is indeed Wonderful!

Take these thoughts into consideration. If you still stand in your integrity, God in you will have the victory, for God in YOU, in the name of Christ, as being termed Jesus, is a Majority. I thank you.

Peace everyone! at this particular juncture I would just like to say, there is something I do not usually do, but as it is a custom with the majority of the people, I am condescending to call your attentions to it, as we have a Stranger in our midst. It is indeed Wonderful! Of course it is the custom of all organizations, and assemblies, as a rule, to introduce any person that is to speak, if it is someone that has a message, especially along the line of what they are representing. But as a rule we have a custom of allowing every individual to be governed by his or her highest intuition and to be moved by the Spirit within, in other words to be moved by their own individual volunteer volition and not be governed by some other individual. But as it is a custom, and I have a Gentleman in our midst for his first visit, I would like to say, or give notice to you, I feel he would have something to say. Having first met him at this particular juncture, why we will give space, if this Gentleman would like to have a word to say. I thank you."

Father Is God

The Gentleman referred to, who had entered at the conclusion of Father's first Message, testified that he was a Teacher of Truth from California who had been in New York for some time and in the course of his work had heard of Father Divine and had come to see. He said, from what he had heard and what he had seen, he believed Father was God, because He was doing the same things that were done by Jesus Christ.

The Speaker was followed by a visiting Friend from Denver, Colorado, who recited a poem she had written by inspiration, at the time of Colonel Lindbergh's famous Flight. Attention was called to the fact that although the Poem was written before the Flight was completed, and before the Title of Colonel had been conferred upon Lindbergh, the Poem referred to him as Colonel. It was as follows:—

"Brave, he flew across the Ocean,
As a bird upon the wing,
With only God to guide his vision,
And it became a living thing,
With honor, power and fame,
Down the Ages into history,
Victory will be written
Into Colonel Lindbergh's name."

The Speaker went on to show, that the God she had seen guiding Lindbergh's vision, and that had guided her hand in writing the Poem, was the One she knew in the Body of Father Divine.

Significance of Activities

After these, and other testimonies, Father brought the Service to a conclusion Speaking as follows:—

"Peace everyone! I just wish to say, we are going to Jamaica on Friday, and also to Bridgeport on next Sunday. All are welcome to attend these Public Meetings if they wish to, but remember, you do not have to, unless you wish to. The Spirit of My Presence and the Presence of My Spirit, is sufficient wheresoever you are. That is the great significance of My Activities. It is indeed Wonderful! But if you like to go, and desire to participate in any or all of our Public Meetings, you are welcome to do so. I am just making these public announcements for the purpose of giving you as individuals, a chance to be there personally as I may be there personally, yet I am here and will be here and will be here Spiritually and Personally, and all are welcome to attend. In Jamaica, at our new Auditorium that was opened up last Friday, we will be there on this coming Friday as we were last Friday, and also in Bridgeport at the Auditorium there, also at another Public Hall. We will have accommodation for quite a number, as we have a large Hall for the Public, as well as the Auditorium connected with the Home there, as being termed 'The Kingdom'.

There are many things I could say along this line, but you can see, the Spirit of My Presence is causing the unfoldment of these blessings to take place practically everywhere, and you would ordinarily say that it is growing by leaps and bounds. It may not be growing, but it is unfolding itself in different individuals, and they are coming to the same recognition. Therefore, it is apparently spreading. I thank you."

Father Functions Under Name That Has Power

physical bodies, their Minds and their Souls. They joined co-operatively in the singing of the Song, which Father led as follows:

"If you live in this Light that is shining so bright, You will be happy, you will be glad,

If you live in this light that is shining so bright, You will be happy all the time.

If you walk in the Light, and the Light is turned on, You will be happy, you will be glad,

If you walk in the Light, and the Light is turned on, You will be happy all the time.

The Abundance of the Fullness of the Consciousness of good, You will be happy, you will be glad, No space is vacant of the Fullness thereof, You will be happy all the time.

There is a FULL and a PLENTY, wheresoever I AM.

You will be happy, you will be glad,

OF PEACE and SUCCESS, and all GOOD THINGS, You will be happy all the time."

GOOD HEALTH, GOOD WILL and GOOD APPETITES:

These are the BLESSINGS of the Earth I bring, still increasing and multiplying them, producing and bringing them into materialization for all who will bring their bodies into subjection to this Great Universal Mind Substance. For this I came, and for this purpose I stand, manifesting the sketch and an example, as a Sample and as an Reflection for the children of men. It is indeed wonderful! As I said, the other day in announcing our Meeting in Bridgeport, for today, I said, "we would be at the Home, better known as 'the KINGDOM,' which is as a slight sketch and a reflection of the reflection of the reincarnation of that reflection and sketch and reflection that was manifested in Sayville. It is indeed wonderful!" (It is wonderful!" remarked the Hearers.)

God's Presence in Sayville

Those of you who have been to Sayville, from a personal point of view, you can bear witness of the same, the very atmosphere is expressed and manifested, as a reproduction of a sketch and a reflection of that reflection that was made manifest in the atmosphere of God's Presence in Sayville. It is indeed wonderful! ("It is true Father," agreed the people.) The thought I have given you and reflections that I have brought to fruition and into materialization, I AM manifesting in Bridgeport today. Then I say,

"If you walk in this Light, this beautiful Light, You will be happy and you will be glad,

"If you walk in this Light, this beautiful Light, You will be happy all the time." (Applause.)

It is indeed wonderful!

It is such a privilege to live in this recognition and recognizing God's Ever-PRESENCE, denying yourselves, and all other mankind's versions, and live in this recognition, according to your first conscious conviction of God's Presence. Your first conscious conviction brought you DELIVERANCE from your sickness and diseases as soon as you believed it. ("Yes it did," was the strong affirmation made.) It is indeed wonderful! The WORD says: As you have found HIM, walk therein." Insignificant as I may appear to be, this recognition that you all have concerning ME, it has brought you the VICTORY, "when nothing else could help, it was love that found you." It is indeed wonderful!

A Name That Has Power

For this cause I came, and for this purpose I stand in the midst of the children of men, like unto one of them, but yet I AM functioning in and under a NAME that has POWER with it and within itself, besides the mere fame. It is indeed wonderful! (Applause.) There is a Power in this Mighty NAME that can "charm your fears and it actually bids your sorrows cease. It is music in a sinner's ear, it is Life, and Health and Peace." ("It is so!" exclaimed some.) It breaks down the walls of partition, and division and discrimination. It brings you on one common level, by this recognition, therefore, I say, "GOD is your Father, and you never had another." It is indeed wonderful!

When I say: "Here you are and there I AM," remember I AM speaking concerning the CHRIST Mind within you, not as a person, therefore, you, neither any of you, need not to get self-conceited. (It is indeed wonderful!)—and present your bodies as the Fundamental, when your physical bodies were and still are subject to sickness and diseases, unless you bring your bodies into subjection to this Fundamental PRINCIPLE; therefore it is well worth considering. Live in this recognition, put off the materialization of things and proclaim the wonderful inheritance, and proclaim your Great Creator as the only AUTHOR and as the FINISHER. It is indeed wonderful! for you can see it plainly, wheresoever I AM, there is the ABUNDANCE of the FULLNESS expressed. God, Himself, will manifest HIMSELF wheresoever you see I AM and AM recognized with all of one's heart and mind. It is indeed wonderful—all JOY, PEACE, HEALTH and HAPPINESS and every desirable Blessing imaginable. God is the AUTHOR and the FINISHER of each and all of these desirable Blessings, being the CREATOR and the MAKER of them, and will bring them into expression and manifest them according to your recognition. Therefore, when you believed it, you received it. Hence, your FAITH in ME, as though it was ME, shouted out a crowded Assembly. "As you have found HIM, walk therein." It is indeed wonderful!

God Within And Without

Remember, as I have often said and still AM saying, as a Person, you may give ME a Physical Examination, and I may appear to be the same as any other man or individual, but there is something in this MIGHTY NAME. ("Yes there is," confirmed the Believers.) It is indeed wonderful! There is something without and within—mankind can not compete with it. It is indeed wonderful! The mortal versions of men must wane, for man's time is out, and "GOD ALONE SHALL REIGN." For this cause, I have introduced nothing less than CHRIST and nothing more than GOD for you, that you might live in this conscious recognition and realization, and the Spirit of God's Presence will be with you, and will be your PROTECTION, will be your REFUGE and will be your STRENGTH, and will be your HELP and will be hibit it. It is indeed Wonderful! You said,—"Father, lead me lest I stray, Gently lead me all the way." It has long since been said, "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God." Your request was to the Fatherhood Degree, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, "Father lead me." If you say it and mean it, saying it sincerely, it will contact the heart, it will permeate, it will saturate, it will penetrate your very being, and will cause you to be led by the Spirit of God, and "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God." When you become manifestly to be the Sons of God, you are under Christ's control, for it has long since been said, "Sons and Daughters, give Me your hearts," and when God has Control of your heart, the body is brought under His Jurisdiction, and you cannot prohibit yourself from being led by the Spirit, for it takes control, and moves, and leads you beyond your personal control.

Father Is Omniscient

Therefore I say, don't say it unless you mean it. I am telling you what it will do for you, and not only what it will do FOR you, but what it will do TO you. It will influence you, and cause you to lose control of yourself. It is indeed Wonderful—for this Spirit and this Mind is Omnipotent. Being Omnipotent, it is Omniscient, having the Wisdom, and Knowledge, and Understanding to use itself, which is this Power. It will bring all of the Nations of the Earth collectively, yea even universally, into subjection to this Christ that we are advocating, and they too, as well as you, will come to this recognition, God alone shall Reign, and God alone shall have Dominion. It is indeed Wonderful!

Do you not see it being fulfilled this day in your hearing? You can see them coming from the East and the West. They are coming from the North and from the South, and they are sitting down with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, in the Kingdom of your God. Their bodies, their minds, their spirits, and their souls and all, are being brought into subjection to God, and they are now under His Control. Then I say, It is indeed Wonderful! Long since, God said these words through the mouth of David, the Psalmist,—"The Lord Reigneth, let the multitude of the Isles be glad." It is indeed Wonderful! Do you not see the Isles, particularly all of the Islands of our present History, being brought into subjection? It is indeed Wonderful! Brought into subjection to this great Teaching, as being termed this Great Teacher! To this Message of Salvation, this Light, and this Understanding, all are being brought into subjection, and they are willing and ready, for it has long since been said,—"In the Day of My Power, My People shall be willing."

The Lord Is Reigning

They are coming to this realization, the Lord IS REALITY IS your AID. It is indeed wonderful! Therefore, I say unto you and unto all of the inhabitants of the Earth, accept of this Message and live thus accordingly, and you will be blessed, even according to MY pre-rehearsed Instruction. It is indeed wonderful!

On the Material Plane

You can see the ABUNDANCE of the FULLNESS put forth into outer expression. I say, I AM manifesting it on the Material Plane, that you might observe and understand God, in reality, is a Living Factor in the hearts and lives of men. All you must needs do, is to dial in on this PRINCIPLE, and live according to this Teaching, the very Spirit of MY Presence, will manifest Himself with you effectively. It is indeed wonderful! Then I say,

"If you walk in this LIGHT, that is shining so bright, You will be happy and you will be glad,

If you walk in this Light that is shining so bright, You will be happy all the time." Matters not how it may be termed that these Blessings come forth into expression, you can see it works. . . . It is indeed Wonderful! You can plainly see the ABUNDANCE of the FULLNESS is manifested wheresoever I AM, and God is expressing Himself wheresoever I AM as superior to any man. It is indeed wonderful! This is not accomplished "by the Will of man, nor by the Will of the Blood, nor by the Will of the Flesh, but of GOD." The very Spirit of God will sponsor the Cause and cause it to be made manifest wheresoever you are, if you believe it and live it, giving your hearts wholeheartedly, for I have declared in times past, "as I AM, so should you be." I AM not in some way different from what you should be, but remember, to become as I AM, you must put off the WHOLE of that old mind, that old Adamic state of consciousness, and put on the new MIND, the CHRIST-CONSCIOUSNESS, and live in this recognition wholeheartedly, and the Spirit of My Presence, will quicken in you effectively, and will be manifested, and the old mind will be no longer seen. As I explained sometime ago, when the old mind is no longer seen by God nor by man, whatsoever you ask God, THEN, in your heart, it is HEARD and ANSWERED, as God always ANSWERS His Son. God will not be looking upon you, as an individual, as a person, as a man, but God will be looking upon the Fundamental, the CHARACTERISTICS of the CHRIST that were in JESUS, as His Son in you. "It's wonderful," jubilantly shouted the Assembly. Then and there, "whatsoever you ask in MY NAME," MY NATURE, HE giveth you, for it is in this NATURE, this NAME, HE came and gave birth to this NATURE, these CHARACTERISTICS, not merely as a person, but as a PRINCIPLE, to be developed in each and every individual, that you might express it and manifest it and in short, BE IT, and hence, if you BE IT, in it you will be living, and whatsoever it is, you are asking or will ask in this Nature, it shall be given. It is indeed wonderful! Wheresoever God is, God does not see anything less than HIS SON RULING over this people, and HE does not see anything less than HIS SON asking BLESSINGS for each and every individual, and that is why the Prayers are heard and answered, humanly speaking. They are not Prayers as man supposed, "for Prayer is the heart's sincere desire, unuttered or unexpressed." Hence, the very Spirit of God's Mind, and the Mind of JESUS, is heard, and it has been answered. It is indeed wonderful! That is why the Apostle puts it on one occasion: "You know not how to pray as you ought, but the Spirit itself, maketh intercession for us in groaning which can not be uttered."

Prayer the Desire of Heart

Therefore, PRAYER is not an expression of words, but PRAYER is the supplication, yea, the simplest desire of the heart, hence, when you become to be the CHARACTERISTICS produced of CHRIST, that desire within your heart, is the NAME of CHRIST, the NATURE of CHRIST expressed in you, to the Great Universal Mind Substance, and God hears and answers His Son's Prayer. That is the Mystery. That is why you need not fret nor worry, first get in this recognition, and live herein. It is indeed wonderful! Live in it and be it, and when your desire goes up to your Heavenly Father-ship Degree of Consciousness, the Prayer is heard and answered. ("So wonderful Father," exclaimed the Throng.) It is indeed wonderful! Live in it: "In MY NATURE or NAME, you shall cast out devils." The NATURE of CHRIST will cast out the characteristics of men, of which is in short, the devil. The Nature of men, in short is the devil. Therefore, the NATURE of CHRIST, as it is produced in your lives, will cast out the nature of men, and their characteristics will have no longer an existence within. It is indeed wonderful! You become to be a "new Creature," by the renewing of your mind, having put off the old man with all of his deeds." It is indeed wonderful, and that is why it is essential to copy after the fashion I have shown you on the Mountain, in the high Light of Understanding, by living exactly according to the Life and the Teaching of Jesus, that was in that Body called Jesus, as recorded in the Four Gospels. It is indeed wonderful! By living in this recognition, Dear Ones, the very Spirit of God's Presence will become to be a Living Factor in your lives. It is indeed wonderful! You, no longer will look unto God, as the God of the dead, or God of the Spiritual Realm alone, but you will come to this realization that God, in reality, "is the God of the living, and not a God of the dead." ("So glad," assured the people.)

For this cause, CHRIST in the Person of Jesus came after the Resurrection, and strove to get the believers' minds, off of, and out of mysteriousness of Him, off of the mysteriousness of Him. HE wanted them to see and understand that HE was really not something Mystical like unto a Spirit: "Handle ME and feel

ME," said HE, "for a Spirit is not flesh and bones." Jesus, a Person, knew there would come after HIM, those who would see HIM only from the Spiritual Realm, and would not recognize the actual materialization of Himself. HE knew that there would come in the last time, those who would only believe in Spirit and would not believe in the materialization of good things. ("It's true," sanctioned the people.) It is indeed wonderful! For this cause, condescendingly, HE explained the Mystery of the Spirit or Spirits having not flesh and bones. "HANDLE ME and FEEL ME and see," for at that particular juncture, they had assembled in the Assembly, for the purpose of calling up the Spirits of the dead, as the Spiritualists do, and not calling for the reality of His Presence. It is indeed wonderful!

Spiritualists Call Up the Dead

Do you not see the Mystery and the difference between the CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS, and that of the Spiritualists, those who are calling up the dead? ("Yes Lord," replied the Assembly.) It is indeed wonderful! HE convinced them that HE entered in, and the door was shut, that they should no longer look for HIM, in a mysterious and a Spiritual way of expression, as calling up the dead, as the Spiritualists do. It is indeed wonderful, but HE made it plain that HE was in a BODILY FORM: "HANDLE ME and FEEL ME and see that a Spirit hath not flesh and bones." ("Oh it's wonderful!" said the people most enthusiastically.) Calling their minds out of that mystical and Spiritualistic expression of His Presence, that they might observe Him as a REALITY, and as a Living GOD. It is indeed wonderful!

Upon this Foundation, if you will build and live in this recognition, how great it will be with thee, for you within yourselves, will have the VICTORY, the same as HE. ("It's wonderful!" assured the multitude.) It is indeed wonderful! When they handled Him, and after which they did as HE said, "FEEL ME and see that a Spirit has not flesh and bones." Then and there, the doubting mind said: "MY LORD and MY GOD?" It is indeed wonderful! The same Spirit is speaking today, and the same Mind the doubting Thomassish Degree of expression is seeking today, but when it is open wide and given privilege for an investigation, for an examination, for an explanation of the Physical Bodily Form, giving them privilege to give HIM a Physical Examination, that they might observe HIM and see that HE IS REAL as they are. It is indeed wonderful! Then and there, they cried out: "MY LORD and MY GOD?" It is indeed wonderful!

Do you not see them crying out: "MY LORD and MY GOD?" ("Yes MY Lord," bespoke the people.) It is indeed wonderful! Having left the shores of Spiritualism and of Mesmerism, and coming to the Plane of Actuality, and on the Plane of True Spirituality in real Materiality, HANDLING and FEELING the REALITY of True Spiritual things, they can but say: "MY LORD and MY GOD?" Then I say, it is for you to produce these qualities and bring them to fruition in your experiences, but remember, you must bring your bodies into subjection to the CHRIST CHARACTERISTICS, and deny yourselves wholeheartedly as persons, that CHRIST might rise within you, and by putting off the old man with all of His deeds, it will be no longer you, but CHRIST that dwells in you. It is indeed wonderful!

A Glorious Liberty

On that man could but observe the great Mystery of this recognition, and could but bring his body into subjection, what a glorious liberty, he would have Universally, as well as you have individually. It is indeed wonderful! What a glorious liberty! We sing it and we say it, we live it, and we be it and others will use it, and they too, will copy consciously or unconsciously, and will bring it into outer expression, as they visualize it vividly, even also as ye do. I THANK YOU. (Long and hearty applause rang out for some minutes, then Father motioned for silence in order to make an announcement.)

PEACE EVERYBODY! ("Peace Father," came the response.) I just want to say, the Public Meeting is going on here in this Auditorium, and also at No. 521 Hallett Street. All are welcome to attend the Public Meeting, if you wish to, while yet you can always stay in remembrance of this of which I AM saying daily, you need not attend any of the public or private Meetings, unless you wish to. My Spirit is sufficient. That is the great significance of the Omniscience of God, it can reach your conditions without your personal contact. I thank you.

END OF THE FIRST MESSAGE at the BANQUET TABLE—BRIDGEPORT, CONN. AT THE KINGDOM—12:45 P. M.

All Kingdoms Are Duplicates of Sayville

Reigning, no longer merely in imagination in some mythological Heaven, but 'The Lord Reigneth' in reality, on Earth in the midst of the people. That is the mystery the World could not understand until I brought it to their conscious realization in this last, yea, in this present time. It is indeed wonderful!

For this cause the Nations of the Earth are rejoicing, and each and every individual that is willing and ready to do so, can feel the Spirit of God's Presence. It is indeed Wonderful! This is so far-reaching, it is convincing to the human mind, causing even the mortal mind to be converted unto God. It is indeed Wonderful! Truly might Isaiah have said, "And the abundance of the Sea, shall be converted unto Thee." Do you not see that it is fulfilled this day? All of the Nations of the Earth, they are seeking this blessing that you possess, and they will come to their rightful Inheritance, the same as you, yourselves. It is indeed Wonderful! You are enjoying it, for you have entered into the Kingdom of Heaven, where the Tree of Life is blooming. It is the Place that was spoken of by the Composer in one of his original compositions saying,—

Christ the Saviour

When Adam was driven from the Garden of Eden, God put a Cherubim to keep the way of the Tree of Life, lest Adam would put forth his hand, and take and eat, and live Forever, but Jesus died, humanly speaking, Christianly speaking, Humanly speaking, Christianly speaking, Jesus died that you might have the right to Life, and if He died that you might have the right to the Tree of Life, the Cherubim HAS BEEN TAKEN AWAY. God put the Cherubim to keep the way of the Tree of Life, lest Adam would put forth his hand and take, and eat, and live Forever, for he was driven from the Garden of Eden. But since Christ came in the Name of Jesus, He has given you a happy admittance back into the Garden of Eden, whereby you can partake of the Tree of Life, and eat, and live Forever.

The Sweet Field of Eden

On this side of Jordan, you heard Me say the other day, we are in the Sweet Field of Eden, which is in the Garden of Eden from whence man was driven. You have entered back into the Garden of Eden. That is the mystery of the Composition. Although you had sung it hundreds and hundreds of times, you did not understand it. It is indeed Wonderful! You thought it was some place over in Egypt, or some place in the Holy Land. It is the Sweet Field of Eden. Here is a Tree of Life a-blooming. Here is rest for the weary, here is rest for you,—when you shall have entered into this state of Consciousness, when you shall have come up out of the Land of Egypt, that sinful state of expression subject to that which was termed the Devil, as being called Pharaoh in the Land of Egypt, in the Parable. When you crossed the Jordan and entered the Canaan Land, you found the fruit was plentiful there. It is indeed Wonderful! It was plentifully growing there, in the Parable, and it is plentifully growing here, mentally and Spiritually, in this mental state of Understanding, in the Sweet Fields of Eden on this side of Jordan, where the Tree of Life is blooming and there is rest for you.

Have you not found rest for your soul? It is indeed Wonderful! The half has never yet been told, but the mystery of it is in this Parable of Jesus as it was spoken,—"Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest; take My Yoke upon you and learn of Me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and thou shalt find rest for thy soul." I can see that you have found that rest,—the rest that did remain to the People of God, for it was the rest on this side of Jordan, in the sweet Fields of Eden, the place from whence Adam was driven. You have entered into this state of Consciousness, and you can take, and eat, and live Forever. That is why we believe in Eternal Life over Here, it is because you have got back to the Garden of Eden, and you have a right to the Tree of Life. It is indeed Wonderful!

Christ the Saviour

That is what is stirring up the Nation, and those of every nation, language, tongue and people that will come unto Me sincerely believing,—they all are healed of all their diseases, and they can take, and eat, and live Forever. It is indeed Wonderful! That is why I say, don't say it unless you mean it, for if you continue to say it, you may get the contagion. It is indeed Wonderful! Catching this contagion, you will be caught up in the Spirit OF IT, and you will be just as radical, and filled with as much fanaticism, as I am. It is indeed Wonderful! That is what is the matter! Through this fanaticism and ignorance, as it may be termed, it heals your spirit, your soul, your body, and your mind, and causes you to realize that you can take, and eat, and live Forever. I Thank you.

But Look On Us

Peace everybody! There is a Message that I would like to give, as I have concluded these few brief remarks,—just a little thought I wish to leave. If you will but gaze upon that which seems to be so insignificant as Me! Peter and John after the Descention of the Holy Ghost said, "Silver and gold have I none, or have WE none, whichever, but look on us." It was a standard of unfoldment to be looked upon. With or without consideration, through their gazing upon that perfect conviction and realization of the actual materialization of the Christ Consciousness, it produced a perfect healing or a perfect cure in the system of the individual that gazed upon the two. Marvel not at these sayings, neither at these things, because of My Speech, insignificant as I may appear to be, but remember, this is the Fount of God's Omniscience, producing and bringing into outer expression,—as it is flowing so freely for each and every individual,—all of God's Intelligence, to meet every emergency and to satisfy every good desire. As I AM, so can you be. You need not have a letter of the English Alphabet.

To Believe Is To Receive

Thousands and thousands of you, having heard of this message of Love and Salvation expressed and brought to fruition through this individual as a Tree of Life for the people,—those of you that have partaken of the Words that I have given, those of you that have eaten of this Tree of Life, you are now Living, for every one of you received your healing, mentally, Spiritually, and physically. Then I say, it is indeed Wonderful! I think I had better stop! It is indeed Wonderful! ("Please don't stop, Father," pleaded the hearers.) Did you not receive your mental, physical, and Spiritual healing? ("Yes Father," came back fervently.) You believed it, and you received it. You believed that this was the Tree of Life a-blooming. It is indeed Wonderful! And believing, you received, and you received your real healing, for your spirit, soul, and mind. It is indeed Wonderful!

That is what is stirring up the Nation, and those of every nation, language, tongue and people that will come unto Me sincerely believing,—they all are healed of all their diseases, and they can take, and eat, and live Forever. It is indeed Wonderful! That is why I say, don't say it unless you mean it, for if you continue to say it, you may get the contagion. It is indeed Wonderful! Catching this contagion, you will be caught up in the Spirit OF IT, and you will be just as radical, and filled with as much fanaticism, as I am. It is indeed Wonderful! That is what is the matter! Through this fanaticism and ignorance, as it may be termed, it heals your spirit, your soul, your body, and your mind, and causes you to realize that you can take, and eat, and live Forever. I Thank you.

But Look On Us

Peace everybody! There is a Message that I would like to give, as I have concluded these few brief remarks,—just a little thought I wish to leave. If you will but gaze upon that which seems to be so insignificant as Me! Peter and John after the Descention of the Holy Ghost said, "Silver and gold have I none, or have WE none, whichever, but look on us." It was a standard of unfoldment to be looked upon. With or without consideration, through their gazing upon that perfect conviction and realization of the actual materialization of the Christ Consciousness, it produced a perfect healing or a perfect cure in the system of the individual that gazed upon the two. Marvel not at these sayings, neither at these things, because of My Speech, insignificant as I may appear to be, but remember, this is the Fount of God's Omniscience, producing and bringing into outer expression,—as it is flowing so freely for each and every individual,—all of God's Intelligence, to meet every emergency and to satisfy every good desire. As I AM, so can you be. You need not have a letter of the English Alphabet.

Just recognize the Ever-presence of the Christ, dial in on this Fundamental, and you will contact effectually the Divine Consciousness in your subconscious mind,—the Well of God's Omniscience,—and it will be a never-failing Fount flowing freely from all of the Omniscience of Him that Liveth Forever. It is indeed Wonderful!

Take these thoughts into consideration. I have lifted up a Standard for this People, that they might come to this recognition, and substantiate themselves in this recognition, that 'Christ is Rich and all you need.' This is not maybe true, but in reality CHRIST IS RICH and ALL YOU NEED. Do you not see it? You have no record of My having anything after the manner of men,—It is indeed Wonderful,—saying that which I bring into existence and into outer expression by this great Omniscience that is flowing from this Infinite Fount. It is indeed Wonderful! As a Sample and as an Example I came. Dial in on this Principle, and you as individuals will have the victory over all adversities, and over all limitations, over all handicaps, over all adverse and undesirable conditions, and you will not have to fret nor worry concerning your ignorance, or not being educated, or anything of that kind, for the Spirit of My Mind and the Mind of My Spirit is the God of Mysteries, and will reveal His Mysteries to His People. I thank you.

Lost and Found

Peace everybody! At this particular juncture I must conclude, as there are others who desire to eat. Those of us that have dined will pass out and allow others to come forward, for there are many that could not be seated at the Tables heretofore. Just before I conclude, I just wish to say, we are still advertising lost and found articles in the Lost and Found Columns of the New York News, the weekly Paper, and also the World Echo, the weekly Paper, the Papers that carry My Message unselfishly. These are the Papers that we are reading. There are many lost and found articles of value we are advertising. There are some diamond rings, pins, purses, and other things, small change, and different sums of money, as much as One Hundred and Fifty-five Dollars in one sum, in cash money, being advertised. The owner of this sum has not called for it. If anyone thinks he has lost some, let it be known by identifying it, and they can have it for the asking.

Many of these lost and found articles of value, and others of less value, are advertised in the Papers. If you will just let us know if you can identify them, you can have them for the asking, without compensation. We are not doing it for compensation, we are doing it to create and arouse the spirit of honesty in the hearts and minds of this People, for the Spirit of Honesty, which is the Spirit of Christ, is the only thing that will give you the vic-

Italian Translation of Father Divine's Message

Il Colonnello Julian Sorrende A Padre Divino

Commenti di Padre Divino al Tavolo dei Convitati, 20 West 115th Street, New York City, Mercoledì 14 Febbraio, 1934, Mezzogiorno.

"A questo Nome tutti quanti si genufletteranno ed ogni lingua confesserà," dice la scrittura, riferendo al Nome di Padre Divino. Fu detto dalla maggioranza dei popoli che ciò si verifichebbe soltanto nel Regno Spirituale, a non su questa Terra, poiché la Civiltà moderna sembrava di allontanarsi sempre più da questo dogma.

Ma la trasformazione è stata verificata giacché oltre Dieci Milioni di persone, sull' intero Mondo, hanno scoperto che questo Nome è in un Corpo il quale Corpo non è soltanto Divino in Nome, ma Divino in Natura, essendo conosciuto come Padre Divino, e queste persone hanno riconosciuto che giacché questo Nome è qui in Corpo deve essere riconosciuto come tale e non già soltanto nel Regno Spirituale. Per cui tutti i campi sociali vengono ad inginocchiarsi, non soltanto in Spirito, ma mandando i loro Rappresentanti corporali a genuflettersi innanzi al Corpo, sebbene Padre Divino ha detto, "Sono dei Principi che Io asserisco, e non la Persona, sebbene essi siano dei Principi convertibili in Persona a volere."

Dunque, ogni campo sociale perviene visibilmente al grande Tavolo dei Convitati del Padre, per offrirsi al Suo Servizio. È stato il campo dell' Aviazione che pervenne nella persona del Colonnello Hubert Julian, mentre la solita grande Folla si adunava nel Salone dei Banchetti, a 20 West 115th Street, New York City, lo scorso 14 Febbraio; il Colonnello Julian che ritiene il record mondiale di volo di durata senza il rifornimento di benzina, e che è sul punto d' intraprendere un volo senza fermate per l' Abissinia, Africa, nella speranza di stabilire il record di grande distanza senza fermate.

Egli testificò che egli implorò la Guida e la Protezione del Padre, mentre egli fu colto in una tempesta aerea in un viaggio fra Chicago e New York, dalla quale tempesta, esperti asserirono, egli non avrebbe mai potuto sopravvivere. Nel momento più critico il Padre gli comparve davanti in visione, egli disse, e lo spronò avanti permettendogli di atterrare salvo. Il Padre rispose con Parole di Spirito e di Vita, quali si registrano in questi scritti, e quando Egli concluse la Sua Orazione, il Colonnello Julian parlò ancora come segue:—

Il Colonnello Julian Esalta Padre Divino

"Pace! Reverendo Padre Divino, Membri, e Amici, voglio confessare che nei miei trentasei anni di vita, avendo viaggiato attraverso il Mondo intero, ed avendo ascoltato al Re d' Inghilterra, al Re d' Abissinia, ad alcuni dei più grandi Teologi del Mondo, specialmente nella cattedrale di San Paolo in Inghilterra, essendo stato a Roma, Babilonia, Egitto, la Tomba, dei Re, ed essendo venuto in contatto con Governi di altri Paesi del Mondo, essendo stato Ministro d' Abissinia, ho ascoltato a dottrine su dottrine, ho ascoltato ad orazioni di grandi teologi, ho ascoltato Predicatori della Bibbia, ho ascoltato falsi Profeti, ma questa è la prima volta, nella mia vita, in cui io possa confessare di aver ricevuto la vera Luce.

"Amici, non sono mai stato tanto confidente nella mia abilità, come lo sono stato a mezzo di questo Ispiratore Divino, non soltanto nella traversata dell' Atlantico, ma nel volo a solo della più lunga distanza, che nessun uomo ha mai volato e che io intraprenderò in breve. Ed il volo sarà compiuto, certamente compiuto, positivamente compiuto.

"Noi abbiamo un Aeroplano, dall' altra sponda della Baia, che costa trentacinque mila dollari. È di proprietà di Padre Divino e di questa Associazione, e se il Padre vorrà andare a Chicago Egli non dovrà prendere alcun treno giacché io sarei felice di portarlo in Aeroplano. Noi avremo dieci mila fotografie di Padre Divino e l' Aeroplano, che noi battezeremo col nome di "Angelica" invece di "Abissinia" e porteremo il messaggio su tutto il mondo. Io voglio che ogni Nazione, ed ogni Re del Mondo, veda la fotografia di Padre Divino e del nostro Aeroplano, ed andrà attraverso l' Atlantico, poi all' Egitto, di là all' Abissinia, e poi rivolero di ritorno qui."

Le Parole del Padre, dopo la prima testimonianza del Colonnello Julian, furono come segue:

"Pace! Buona salute, buona volontà, e buon appetito a ciascuno ed a tutti, e buona fortuna al mondo in generale. In questa occasione particolare Io mi alzo per dire che l' ultimo oratore a cui avete ascoltato, il Colonnello Julian, che intraprenderà il volo senza fermate all' Abissinia, venne attraverso la Mia Cooperazione Spirituale, e la Mia Guida Sociale e Mentale. Lo Spirito della Mia Presenza e la Presenza del Mio Spirito, senza la Mia Persona, è sufficiente. L' intera umanità, su tutto il Mondo, sta venendo in questa ricognizione. Se tale convinzione può cambiare l' umanità nei Paesi lontani, ed è una protezione per essi senza la Mia Presenza Personale, vuol dire che è molto influente. Il grande significato di questo messaggio che Io sto conceivendo, come voi sapete, è il Principio e non la Persona. La Vita Impersonale deve essere anzitutto osservata con le Caratteristiche del Cristo come un Messaggio trasmesso ai Figliuoli degli uomini, ma ricordatevi, queste Caratteristiche debbono essere prodotte e trasformate in materializzazione, per la nostra coscienza ricognizione e realizzazione. È veramente prodigioso!

Il Mistero Della Presenza di Dio

Noi non possiamo realizzare il Mistero della Presenza di Dio e il grande significato della Sua Onniscienza, prima che esso venga portato a materializzazione. Noi possiamo conscientemente realizzare il grande significato dell' Onnipotenza di Dio, quando esso sarà portato in materializzazione sul piano materiale per il bene comune degli uomini. È veramente prodigioso! Io venni per questa causa e per questa causa mi dichiaro, per rendere universale l' intimità degli uomini, di Dio e l' uomo, concepito che l' umanità possa divenire la Personificazione attuale di Dio sulla Terra, essere la vera Sostanza Vitale, espressa sul piano materiale. È veramente prodigioso!

Questo è il semplice abbozzo e le riflessioni di una percentuale di una frazione di un granulo della Sapienza di Dio per l' uomo. Attraverso la Scienza moderna, le nuove scoperte, invenzioni, ecc., ed anche attraverso i materialisti, Dio sta convincendo l' umanità che Egli è una Realtà ed un Fattore Vivente nei cuori e nella vita degli uomini. È veramente prodigioso! Insignificante quale Io appaia di essere, Condiscendemente Io venni, per promuovere questa Missione Universale di Pace fra gli uomini della Terra e per stabilire il Regno di Dio fra di essi. Quando questo trascende il piano della Terra, esso è infinito, ma è universale nel suo scopo sul piano della Terra in materializzazione. È veramente prodigioso! Nel materialismo noi possiamo vedere la rivelazione della Potenza di Dio, Sapienza, Intelligenza, del Suo Amore, Pietà, e Tenera Compassione, che si esprime universalmente mentre si unifica con l' uomo, e l' uomo si unifica con essa, rendendosi universale e servendo di anello fra uomo ed uomo, Potenza, Sapienza, e Intelligenza. È veramente Prodigioso!

L' "Aquila Nera," Pronto Per Il Volo In Abissinia, Domanda La Benedizione E La Guida Del Padre

Come uno degli Oratori ha detto poco fa, riferendosi ad una delle Mie dichiarazioni spontanee di alcuni anni fa,—se i Mie veri Credenti ed i Seguaci Mi seguono con fede, non uno di essi fumerebbe una sigaretta. È veramente prodigioso! Se caso volesse che Io rispondessi in Persona l' invito di battezzare l' aeroplano che il Colonnello Julian guiderà in Abissinia, in un volo senza fermate, il Mio Pensiero sarebbe di conveire l' idea, e il gran significato di vivere spassionatamente Evangelici. Ricordatevi i grandi uomini dei tempi passati e del tempo presente che hanno raggiunto l' apice della fama, ebbero i loro passaggi graduali, ed il grado medio di espressione a causa del diniego dei diritti sulle abitudini, costumi e modi degli uomini, ed aderendo con serietà alla loro intuizione. La loro massima intuizione li condusse, li guidò, e li protesse. È veramente prodigioso! Non ci risulta che il Colonnello Lindbergh abbia mai avuto un accidente,—almeno dopo il famoso Volo. È veramente prodigioso!

Lindbergh era Libero Di Ogni Vizio

Fino a quel tempo particolare del Colonnello Lindbergh non fumava sigarette, nè si associava coll' opposto sesso, nemmeno come amici in un' espressione socievole,—È veramente prodigioso,—nè tampoco si associava con gruppi di persone viventi in uno stato inferiore di espressione. È veramente prodigioso! Si dice che egli non andava neppure a ballare, ecc., Non intravedete il grande mistero di vita in voi stessi, acciòché il Cristo in Voi possa esprimersi come Potenza, Sapienza e Intelligenza e vi dia lo Spirito ascendente? È veramente prodigioso! Quando il Colonnello Lindbergh fece il suo famoso Volo, era degno di considerazione anche leggere soltanto la storia del suo Volo Transatlantico. È veramente prodigioso! Dimenticando le cose che apparentemente egli lasciava dietro di sé e rischiando la sua vita per la sua avventura. È veramente Prodigioso! Credendo di riuscire in ciò che egli aveva sognato! Ma anzitutto si diede ad una vita privata, fuori del Mondo, distaccandosi dal peso del Mondo, acciòché questo non fosse la causa del suo affondamento, prevenendolo dai suoi disegni. È veramente prodigioso! Si dice che egli non fumava, non ciocava, nè beveva nessuna quantità di liquori inebrianti. È veramente prodigioso! Fu detto o dichiarato che egli non si associava neppure con femmine modesti. È veramente prodigioso!

Egli compì il suo volo continuo ed ascese all' altezza della Fama. L' altezza della Fama era il suo primo pensiero, e per questa ragione egli ascese al di sopra del livello della mediocrità delle persone, o dell' aviatore comune. Gli aviatori avevano compiuto parecchi voli di distanza, ma non con un aeroplano come quello e da soli. Ma Dio Si esprime in lui, si manifestò in lui, e provò conclusivamente al Mondo, in quel volo particolare, che Dio in un uomo rappresenta la maggioranza. È veramente prodigioso! So osservate attentamente, i grandi di ogni campo della vita, hanno abbandonate le funzioni sociali ordinarie del giorno. È veramente prodigioso! Affinchè essi avessero potuto ascendere ai posti in cui essi sono ascisi, fu necessario di abbandonare tali fantasie umane e piaceri quali la persona ordinaria ricerca. È veramente prodigioso! E questo è il mistero di questa grande spiegazione che l' uomo non può comprendere. Coloro fra i miei Seguaci, Collaboratori e Amici, che vorranno vivere Evangelicamente, si distaccano dai vecchi rotami affondanti, e andranno, anzi HANNO ASCESO, alle altitudini al di sopra del livello degli uomini ordinari. È veramente prodigioso! Socialmente, finanziariamente, moralmente, ed anche intellettualmente sarà come se essi avessero cercate queste qualità, poiché l' Onniscienza di Dio giace direttamente nella subcosciente mente degli uomini. Se voi, come individui, arrestate la vostra coscienza mentale, voi riconcepirete l' Intelligenza di Dio, ed essa si affermerà nella vostra mente consciente e vi permetterà, come individui, di essere super-intelligenti. Se vi fosse uno, od anche se vi fossero alcuni fra i Mie Credenti che non lo Manifestano, è perchè essi non hanno voluto essere.

L' Amore del Padre Purifica la Nazione

Questo Radio-Messaggio di Salvezza, sta uscendo da quest' Infinita Stazione Radiofonica, che rilascia la Potenza, la Sapienza, e l' Intelligenza, giacché esso perviene dalla Fonte dell' Onniscienza di Dio. Tutti ed ogni individuo potrà registrare questa Stazione se egli vuole, e può diventare super-intelligente. È veramente prodigioso! Tutte ed ognuna di queste qualità sono nel Cristo, ed è verificato in realtà, —"Christo è ricchezza e tutto ciò che vi bisogna." È veramente prodigioso! Se voi come individui crederete sinceramente e vivrete sinceramente, in breve voi potrete essere la Cosa sincera, e sarete capaci di manifestarLa materialmente. È veramente prodigioso!

"L' Amore del Padre," vi ho inteso dire, "sta risvegliando la Nazione," ma non solo sta risvegliando la Nazione, ma sta PURIFICANDO la Nazione. Sta purificando la Nazione collettivamente, ed anche universalmente, poiché come l' ultimo oratore ha detto, mentre egli viaggia vuole portare il Mio Messaggio ad altre Terre ed ad altre Nazioni, affinché tutti possano osservare il Mistero della Presenza di Dio come Esso è ora in funzione. È veramente prodigioso!

Non Ho bisogno di aggiungere altro in questo momento particolare, ma lo Spirito della Mia Presenza è sufficiente, e vi mormerà quando Io ho cessato di parlare. È veramente Prodigioso! Vivete sempre in questa ricognizione, rivolendo continuamente a Dio Lodi e Grazie per le innumerevoli benedizioni che stiamo ricevendo, le quali saranno cresciute e moltiplicate fino a che non vi sarà sosta fra l' una e l' altra, giacché esse pervengono libera-mente per uno e per tutti, per ogni Nazione, lingua, dialetto e popolo, se voi così credete e se vivrete a seconda di questi suggerimenti. È veramente prodigioso!

Io potrei dire molte cose, ma come Ho già detto prima, non è necessario di dire tante parole ed Io preferisco di dire di più in fatti ed azioni. Voglio dare il Mio Spirito al popolo collettivamente, ed universalmente, così che esso agisca secondo le Mie Leggi. Io sto riempiendo l' atmosfera naturale con i germi di Vita, i germi dello Spirito della Consapevolezza della Presenza di Dio, i quali germi sono contagiosi. È veramente prodigioso! I germi della Consapevolezza della Presenza di Dio, germi di questo Messaggio di Vita e di Amore, sono più grandi di qualsiasi ricevimento radio-fonico nazionale, o di ogni altro messaggio radiofonico proveniente da qualunque altra Stazione radio-fonica. È veramente prodigioso! Io potete registrare il vostro radio nazionalmente e potete ricevere un messaggio attraverso il Continente come se vi parlassero da vicino, ma ricordatevi, questa registrazione nazionale è soltanto un abbozzo grossolano e una riflessione di una percentuale di una percentuale di una percentuale del granulo della realtà del Mistero del Regno di Dio, e della Potenza di Dio, della Sua Sapienza e Intelligenza, che Egli sta ora trasmettendo al popolo attraverso l' Universo, giacché essa non è confinata ad una registrazione nazionale, ma potrebbe essere chiamata su questo piano Terrestre, una registrazione radiofonica internazionale. È veramente prodigioso! I popoli riceveranno queste onde aeree, e queste onde aeree apportano il Messaggio del Mio Amore, il Seme delle Mie Idee e delle Mie Opinioni, che Io trasmetto a tutte le Nazioni della Terra. È veramente prodigioso!

Non è necessario che Io Scriva quello che Io ho Scritto, non è necessario che Io Dica quello che Io ho Detto. È veramente prodigioso! Non c' è bisogno che Io Viva come Io ho Vissuto, Non debbo stare in Piedi come sono stato in Piedi, poiché lo Spirito della Mia Presenza è sufficiente, con o senza la Mia Persona. Io ho eretto un Modello per il popolo, ed attraverso questo Modello e questa Intelligenza, attraverso le onde aeree della Salvezza trasmetto il Mio Messaggio, ed esso lo riceverà, giacché lo Spirito della Mia Presenza lo porterà per esso. È veramente prodigioso! Vivete soltanto in Dio, e credete in Lui, e voi Lo vedrete, e se voi Lo guarderete vivamente e Lo fissate entusiasticamente, eventualmente sarete Lui, e niente vi potrà sconfiggere. È prodigioso!

Lo Spirito Della Presenza di Padre Divino è Sufficiente

Poco Mi importa, per ciò che mi riguarda Personalmente, se Io funzioni in questo Tabernacolo Personale, o in una Forma Corporale, o che Io funzioni attraverso il vento. Lo Spirito della Mia Presenza e la Presenza del Mio Spirito, con questa Consapevolezza, Luce ed Intelligenza, faranno ciò per cui Io venni, con o senza la Mia presenza Personale. Poi dico, È veramente prodigioso! Questo è il grande significato di questa ricognizione, è il grande significato di vivere nello Stato di Consapevolezza mediante la quale voi potete cordialmente affidarvi a questo Spirito Infinito, Presenza Impersonale, e riconoscerle come realtà. È veramente prodigioso! Questa è la ragione per cui nulla può proibire questo Messaggio, nulla può proibire il Mio Accesso in questa Grazia per la quale Mio sono dichiarato, poiché Io non sono ristretto nè legato alla forma corporale degli uomini, nè alla Forma Corporale di Me Stesso, ma lo Spirito della Mia Presenza è sufficiente senza la Mia Persona, e questo è il Mistero, ed anche la Vittoria.

Adunque Io vi dico, vivete in questa ricognizione, e portate questo Nome con voi. Vivete con Esso, credete in Esso sinceramente, e siate Esso, e col tempo gli altri Lo vedranno, e vedendolo e mirandolo essi diverranno Esso, ed Esso sarà diffuso universalmente. È veramente prodigioso! Ed ora ascoltate! Io vi ho inteso dire, e tuttora vi sento dire nell' interno della vostra consapevolezza,—"Il Padre è la Ragione." È veramente prodigioso! Se voi come individui prenderete questo grado di Paternità, voi riporterete vittoria. "Il Padre è la Ragione," non come Persona, ma come Principio che può essere convertito in Persona. "Il Padre è la Ragione." È veramente prodigioso! Come Io vi ho lasciato spesso considerare, il Cristo nel Nome chiamato Gesù, non si confinava o restringeva alla Persona, e perciò Egli come Persona, poteva sparire dalla gente,—ma Egli portava con Se il Grado di Figlio, lo Spirito di Umiltà e lo Spirito di Ubidiienza, attraverso il quale verrebbe il vostro Patrimonio, poiché "l' Umile riceverà la Terra, e il Giusto vivrà per sempre sulla Terra." Adunque è stato Esso un Grado della manifestazione di Dio, il vostro grande Creatore, chiamato Figlio e meglio conosciuto sotto il nome di Gesù. Fu il Grado Filiale e non specialmente la Presenza Personale. È veramente prodigioso! E quel Grado a mezzo dello spirito di umiltà e di ubidiienza, potrebbe innalzarsi al dinito di Patrimonio, e permettervi di entrare nel Grado di Paternità.

Nel Grado Filiale voi avete sofferto. Nel Grado Filiale voi siete stato perseguitato. Nel Grado Filiale voi siete rimasto vinto,—È veramente prodigioso,—giacché il Figlio fu crocifisso. È veramente prodigioso! Ma che cosa disse Egli? Egli disse, "Il Padrone di questi Vigneti verrà Lui stesso, ed Egli distruggerà questi uomini e darà i Vigneti ad altri." Voi potete vederci molto chiaramente, nel Mistero del Grado Filiale, e nel Mistero del Grado Paterno, che Io ho portato a fruizione per voi. È veramente prodigioso!

Nel Grado Paterno non Potete Fallire

Nel Grado Paterno voi non dovete esitare nè aver timore, poiché il Grado Paterno proibirà qualunque cosa di vincervi. Il Grado Paterno ha Dominio in Se stesso. Possiede la vittoria su tutte le condizioni avverse, e porterà qualunque cosa nella somministrazione di Se stesso. È veramente prodigioso! E questo è il Grado Paterno che noi stiamo insegnando e portando a fruizione. Quando voi avrete ricevuto il Grado Paterno, voi dentro voi stessi avrete ricevuto la vittoria. È veramente prodigioso! Io sto portandovi fuori del Grado Filiale. È veramente prodigioso! Voi non siete più nel Grado Filiale nel quale uomini e avverse condizioni, potranno avere Dominio sopra di voi. È veramente prodigioso! In questo Grado voi avrete la vittoria, poiché voi siete ora sotto l' Amministrazione del Grado Paterno. È veramente prodigioso!

Ognuna di queste espressioni sono Gradi portati a fruizione per le genti, acciòché esse possano entrare in questi Gradi differenti di espressione. Ciò nonostante fu necessario di andare e di entrare attraverso il Grado Filiale,—lo spirito di umiltà e di ubidiienza, e le lunghe sofferenze, la pazienza, ecc.—fino a che voi potevate essere estratti dal Grado Filiale ed entrate nel Grado Paterno, dove voi avete vittoria su tutte le vostre avversità, e su tutti i vostri avversari. Io vi ringrazio.

Appena il Padre concluse i Suoi commenti, il Fratello, già conosciuto sotto il nome di Panama Joe Ganz, campione mondiale pugilistico dei pesi medi, si alzò e testificò in parte come segue:—

"Pace Padre. Ogni parola da Voi pronunciata, è appropriata per me. Quando io ero giovane vissi una vita limpida come da Voi descritta, Ma appena ricevetti denaro e successo, cambiai con il risultato che io sono un nessuno quest' oggi. Ma sto tornando a Voi, Padre. Liquori, donne e cavalli furono la mia rovina, Padre, ma ora sto tornando a Voi. Dopo vinto il campionato mondiale, volevo proseguire. Non ho mai pesato più di centocinquanta libbre nella mia vita, ma nello stesso tempo qualunque cosa io toccava si muoveva, e se non fosse stato per la sessualità avrei potuto ritenere il campionato mondiale, e se avessi vissuto la vita che Voi state ora avocando avrei potuto essere il Campione Mondiale dei pesi massimi. Vi ringrazio, Padre. Ogni Parola che Voi pronunciate era vera, Padre, ogni parola era vera."

Quando il Signor Ganz finì, il Padre si alzò ancora, dopo un breve intervallo, e continuò:—

Una Vita Limpida è Necessaria per Vincere Tutte Le Avversità Della Vita

"Pace a tutti! ed auguri per una maggiore estensione dell' universalizzazione di questo Messaggio, questa Luce, e questa Intelligenza! È veramente prodigioso! Io mi alzo questa volta per rinsaldare quanto l' ultimo Oratore ha detto in riguardo al Mio Messaggio. Io ho sempre insistito come il Prize Ring e come ciascuno e tutti coloro che ascendero alla Fama, non perdettero con Lui." È veramente prodigioso! Voi non potete fallire se "rimanete nella libertà nella quale Cristo vi rese liberi," poiché Cristo in voi è più grande di tutto ciò che vi possa essere contrario. È veramente prodigioso! Ma se voi date forza alla parte bestiale o alle mortali o umane affezioni, o a qualsiasi delle loro fantasie, tendenze e piaceri, voi perderete le vostre energie e il vostro Potere di Essere, e voi non potrete esprimere il grande Potere di Colui che vive per Sempre. È veramente prodigioso!

Voi tutti sapete in cuor vostro, che niente altro ha mai portato una tale espressione. Io mi ricordo quando il Sig. Tunney disse che voi dovete condurre una vita pura, senza fumo, senza bevanda e senza giuoco, senza attendarsi a notte se volete riportare vittoria. È veramente prodigioso! E praticamente ogni vera persona famosa vi dirà lo stesso tutti i grandi uomini del Ring, persero la loro fama a causa delle affezioni umane, o qualche tale affezione. È veramente prodigioso! Come ho detto poco fa, Lindbergh non fallì mai, nè mai ebbe un accidente, che si sappia, fino a che egli si sposò. È veramente prodigioso! Affezioni umane, relazioni umane,—abbassando il modo di pensare,—causarono la diminuzione della sua fama. È veramente prodigioso! causarono il suo modello di perfezione di scendere dall' alto pedestal su cui riposava. È veramente prodigioso! Anche da questo punto di vista, il Paese ricevette un grande onore attraverso il Cristo in Lindbergh. Permise una maggior vicinanza fra le Nazioni della Terra. Ma quando egli accondiscese di sposarsi e divenire padre,—attraverso il suo matrimonio e il grado di padre come persona, molti soffrirono ed hanno avuto dei seri guai. Causò sua moglie, sua madre, ed altri dei seri guai, e molti anche a se stesso, riferendo alla perdita del suo bimbo, come potete vedere! È veramente prodigioso!

Tutti i grandi uomini, fino a che vivono in Dio, e non condiscendono ad affezioni umane, e lasciano nulla fra loro e la loro più alta intuizione,—la PIU' ALTA intuizione,—essi hanno la vittoria e sono famosi. È veramente prodigioso! Ma quando cessano di vivere in questo stato di espressione secondo la Mia Dottrina, essi si causano di essere soggetti a sconfitta e fallimento, ecc., È veramente prodigioso!

Dio in Voi vi Trasforma In Maggioranza

Considerate bene su questo massime. Io non critico il popolo, nè le persone, nè la persona, ma voglio conveire questo pensiero a voi per il bene di coloro fra voi che desiderano di avanzare e di portarle il Cristo in VOI a fruizione. È veramente prodigioso! L' Americano Joe Ganz, non cadde stando attraverso e con la stessa cosa. È veramente prodigioso! Se egli poteva ed avesse mantenuto la sua integrità, il Potere di Dio dentro il suo corpo sarebbe stata la vittoria, poiché "Dio in un uomo fa la maggioranza" e Dio in un uomo è più grande di tutte le cose che possono essere in fronte a lui. È veramente prodigioso!

Perciò se voi considerate queste massime, e notate la nostra storia presente, o anche l' esistenza della vecchia storia, vedrete che migliaia e migliaia di genti sono state sconfitte, attraverso ed a causa di aver accondisceso a qualche cosa che non era con loro da principio, nella loro esperienza. "Giacché voi avete trovato Lui, camminate con Lui." È veramente prodigioso! Voi non potete fallire se "rimanete nella libertà nella quale Cristo vi rese liberi," poiché Cristo in voi è più grande di tutto ciò che vi possa essere contrario. È veramente prodigioso! Ma se voi date forza alla parte bestiale o alle mortali o umane affezioni, o a qualsiasi delle loro fantasie, tendenze e piaceri, voi perderete le vostre energie e il vostro Potere di Essere, e voi non potrete esprimere il grande Potere di Colui che vive per Sempre. È veramente prodigioso!

Voi tutti sapete in cuor vostro, che niente altro ha mai portato una tale espressione. Io mi ricordo quando il Sig. Tunney disse che voi dovete condurre una vita pura, senza fumo, senza bevanda e senza giuoco, senza attendarsi a notte se volete riportare vittoria. È veramente prodigioso! E praticamente ogni vera persona famosa vi dirà lo stesso

Ten Million Know Father Divine as the Only God

Fluttering White Flags Are Harbingers of World Peace, Says Father Divine

Unfolding of Ignorance

It may sound a little radical, and it may also be the expression of fanaticism, it may be the unfolding of ignorance, but through these emotions that are put forth into expression, these people are delivered from sickness and diseases, it frees them from vice and from crime, it causes them to live Evangelically, and hence they are law-abiding citizens, living legitimate lives, wherever they are. It causes them to be healthy and happy, it brings to them that joy that no man can give. It is indeed Wonderful!

For this cause I came, and for this purpose I stand, sponsoring this Universal Peace Mission on Earth among men, that they might recognize this Impersonal Life, with or without a bodily form. It is indeed Wonderful! This Impersonal Life that we are advocating is a Principle that can and will eventually be brought into materialization universally. As in Adam all die, even so in Jesus Christ shall all be made alive. It is indeed Wonderful! You see these expressions of emotions and demonstrations that are put forth into action here,—they are not merely fanaticism as man supposes, but these individuals are quickened by the Spirit of the Consciousness of the Presence of God, which is the Source of all supply, and it WILL and it DOES satisfy every good desire. It has brought to the inhabitants of the Earth, this great Emancipation mankind has so long sought for. It is indeed Wonderful!

They have been seeking freedom, from the earliest existence from the Creation, after Adam had fallen from his steadfastness and had been driven from the Garden of Eden, the Spirit of God's Presence within Adam, and in others, was desiring to lead him to his deliverance whereby he might have his freedom and have a free access to the Garden of Eden from whence he was driven. It is indeed Wonderful! But mankind in their ignorance, have not lived according to his, or their, highest intuition, neither have they been governed thereby, nor moved by their own individual, voluntary, volition. They have failed to bring forth the Christ within themselves, to fruition. Therefore they have been imprisoned in demonstrations and in expressions, and in unfoldments of the limitless blessings that God has in storehouse for His People. It is indeed Wonderful!

Learn to Deny Self

If mankind would but learn the mystery of living an Evangelical life, denying themselves for the Christ, and ceasing to function after the similitude of their own minds, their human fancies, tendencies, and pleasures, the very Spirit of the Christ within the individuals, would lead them to the 'mark of their high calling.' As the Apostle said on one occasion, 'Press on, to the mark of your high calling in God, which is in Christ Jesus.' 'As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God.' You have been called to a higher Light of Understanding, and a greater unfoldment than that of living in ignorance and in sin, and in vice and in crime. By bringing your bodies into subjection to the great Universal Mind Substance, you as individuals will be transformed by the renewing of your mind. It is indeed Wonderful!

Just think of it, dear ones! It is a privilege for you to come into this place in Consciousness wherein we stand, where you can enjoy the Abundance of the Fullness of all good things, wherever I am. It is indeed Wonderful! 'God in the midst of you is Mighty to Save,' but remember, you must be willing to live Evangelical and bring your bodies into subjection to this Fundamental that we are advocating, and you will be abundantly blessed and saved. It is indeed Wonderful! Now then there are many things I could say along this line, but at this particular juncture I will not go very much further, for I will speak a little later. It is indeed Wonderful! I am merely calling your attention to the Composition that we were singing,—'There is Somebody here,' and I heard you say, 'I know it is Father.' (Yes Father,—resounded from the Audience.) Remember, it is not confined to a person nor persons, it is a Principle that we are advocating, with or without a person. It is the Impersonal Life, The Christ, that is convertible into a person, if the person or persons will bring their bodies into subjection to this Principle, whole heartedly.

Spirit of The Almighty

Take these thoughts into consideration. When you see the waving of these handkerchiefs, do not think that it is merely a form. Spontaneously, it came forth, but by a custom, or by practice, but it came forth by the moving of the Spirit of the Almighty. The handkerchiefs but typify the white flags of Peace, and of good will to men. It is indeed Wonderful! We are not waving red flags for war,—it is indeed Wonderful,—but we are waving white handkerchiefs, which represent Peace on Earth, and good will to men. It is indeed Wonderful!

For this cause I came, and if you as individuals, that are living out of this State of Consciousness, choose to live in that dark and dreary world, that is your business. Insignificant as I may appear to be, I am quite sure by this time you all just about know, the millions and millions that are following Me, they are not all ignorant and unlearned people. It is indeed Wonderful!

It is the Spirit of God's Presence, through this recognition, that has brought them Peace, and Joy, and happiness, which causes them to come and go as they do, and make up their minds voluntarily, to live Evangelical lives. By living Evangelical lives, they live pure, and wholesome, and respectable lives in the Land of the Living. In short, they become law-abiding citizens, they become competent, reliable, and trustworthy, whereby you could trust them with millions and millions of dollars, and they would not steal a penny. It is indeed Wonderful! This is just what this belief is doing. This Faith in Me, as though it WAS Me, has freed them from the desire to commit crimes, and caused them to be willing to live Evangelical, to live legitimate, and respectable lives, in the Land of the Living, to be honest, respectable, and trustworthy in every particular, and to establish the Kingdom of God on Earth, in their homes and in their affairs.

Wonderful Counselor

There are many things I could say along this line, but as I aforesaid, I arose because of the Inspiration of the Spirit, and because of the rhythm that was going forth with this Composition as it was being conveyed through you to the Nations at large. And the waving of handkerchiefs, and the emotions and expressions in words and in actions, giving Praises and Thanks at the remembrance of His Holiness, are calling our attentions to the Message that was given by the Prophet Isaiah,—'Unto us a Child is Born, unto us a Son is given, and His Name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace.' Remember, that is not confined to a person nor persons, it is a Principle that has been lifted up, and the birth of a Principle coming as a Child in the Parable, but it is fulfilled in your hearing, as it has been brought to fruition in this Dispensation. It is indeed Wonderful!

Hence, the Everlasting Fatherhood Degree of Spiritual Understanding has been brought to fruition in the consciousness of the people, and since this has been accomplished, there is a great unfoldment of Peace on Earth, and good will to men. Hence it is the Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace, and these waves of the handkerchiefs, and emotions and expressions, with joy and Thanksgivings, are the expression of Thanks and Praises for their deliverance, and for the freedom they have received, and for this great Peace, that surpasses all human understanding. Therefore it is the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, and not a Person but a Principle, that has been brought to fruition in your experiences and in and over your affairs, hence God alone is now Reigning as the Prince of Peace, and Lords of Lords and Kings of Kings. I Thank you!

Mother Sings Too

As Father concluded, 'Mother arose, singing as follows, in which she was joined by the Audience with more waving of handkerchiefs,— 'Joy to the World, for the Lord has Come, Let Earth receive her King, Let every heart prepare Him room, And Heaven and Nature sing.

'He Rules the World with Truth and Grace, And makes the Nations prove, The Glory of His Righteousness, And Wonders of His Love.

'God is your Father, you never had another, Just Praise His Holy Name, Just Praise His Holy Name, Just Praise His Holy Name.

'There are no more doubts, there are no more fears, Just Praise His Holy Name, etc.' JUST PRAISE HIS HOLY NAME.

After many more Songs of Praise, and many testimonies of healings and blessings, Father sent forth Representatives into the Audience, distributing His beautiful Publication, The Divine Light, as a free gift to anyone who wished to have it, and this particular session of the Meeting was concluded with a half-hour recess.

Japs Think Nordic Superiority Bunk

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Mr. James Yard, an authority on Oriental problems, spoke with unusual frankness to a large audience at Memphis last Saturday night. Among the causes for "storms over Asia" says Mr. Yard, is the attitude of the United States toward colored races. Unusually outspoken to his southern audience, he said, "The Japanese have discovered that the European and American ideas of Nordic superiority are bunk. Japan, the first non-white power who has dared defy Europe and Asia, has decided to drive the white man out of the Pacific. Resenting the attitude of superiority of white people toward anybody with colored skins, the Japanese expect to teach 'impudent' white people that all this hooey about racial superiority is the bunk."

Gives Hints to Wise

Mr. Yard suggests as means of the United States avoiding the gathering storms over Asia: 1. Repeat the Japanese exclusion laws. Admit Japanese and Chinese on the quota basis. 2. Limit many building programs. 3. Announce a policy of non-intervention not only in "this hemisphere" as President Roosevelt has already done, but in China. 4. Nationalize munitions. "Take the profits out of war." 5. Move from "the New Deal" to a new social basis for society.

Mr. Yard, who was a lecturer in political science at Northwestern University, has lived in China fifteen years as educator and editor.

All Kingdoms Are Duplicates of Sayville, Father Divine Says

(Continued from Page Seven) tory. It is indeed Wonderful! So long as you are dishonest, you will be limited from some point of view. It is indeed Wonderful! You will be getting, and wanting, and lacking, and losing, but if you will be honest, competent, trustworthy and true to others as well as unto yourselves, you will be abundantly blessed, and naught can be taken from you. It is indeed Wonderful!

Take these thoughts into consideration and live in this recognition, and I will be with you as you go down from this place. Now as I aforesaid, we are going to the Public Hall. I think I have announced it heretofore, at 521 Hallett Street. All are welcome to attend the Public Meeting, as it is a very large Hall. I will be there, and I will be here, and I will be filling this Dining Room and also this Building, and filling the Lecture Auditorium, and I will also be at the other Hall at the same time. You have declared that I fill all space and am absent from none. We will arise and go hence, and give others a chance to come forward, that have not dined. I Thank you.

LONDON—First bridge over Irrawaddy River in Burma was opened today by the Governor Sir Hugh Stephenson in the presence of a large crowd. The new bridge which cost over one million pounds is four thousand feet long.

Students Denounce War

More than 700 New York University students participated in two anti-war meetings at the uptown and downtown centers of the university. Five faculty members spoke at a meeting in Washington Square and two at a gathering at University Heights. Resolutions condemning the military program of the United States and the R. O. T. C. were adopted at the uptown meeting. The downtown students, meeting in the School of Education Auditorium, 37-41 West Fourth street, adopted two resolutions, which are being sent to the Italian Consul and the Defense secretary. The former condemns the intervention of Italian troops in Austria and the latter condemns the attack of the government and the Austrian Heimwehr on the Austrian workers.

Says Religious Study Doesn't Affect Morals

CHICAGO—After conducting weekday classes in religious education, Edward R. Bartlett, graduate student in education at Northwestern University, has found that attendance at classes and familiarity with the Bible do not necessarily make an honest boy or girl.

"Pupils who attend such classes," Bartlett stated, "are superior in Biblical information to those who do not, and slightly above the average in ethical information, but this knowledge does not have any bearing on honest behavior."

Treat Your Furs Well

The subject of how to treat your furs during cold weather is well covered in these five "don'ts." Don't get your fur wet. If you do, shake it up and rub gently with soft cloth. Hang it in a cool place in order to dry carefully. Don't expose your fur to intense heat. Keep away from radiators and stoves. They work havoc on any kind of fur. Don't sit on your fur in warm the atmosphere. Unfasten it when you sit down. Don't throw your fur around. Hang it on a well-fitting hanger when you take it off.

Réponse:—Ma réponse vient par inspiration de l'Esprit en MOI-Même, il y a plusieurs années de cela, en une devise originelle par laquelle Je réponds à la question mille fois déja c'est pour quoi Je vous apporte cette petite devise en expression qui la permet de voyager dans l'Ether et parmi nous et dans tous les autres pays.— 'L'Esprit de la reconnaissance de la conscience de la présence de Dieu est la source de tout approvisionnement et satisfiera à tous bons desirs'. Maintenez ceci est un fait. N'importe qui est actuellement conscient de la présence de Dieu et qui mènera une vie Evangelique en exacte conformité à la vie et enseignement du Christ, ce désir créera un atmosphère, ou cette reconnaissance, autrement dit, créera un atmosphère et cet atmosphère est l'Esprit de cette reconnaissance qui satisfiera à tous bons desirs. Je l'ai trouvé réellement vrai. Maintenant ceci n'est pas pour parler qu'on parle, Je parle sincèrement, Je ne parle pas comme si pour un journaliste comme si à un reporter, mais Je vous parle comme Je le ferai à mes collaborateurs, ou à ceux avec qui Je serais en contact quotidiennement. C'est absolument vrai.

Quest:—Est ce que vous voulez dire, alors, Père que si une personne vivra entièrement dans l'Esprit et dans la Vérité cela leur donnera l'accès aux trésors de Dieux? Réponse:—Les trésors cachés tant spirituels que matériels que la vie demande, vous les obtiendrez absolument. Quest:—Rien ne sera impossible à cet individu? Réponse:—Absolument rien. Il n'y a pas de lisières ni barrières ni limites. Une autre de Mes dévisees récemment composée en vérification est:— 'L'abondance de la plentitude de la reconnaissance de la conscience du bien, il n'y a pas d'endroits qui ne soient pas Remplis de, cette plentitude. Ces inspirations, les paroles mélodieuses des compositions, les dévisees, et cetera.

Maggies Take to NRA; Fly Slogan From Nest

CASHMERE, Wash.—Fluttering from magpie's nest of sticks and straw in a huge white pine tree near the Frank Moses orchard is the NRA blue eagle and its slogan "We Do Our Part" visible from the south. 'Jewish Science' Stresses Belief

Jewish Science, founded more than a decade ago by Rabbi Morris Lichtenstein, is celebrating its twelfth anniversary this month. The chief aim of Jewish Science is to offer the Jew a method for the application of his faith to the exigencies of daily life. It stresses the beneficial effects resulting from the close contact of religion with life. Jewish Science stresses the essence of Judaism, which deals primarily with man's relations with his fellow men, expressed in ethical conduct, and man's relations with God, expressed in faith.

Among the fundamental teachings of Jewish Science is the belief in the efficacy of prayer. Rabbi Lichtenstein, the leader of Jewish Science, has maintained that without this belief religion is meaningless; it becomes then only an aesthetic experience, having little to do with faith and devotion. Belief in prayer, he says, must be the cornerstone of religion, else it is only a series of ceremonies. Jewish Science contends that a forlorn spirit can regain his hopeful outlook of life through faith, that almost of body and mind can be conquered through whole-hearted prayer, that man can regain himself from any fallen state through appeal to divine guidance. Jewish Science seeks to show that fundamentally Judaism is the realization of God's presence and the knowledge that God only creates but also sustains and restores and heals and is constantly mindful of man's good.

The Origin of St. Valentine's Day

If you are one of those sentimental souls who swear by Saint Valentine, prepare yourself for disillusion. He was not a dashing blade at all. He was a plous clergyman, and there was nothing in his life to account for his connection with our day of love. It was sheer accident that he came to be the sponsor of plump Cupids, twining roses and braces of doves. The day had its beginning long before the Christian era. It was the custom of the ancient Romans to celebrate the feast of the Lupercalia in the middle of February. This they did by conducting a marriage lottery. The names of certain marriageable young women were put into a "love urn," and each young man, blindfolded, drew out the name of the maiden destined to be his sweetheart. Only enough of this system seemed to work pretty well. But the early Christian fathers didn't approve of such a slipshod method of choosing wives. They tried to do away with the custom by substituting the names of saints in the urn, with the men paying tribute at the shrine of the saint whose name they drew. The day set aside for this ceremony was the 14th of February and was called St. Valentine's Day in honor of the good clergyman.

The new name stuck, but the marriage lotteries continued, despite the efforts of the church. The custom was in great favor with the people. This makes obvious in this way came to be called "Valentines," and Valentines they are to this day. Nowadays we celebrate the occasion in less romantic ways, but the spirit of the thing remains the same.

Women Active in Austrian Warfare

VIENNA—This civil war in Vienna has been fought chiefly in the neighborhoods of workmen's dwellings, inhabited mostly by Socialists. In the defense of these buildings, the Socialist women played a considerable part in the actual fighting. At Florisdorf and at many other places, women carried munitions from the cellars to upstairs rooms for use by sharpshooters in the defense of buildings which the military were attacking.

In Otakring, women participated actively alongside their husbands and fathers in the fighting. In Simmering, a woman slipped through a military cordon which was constantly shooting at the house where she lived, and returned the same way into the beleaguered stronghold to carry medicine from a pharmacy for her husband.

Another woman, herself the mother of four children, tended and fed for forty-eight hours thirteen children in the same house who had become orphans when their parents were killed by the bullets of besiegers.

In several dwellings, women refused to accept the besiegers' offer to permit them to leave the houses before the attack began. They insisted upon staying with their husbands.

Defenders who escaped from their houses after these were occupied by troops, said it would have been impossible for them to have defended their positions so long had it not been for the encouragement of the women. They harangued the men, urging them to fight to the last.

Dog Starves to Death Grieving for Mistress

EVANSVILLE, Ind.—The hunger strike which Toy-Toy, a Pekingese dog undertook because of the absence of his mistress has ended in death.

Once before Toy-Toy fasted while Mrs. Ray Rothel was in Chicago for five days. He resumed eating when she returned.

This time she went to Miami for six weeks. She left February 5, and Toy-Toy refused food. A plan to send him to Miami by airplane was abandoned because of his weakened condition. Yesterday he died.

Io seppi del Sig. Ma appena essi caddero in queste cose, essi perdettero. E veramente prodigioso!

Prendete queste massime in considerazione. Se voi siete rimasto nella vostra integrità, Dio in voi avrà vittoria, poichè Dio in VOI, nel nome di Cristo, chiamato Gesu, è la maggioranza. Vi ringrazio. Pace a tutti! a questo momento particolare mi piace dire che vi è una cosa che Io non faccio usualmente, ma giacchè è una abitudine della maggioranza della gente, Io condiscendo a richiamare la vostra attenzione ad essa anche perchè abbiamo un Estraneo in mezzo a noi. Io sto annunciando questo pubblicamente soltanto allo scopo di dare a voi come individui, l' opportunità di essere colà personalmente poichè potrà essere colà Personalmente, mentre son qui e sarò qui Spiritualmente e Personalmente, e tutti potranno venire. In Jamaica, nel vostro nuovo Auditorium che fu aperto lo scorso venerdì, noi vi andremo questo venerdì prossimo, come Io fummo lo scorso venerdì, ed anche in Bridgeport, nell' Auditorium di colà, e in un altro Salone Pubblico. Noi potremo accomodare un gran numero di persone, poichè abbiamo un gran Salone per il Pubblico, oltre all' Auditorium adiacente alla nostra Casa, che viene chiamata Il Regno.

Vi sono molte cose che Io potrei dire su questo proposito, ma voi potete vedere, lo Spirito della Mia Presenza causa il rilascio di queste benedizioni che ricadono in ogni luogo, e voi potreste ordinarmente dire che esse crescono molto rapidamente. La Mia Presenza non aumenta, ma si abbandona in individui differenti, e questi vengono nella stessa ricognizione. Per cui Essa va apparentemente diffondendosi. Io vi ringrazio."

Smile of Heaven

Father Divine's Sermon, at Public Meeting, Dewey Avenue, Jamaica, L. I., Former Community Club House, Friday, February 16th, 1934, 10 P. M.

No flower garden in mid-summer, ever was more beautiful to look upon, than that which appeared on the Evening of February 16th, at the former Community Club House on Dewey Avenue, Jamaica, one of the Daily Meeting Places of Father Divine.

The Great Gardner, and the only Beauty Culturist, was present in Person, and His Handiwork was evident in the vast Audience that spread out before Him and overflowed into the adjoining Building.

Here was the smile of Heaven produced in the many faces individually and collectively, and so many blessings, they actually could not be counted. The blessings bestowed on one body alone, would be too many to be counted, let alone those bestowed upon the thousands. Yet there they were banked together, bodies that had been cleansed from vice and crime and sin, and made beautiful, bodies that had been sickly, made to glow with health, bodies that had been weak, made strong—all changed before the eyes of the World, and the visible expression was but a sketch of a reflection of the transforming process in the hearts and in the minds. There were blessings within and blessings without, blessings on the right hand, and blessings on the left, and over all, the atmosphere of the Consciousness of the Presence of God.

The Lord in His Tabernacle

In short, it was the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth, and God himself was present in His Tabernacle, but it was only to be enjoyed by those who would give up their preconceived ideas of what God SHOULD be, and of how He WOULD be, to "see Him as He is," and the many who testified, declaring unanimously that they had seen Father Divine as the true and Living God, and that had produced their blessings.

Good Manners Stressed

"A good Assembly, and good behavior, and good manners. It is indeed Wonderful! And I believe we all have a good appetite tonight! It is indeed Wonderful! So long as you can have good behavior, and good manners, and a good appetite, I believe you will have good health, for these are the Attributes of God being materialized and brought into outer expression through your conscious conviction and recognition of God's Presence. Visualizing these qualities, and endeavoring to believe them sincerely and live them, after-a-while you will BE them. It is indeed Wonderful!

You know this Truth is going forth as a mighty Flood Tide. It is washing everything in its way, and bringing everything into subjection to it, and it is washing

God's Glory Infinite

Therefore you are rejoicing with joy unspeakable, being filled with this Glory that surpasses all human understanding, the Glory that goes into Infinite, the end you cannot vision, for it is beyond the human imagination. Therefore it is Infinite, and not only Eternal. It is indeed Wonderful! Upon this Foundation you have built, and here and now I can see you coming from far and near. All are coming to this recognition. The people collectively, as well as you individually, are coming to this place in consciousness where they are beginning to BELIEVE,—no longer merely coming rejoicing without belief and understanding. But you are coming, believing AND rejoicing. "It is Eternal Life to know Thee, the only True God." Through your belief, you have gained the victory. Therefore you can speak as one having Authority, by being partakers of the Spirit of God's Presence. With Jesus' Characteristics produced and brought into materialization in your bodies, you can speak as Jesus spoke, "as one having authority." It is indeed Wonderful! You can speak with zeal and with as they may appear to be, coming into subjection to that which is termed Me. It is indeed Wonderful!

Just look at the Church Members here! ('Yes Father,' came a great shout from the Audience, It is indeed Wonderful! It is true, those that were of the harlots, drunkards, and profane persons, were the first ones to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, but I am rejoicing tonight to say, that I can see the Church of men being converted into God. It is indeed Wonderful! Truly, the Underworld,—those that were termed to be vile persons, those that were termed to be drunkards, harlots, and profane persons, naturally they did first enter into the King-

To Convert Churches Too

Therefore, the Churches shall be converted too. It is indeed Wonderful! And after I convert all of the Church Members, then I will convert the Preachers, the Preachers, the Psychologists, and the Truth Teachers, they need to be converted too. It is indeed Wonderful! They want a blessing as well as you. Therefore I have come to bless them too. Now aren't you glad? ("So glad, Father," rang out with enthusiasm.) It is Wonderful! We want everybody to receive a blessing! It is indeed Wonderful! Just think of it! They all will be blessed after a while, because the Preachers, the Truth Teachers, and Psychologists, and Elders of Sanctified Churches, and the Leaders and the Bishops, they too shall be converted. It is indeed Wonderful! They must have a blessing as well as you,—if they will let Me. It is indeed Wonderful! I want to bless them all. Truly might God have spoken through the mouth of Jesus, the great Love Master, and said—"Bless those that curse you." It is indeed Wonderful! I want to bless all the Preachers, too. It is indeed Wonderful!

For the Common Good of All

Take these thoughts into consideration wherever you may be, that I am working for the common good of the people, and that although those of you that were of the Underworld, entered into the Kingdom firstly, I want the other folks to be converted. It is indeed Wonderful! I want to convert the Preachers, and the Teachers, and the Leaders, and the Psychologists, and the Elders, and the Bishops, that they also might come to their rightful inheritance and enjoy these blessings that I am producing and bringing to fruition for the common good of the people. It is indeed Wonderful!

dom of Heaven. It is indeed Wonderful!

But still there is room. It is indeed Wonderful! I am calling to all of the Churches. It is indeed Wonderful! I am Calling to all of the creeds and denominations of all Religions, that they may come and be truly converted. ("Oh YES Father," came from the truly converted.) It is indeed Wonderful! It is indeed Wonderful! We don't want to keep all the Blessings for ourselves. It is indeed Wonderful! We want the Churches to be converted into God, we want them to have Salvation, as well as those that were called profane persons, that they might enjoy the Kingdom of Heaven here and now on Earth among the people. It is indeed Wonderful!

Be Sincere in Praises

Take these thoughts into consideration, live in this recognition, and you will be partakers of these limitless blessings that I am here and now expressing. It is indeed Wonderful! You will not have an occasion to go around as vagabonds, you will not have an occasion to go around in lacks and wants, you will not have an occasion to see limitations and undesirable conditions. If you do it is because you have not firmly and whole heartedly believed Me. It is indeed Wonderful! Then if you sing this Song sincerely, believing it,—The Lord has Come,—you would be able to sing with the Invisible Choir as did the Wise Men on their way to Bethlehem,—"Glory to God in the Highest, and on Earth Peace, good will toward men." You will find Peace in your home, you will find Peace in your business, you will be successful and prosperous, you will be healthy, wealthy, and happy, you will find Peace, and joy and success, and prosperity, whithersoever you go. It is indeed Wonderful!

Your Zeal Not in Vain

I was just looking over this Audience and considering your faithfulness to Me, and your devotion, your Love, and your cooperation, your willingness to serve mentally and Spiritually, and otherwise. These actions will not be in vain! I have come for the

Wonder of the World

Father Divine's remarks at the Banquet Table, 150-160 West 126th Street, New York City, Thursday February 15th, 1934, 10:00 P. M.

The great Banquet Table of Father Divine, if placed end to end, would have stretched out for nearly a City Block, as it was spread at the beautiful new Extension of The Kingdom at 150-160 West 126th Street, New York City, Thursday Evening, February 15th.

The long double Table, beautifully decorated, took up most of the marble floor space in the great Dining Hall, but Throngs of Followers massed themselves against the walls, while other Throngs filled the balcony running around both sides of the Hall, and still others filled the broad stairways and landings that run up in the

No Contributions at All

Yet none of it was supported by contributions, donations, or solicitations of any kind, neither was it supported by anyone personally. It was under the supervision of Faithful Mary, but as she had testified so often, she had not one thing of her own as a person. The old body and the old mind had been a drunken wreck, eating out of the garbage cans and having no place to stay, but Father had blessed her so Wonderfully that through her, thousands are fed, and many are provided with homes, absolutely free.

Peace, and joy and happiness flowed like a river, as the thousands Praised, and gave their testimonies, but it was increased an hundred fold when Father arose at a late hour, Singing and Speak-

You Must Believe

Now I am not responsible for you if you do not BELIEVE it. It is indeed Wonderful! You must be just ignorant, and radical, and filled with fanaticism enough to believe it and if you sincerely believe it, you will receive it into outer expression. It is indeed Wonderful! While the Song was being sung, I brought to consideration the great mystery that you can see here and now. It is indeed Wonderful! If you believe just what the Song says! It is indeed Wonderful! It takes someone that is radical, it requires a person to believe it that is filled with fanaticism, and just about intelligent enough to be ignorant enough to believe unbelievable sayings. It is indeed Wonderful!

For this cause I am rejoicing and I am exceedingly glad, to see the great unfoldment and the manifestation of some individuals' belief. It is indeed Wonderful! Now isn't this a glorious expression of a belief, someone's faith brought into materialization and outer expression? Yet God has not respect into persons. It is indeed Wonderful!

operation, your willingness to serve mentally and Spiritually, and otherwise. These actions will not be in vain! I have come for the form of a "V," from the main entrance.

It was an unparalleled scene, as spirits, minds, and bodies filled with blessings, poured forth their Praise to Him, Who was the Source of all their blessings, sitting in His Personal Tabernacle at the head of the Table.

Truly it was the Glory of God made manifest, and something the World could not understand; for while many with large resources of personal and real property could not realize a dollar and were accepting charity, here stood this Establishment, finished in the finest imported marble, equipped with swimming pools and every comfort and accommodation, its facilities being added to daily, and here was also this beautiful Banquet Table, laden with the Abundance of every good thing to eat, served absolutely free.

"The Abundance of the Fullness of all good things, all good things, all good things, The Abundance of the Fullness of all good things, is whithersoever I am."

"Good health, good will, and good appetite. These are the attributes to you I bring. Each and every one of you that will dial in on these qualities will produce them in your experiences by living according to this Life and this Teaching that I am advocating. It is indeed Wonderful! I need not say you WILL have a good appetite and WILL have good health, for those of you that are living according to My Teaching, you HAVE it. It is indeed Wonderful!

Just think of it! Today, if each and all of you could believe radically enough to bring into outer expression the limitless blessings you are now observing, the City of New York and this whole Country, would be turned into a material Heaven. It is indeed Wonderful! And openly and outwardly it would be both seen and understood by all mankind, God is Ever-Present and God is Ruling in the affairs of men. It is indeed Wonderful! That is why I say, so often, don't say it unless you mean it. It is no need to tell Me, you mean it and believe it, unless I can see it. I can see it in your words, and more so in your deeds and in your actions, when you believe it. It is indeed Wonderful! It is no need to tell Me you believe Me, when you are going around begging. It is indeed Wonderful! The Bible declares through one well known, 'I have never seen the Righteous forsaken, neither his seed begging bread.' If you are the Child of God in reality, how could you be begging? You may know HE is Righteous! It is indeed Wonderful!

Take these thoughts into consideration and live in this recognition continually, and the Spirit of My Presence will be with you. As the Word of God said unto Joshua, 'As I was with Moses, so shall I be with thee.' It is indeed Wonderful! While sitting looking over this vast Audience, merely in a simple Dining Room, something that is common at hand, it is something that will be universally manifested as it is here. It is no something to be looked upon as out of the ordinary, for soon and very soon, it will be seen and understood throughout the whole Earth. Then I say as I have Sung, 'The Abundance of the Fullness of all good things, is whithersoever I Am.' It is indeed Wonderful! It is being increased and multiplied and brought into outer expression, therefore I have limitless blessings flowing free, from you to Me, and from you to others, and from Me to you, for they are flowing free, through and through, for one and for all. Then I say, It is indeed Wonderful!

common good of man,—It is indeed Wonderful,—and these devotions of yours, collectively as they may be termed, your zeal and your courage, and your willingness to serve, remember, these actions are not in vain. It is indeed Wonderful! Take for consideration, some slight sketch of a reflection of what I am doing. You can read the New York News of this Week, the weekly Paper, for consideration. I will not stop until I shall have universalized this Love, and My Work and My Activities shall not be for a selfish purpose. I will use this Power that you have given Me, humanly speaking. It is indeed Wonderful! It is used for the common good of man, and not for the selfish purpose of any, and for anyone. It is indeed Wonderful!

Therefore you have said, and others have declared,—'I am going with Him all the way.' It is indeed Wonderful! You have declared that you will stand for Me, whatsoever I do. It is indeed Wonderful! Then I say, 'Father's Love is cleaning up the Nation.' It is indeed Wonderful! Condescendingly I came, insignificant among men, as I may appear to be, yet I am reaching mankind in all walks of life and in all professions and

Father a Gift to Mankind

Then I say, I know you are standing with Me mentally and Spiritually, I know you are with Me socially, politically, and otherwise. It is indeed Wonderful! For this cause we can rejoice and be exceedingly glad. I came, not seeking Mine Own gains, but I came for the common good of all mankind, as a Servant in the midst of men, as a Gift unto them, for 'God so Loved the World He GAVE His Son.' It is indeed Wonderful! Just think of it! If you would take for consideration the World Echo,—such a Paper carrying a Message, one translation costing Thirty-six Dollars, not mentioning all of the other translations, and the Message that is so freely given,—and you can purchase the Paper for only three cents. If I were selling it after the manner of men, and if it were My Publication, the Paper is really costing about Two Hundred and Fifty or Three Hundred Dollars for one copy. It is indeed Wonderful!

All of the Message is in the one copy, although there are thousands and thousands of copies sent out, but I am stressing the great

Great Unfoldment of Truth

Therefore I say unto you, if you could but see and know what God is actually doing for you all,—not something to be seen or enjoyed after death, but to lift you up out of lacks and wants, limitations, adverse and undesirable conditions, and to free you from doubts and fears here and now while you are living,—It is indeed Wonderful! For this cause we are rejoicing and we can be exceedingly glad to see the great unfoldment of this Truth taking place in the hearts and lives of men, and in their affairs. It is indeed Wonderful!

Peace everybody! At this juncture I would just like to say, we are going to Jamaica tomorrow. Remember, you are not under any obligation to go. If you wish to go, that is up to you, you are welcome to do so. I believe you will enjoy it. It is indeed Wonderful! We are also going to Bridgeport, Sunday. ('Thank You Father,' came from the Assembly.) Now

To Everyone a Square Deal

While looking over this Audience here, I was thinking of the different Churches and the different Halls where we have held Meetings in this City and elsewhere, on account of those that would oppose the Truth and desire to prohibit the Truth from being established, not desiring us to hold Public Meeting in their Auditoriums. That is why I have this one, and a dozen more over the City. It is indeed Wonderful! It is indeed Wonderful! Now this is a slight sketch and a reflection of what I will do from A to Z, which means, in every movement,—if they will not deal justly with we will do something drastic. It is indeed Wonderful!

Now listen! If the Utility Companies will deal justly, we will classes, and I am Commanding them to do right and live right. It is indeed Wonderful! If they don't do it, I will put them out of Office. That's what I will do! It is indeed Wonderful! We can put them in and we can put them out. It is indeed Wonderful! If a man will live right, and deal justly between man and man, and judge the people with equity, that person or persons, whosoever it may be, or whosoever it may be, we will stand with him and cooperate with that person, for the common good of all men. It is indeed Wonderful! Therefore we are not standing here just merely confined or bound to that which is termed the Religious world but we are functioning in all fields of life. We mean to get at the corruption of the political world, the legal fields, the social, financial, and all of the fields of life wherein we stand, and wherein we have any business that concerns us. It is indeed Wonderful! Whosoever there is anything that concerns the common good of man, or mankind, we are there to get at the corruption of such societies, and organizations, and professions, and classes, whosoever they may be, and we mean to root out all corruption. It is indeed Wonderful!

mystery of unity of aim and of purpose. It is indeed Wonderful! Just think, dear ones, what soul, and as a free gift to your soul, and as a free gift to your bodies. It is indeed Wonderful! A free gift to all mankind! It is indeed Wonderful! But just mentioning the one Lecture being translated into one language, it cost Thirty-Six Dollars, not mentioning all of the other work. If you had to pay for it, and pay a person for his service, you would see that it would run up to around Two Hundred and Fifty or Three Hundred Dollars for each copy. But it has been made possible that you can have it free,—it is only around sixty percent of the original price of the Paper, since I have contributed to it. It is indeed Wonderful! Just think of it! Lessened the price of the Paper per copy, and yet have given to the Paper some hundred dollars' worth to every issue. Just for the professional service, the workmanship and translation, and other work that goes with it to get it through it cost the full amount, as it may be termed, for one, and one for all. It is indeed Wonderful!

don't you all go, unless you wish to! You don't have to go just because I am going up there,—I am here, and I am there, and I am everywhere, and I don't have to go for I am there now. It is indeed Wonderful! Yet I will be there, for I am there now, and yet I am here. It is indeed Wonderful!

I further wish to say, you will find our Public Meetings going on here daily, and also at 20 West 115th Street, also at 103 West 117th Street, and at 204 West 63rd Street,—these are the Public Meeting Places in New York City. You all are welcome to attend them if you wish to, while if you do not attend them, My Spirit can reach you whithersoever you are. That is the mystery, you don't have to see Me Personally. It is indeed Wonderful! For what do you care about the BODY! (Instantly the whole Assembly was on its feet with a shout, reaching toward the Body.) It is indeed Wonderful!

not need to have Utility Companies for ourselves. If they do right why we will cooperate with them. It is indeed Wonderful! But there is nothing impossible with God. It is indeed Wonderful! I say there is nothing impossible with God, and it has long since been said,—'Now unto Him that is Able to do exceedingly abundantly, above all that you can ask or think, It is indeed Wonderful! Therefore I say unto the Public at large, give every man a square deal, It is indeed Wonderful! I am saying unto the Public at large, and unto all of the organizations and institutions, yea even to the political world at large, give every man a square deal.' If you do not give every man a square deal, why will you feel the effect of it? Year. It is indeed Wonderful!

Be Honest and Just

will deal justly between man and man, allowing no discriminations and segregations to be expressed among you. Deal justly, and be honest and true, and God will be Just, and Honest, and True, to you. It is indeed Wonderful! I thank you. 'Peace everybody! At this particular juncture I would like to say, we are still having lost and

Pass On Divine Light

I further wish to say, we have a few of the last issue of the Divine Light, just out from the Press. I rushed them out and hurried them up. It may be that there are some mistakes in it, but I believe you will enjoy them anyway. It is indeed Wonderful! They are food for your soul and food for thought. For the sake of those of the immediate Connections, after you get one now as we pass a few around, we do not look for you to take one next time. Give someone else a chance to get one. Love your neighbor as yourself! They are for free distribution, it is true, but there are millions and millions that would like to have the Word, or this Message, therefore if you get one please accept it, and do not try to get more. As an outward expression I am sending forth a reflection, which is a reflection of the blessings, and it is going right down the line. All that have had one of the Divine Lights, you can pass it on to the next fellow, and when they get to the stairway each and every one that would like to have one, keep it for yourself and pass it on around this way. Let it go around just like water flows so freely, and as these blessings flow. It is indeed Wonderful! They will go right up around into the Balcony. Pass them right around please." I thank you.

China Has a New Year

At This Time Debts Are Paid and the People Hold Celebrations

Chinatown in New York is celebrating the Chinese New Year in the traditional manner. New Year's Day was last Wednesday, but the festivities will continue unabated for nearly two weeks. In New York as well as in China the holiday means more than the making of resolutions. By honorable custom the Chinese has paid his debts and fulfilled other obligations as far as possible and he enters the new year with, so to speak, a clean sheet.

for chickens and oxen are both eaten by the devil tiger. In the New Year week every one is in a festive mood. The women are dressed in their best frocks, and processions of people in strange disguises move through the streets with much music and noise. The air is filled with the booming of drums, and loud notes to banish the evil spirits. The drum announces to the spirits of New Year that the people will remain happy and prosperous.

During the celebration in China all shops are closed and business is practically at a standstill. Shop doors, however, are open for "hazard," a gambling game in which almost everybody takes part in these happy days.

The hearth is symbolic of the divine in China; around it the family holds its meetings. It is regarded as the guardian of domestic life, the foundation of Chinese culture. The hearth is in fact symbolic of the oneness of Chinese social life and exerts a great influence on everything: trade and traffic, art and science. It is the embodiment of the God of the Hearth, whose appellation varies in South and North, in West and East, in the huge land of China.

A few groups do keep at their occupations. Beggars and peddlers who belong to a well-organized society "work" with much success. They line up along the streets of the larger towns on New Year's Eve, displaying their physical defects. Manufacturers of candles make profits, too. In temples and houses are red oratory candles and incense burners, purchased in the streets. Often they are so large that it is impossible to grasp them in one hand. Red is used for the candles because that color is supposed to banish the evil spirits.

Astrologists also do a rushing business. They are important people in China, and are consulted by any one entering into any new venture, social or business. They prophesy the next year's happenings and work out horoscopes upon which are based the affairs of matrimony. In all situations their prophecies play a decisive role; business negotiations are frequently settled with their help.

According to the ancient moon calendar 1934 is the "Chicken Year." The rotation of the years begins with the rat, followed in succession by the ox, tiger, hare, dragon, snake, horse, sheep, monkey, chicken, dog and wild boar. A person born during the Chicken Year, it is supposed, will succeed in business, earning much money and gaining success; but he should not marry a person born in the Tiger Year. The same restriction holds for one born in the Ox Year;

Childbirth Deaths in U. S. Are Deplored

CHICAGO—American womanhood is paying the penalty of self-indulgence with the highest death rate from childbirth of any civilized nation. Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, here attending a conference to improve standards of medical schools, hospitals and practice, said recently, "The world, especially the United States," said Wilbur, Stanford University president and chairman of the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Assn., "has been too kind to mothers for their own good."

Discussing the high death rate of mothers in childbirth, Wilbur said, "I think the high American death rate can be traced directly to the widespread use of methods to ease the pain of nature's process. Instead of allowing birth to take its natural course, we interfere too often, usually at the desire of the woman."

Harold Slater, reporter for the News-Press, told of talking with Warner in his cell before the mob's attack. He said the youth emphatically denied having attacked a white woman. He also related how one officer came to hand him over to the mob and said: "Come on out nigger, we're going to give you up."

Afghanistan to Elect National Assembly

PESHAWAR.—Young King Zahir Shah today issued a proclamation ordering a general election in Afghanistan for a new National Assembly. All Afghan males over 20 years of age may vote, but the candidates must be literate Afghans between 25 and 70 who are noted for uprightness. Government officials are ineligible. Former King Amanullah of Afghanistan was forced to abdicate in 1929 because of popular resentment of his electoral reforms and other attempts to "westernize" his country. Since then he has lived in exile in Italy.

God Acts as a Father to Man

(Continued from Page One) like God, is sensitive. God has looked after us because of our need of Him." Dr. MacMullen rebuked those who declare God is only a Father to the elect. He pointed out that the gospel teaches that God is the Father of all mankind. "We have still got our race prejudices and race hatreds," he said. "We have our scales and different levels of society and we keep them sharply. Our political policies and our industrial and personal policies will never be right until we take God's viewpoint and love the entire world. "Our notions of eternity and infinity are the topmost notes of which we have been capable. There is always the danger that we should think of eternity as something sprung upon us with terrifying accompaniments. It is not, for eternity is now, and ever was, and ever will be. "We should be the possessor of a kind of life that time cannot affect and that death cannot touch."

Program of Negro Farms Is Proposed

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—What is believed to be the first suggestion made to federal officials for a homestead project for Negroes in northern states has been recommended to the subsistence homestead division of the Department of the Interior by Dr. J. G. Lipman, director of the New Jersey agricultural experiment station. Dr. Lipman's plan is for the establishment of an experimental part time farming settlement for 50 families of Negroes at Shell Pile, Cumberland County, and its objectives are to improve social, housing and economic conditions for the New Jersey Negro. The project calls for the spending of between $2,000 and $2,500 for each family, the money to be used in purchasing a small plot of land and in building a modest home. Character, thrift and social-mindedness would be considered in choosing the settlers, and each family would be expected to help finance the cost of the homestead.

State Capitalism Urged by Coughlin

DETROIT.—Branding capitalism and socialism as "Siamese twins," the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin in a radio speech recently called for a "new economy," based on the Sermon on the Mount. "Capitalism is doomed and is not worth trying to save," said Father Coughlin. "It has written its own funeral march in the minor key of greed. It has proved a failure." He then urged his listeners not to turn to the doctrines of Karl Marx, stating that the only difference between the two was that capitalism would concentrate all wealth in the hands of the few and socialism would place it in the hands of the State. In place of these economic systems the Rev. Father Coughlin proposed a "Christian deal," saying it might be termed either State capitalism or socialized capitalism. Capitalism, he said, permits the present generation to borrow from the future for production. This, he added, was sufficient when there was "want in the midst of need," but is not adequate for the present, when there is "want in the midst of plenty."

"What we want is an expansion of wealth—wealth for the wealthy and wealth for the poor," he declared. "Man does not live by bread alone. He has other objectives in life." Chief among these he cited leisure—leisure to perfect the mind and the soul. "Capitalism," Father Coughlin asserted, "is a conspiracy against the immortal soul of mankind." Marxist socialism and capitalism are Siamese twins, and both are blind. "Shall it be Karl Marx or Jesus Christ to lead us?"

We are not free from real politics in Washington. The Senatorial committee investigating mail subsidies is putting on a real good show. The name of former Postmaster General Brown, under President Hoover's administration, has been on the grill for a few days. By adroit democratic manipulations it does not look so good for Mr. Brown. The eyes of our investigators are very penetrating and now they have found where he had a special trust fund conducted in a quiet and confidential manner. What will be shown up on this may or may not prove to the disadvantage of the former post office chief. Republican members on this committee are surely

India to Have Reserve Bank

Corridor Gossip in the Nation's Capital

WASHINGTON, D. C.—It may be worth recalling, last week the information was given in this column that Congress was in the throes of debating the President's money bill and that shortly the bill would be passed after a great many proposals for changes, and a lot being said about them, just about as the original bill was presented with the President's approval and endorsement. It all occurred. An escape by the margin of three votes from adding Senator Wheeler's free silver amendment to reestablish, by Congressional action, the remonetization of silver on a basis of 16 to 1, however was not as dangerously close as some might think, for when the democratic leadership advised the elder statesmen that it was not in the President's program to recognize silver this way, there was certain command of enough votes to defeat it. The corridor should bear in mind that this is an Administration Congress and however independent individuals may be in the House and Senate, the independence of a majority of the party members is taken out in talking and when the whip cracks the performance goes on as ordered.

doing their utmost to protect Mr. Brown. The Democrats are ruthless in trying to bring out more and more damaging information. But when it comes to their own post office chief, Democrats rise to his protection against the onslaught of their Republican colleagues. A lot was said quite some time ago about an airplane trip taken by Postmaster General Farley and several other distinguished individuals through the south and on west to Texas where he went to dedicate some new post offices. Incidentally a bit of play sport as enjoyed on the way to which no one seriously objects as a little pleasure in life is good for hard working individuals. But the Republican questioners on the committee brought out the fact that the trip cost Mr. Farley nothing for transportation nor did it cost any of the members of the party with him. The plane was supplied free by one of the airplane companies. That this company carried mail, of course as far as Mr. Farley was concerned, cut no figure. As far as the public is concerned, and as far as this Republican Senator on the Investigation Committee is concerned, the joy ride of the Postmaster General along with his selected friends, in reality was paid for out of the subsidies the government is giving to airplane companies for carrying mail, if not directly, at least indirectly. Naturally the expense of operating this ship will be added to their tax statement and it will mean that much less they will pay to the Government on income tax, this expense being deducted from their apparently profitable operation earnings. Mr. Farley must even explain the gift of a ten gallon hat which type of charity seems to be the practice of a distinguished newspaper man in honoring distinguished guests who come by his way. It was surprising that this Republican inquisitor did not bring out the fact that Mr. Farley was reputed to have held a royal flush on which he cleaned up considerably on his associates in a little friendly card game conducted in the cabin of the plane while they were passing over variegated terrain of the south land at the rate of 150 miles per hour.

The greatest human interest event occurring in this country for a long time was the President's Birthday Ball. It was nationwide. The appeal naturally was one to touch the heart strings in that the fruits of this occasion are to be used for the benefit of crippled children. It was a glorious occasion. It did much to add to the already great strength of the President in the hearts of the people throughout the country. It also did a great deal for many of the statesmen here in Washington as well as some of the erstwhile prominent. There seemed to be a most diligent rivalry among Senators and Congressmen to be seen at the President's Ball and be endowed with enough prominence to get a picture snapped by the photographers, and mention in the newspaper columns of having been there, so that there would be good reading for home consumption. Dolly Gan, who has been out of the news for quite some time, rode opportunity in a great way by attending the Ball, getting her picture taken and being mentioned in much of the old style manner of the B. E. A. days. (Before Republicans Abdicated.)

Father Given All Praise

(Continued from Page One) which we have not yet discovered. How then, we ask, can God be good and be held within the law? We answer it is the only way He could be good. Our blessings and sorrows are not arbitrary. The house that fell in Jesus's parable was not a curse. It was built on a bad foundation. "We are made godlike by carrying out other people's sins. Though God works by law, He is nevertheless at work in the world today and always. The surface of the ocean may be moving outward, but the deeper tide moves inward. If man goes across the plain with the wind against him, he is in peril. When the wind is with him it is to his great advantage. God is forever influencing our choices, our ideals and our goals."

There seemed to be so much interest particularly among the elder statesmen to get well seated and well publicized at this President's Ball, that they let slip through in a very cursory manner the confirmation of one of the most important and far reaching District Attorneyships, that of the Southern District of New York for which Mr. Conboy's name had been submitted by the President. The Senate has been expending many thousands of dollars in investigating the big boys in New York, the money capital of the nation and has shown up a lot of practices which are really nauseating to the people throughout the country. There has been much said about the revelations of these investigations leading to criminal prosecutions. Among the major sinners, if not the greatest, were the Chase National Bank and its former President, Alex Wiggins. There has been no tardiness on the part of our statesmen in saying that these revelations not only would justify but insure criminal prosecutions. Now the former counsel for this bank, as well as personal attorney for Mr. Wiggins, in his hearings before the committee, has been named the prosecutor in the form of district attorney before whom actions will be instituted against those whom he formerly defended. But many of the statesmen were too busy getting their reservations at the Birthday Ball and hoping to get something said about them for home consumption to inquire into the advisability or propriety of confirming this appointment.

Huey Long is back to the Nation's Capital, somewhat subdued after his first political defeat in failing to elect his man as Mayor of New Orleans. Now the Mayor, who won, Mr. Walmisley, is in the city stopping at the same hotel housing Senator Long. He indicates that he would like to meet the Senator for the rather glacial purpose of winning a rubber medal for licking the King Fish of the South. Whether they will fight or drink together is problematical. Both Mayor Walmisley of New Orleans and Senator Long will be followed assiduously by newspaper men hoping to be present when the meeting occurs. However, there are not many who are looking ahead to any great amount of bloodshed.

Open Drive to Bring U. S. Into League

A petition campaign has been started by the League of Nations Association of 6 East Thirty-ninth street to have the United States declare the conditions under which it might accept membership in the League of Nations, meanwhile accrediting an official diplomatic representative to the league. Some fifteen organizations are circulating the petitions, which will be presented to President Roosevelt, it is announced, when they contain a million signatures. Raymond B. Fosdick, president of the association, said that the league machinery for peace is the alternative to "the old policies, alliances, combinations and balances of power" which President Roosevelt recently said have proved themselves inadequate for the preservation of world peace.

New Navy Beacons Operated by Sunlight

SAN FRANCISCO.—Beacon lights which flash their signals for more than six months without being attended have been installed on islands off Southern California to aid the navy in its manoeuvres. Captain H. W. Rhodes, superintendent of lighthouses for the Eighteenth District, announced today. The flashing lights are operated automatically by sunlight, ceasing operating when it becomes daylight, and then turning themselves on again when darkness falls. Lighthouse tenders have placed the lights on San Clemente, San Nicholas, Santa Barbara and Catalina Islands. Their visibility ranges from fifteen to twenty miles on clear nights.

An Amusing Valentine Party

A Valentine party is one of the easiest to carry out with everything appropriate to the occasion. To start the party, give each person present ten tiny paper hearts. At a signal each person enters into conversation with someone else, but whoever is caught answering a question with "yes" or "no" in his reply must surrender one of his hearts to the person who asked the question. The game is to keep your own ten hearts, if possible, and add to the number by catching someone else. When the time is up, everyone counts hearts to see who has the most. A little heart-shaped box of candy may be given as a prize. For five minutes or less, let the company hunt candy hearts that are hidden about the room. Let the one who found the most hearts lead off in the next contest. Draw with white chalk three hearts on the floor, one within another, with quite a difference in the sizes. The innermost heart counts ten points, the next largest five, and the largest heart one point. Give to each of several players (whom the leader might choose), five checkers, and from a certain distance have them slide these checkers in, to land if possible, within one of the hearts. Whoever gets the highest score may lead off in the next contest (the losers being exempt) while others are chosen. Hang a large heart with small hearts outlined within it upon the wall, and let the participants shoot with bow and arrow, scoring according to where they hit, each heart being marked to designate its count. For the bow and arrow, use the small archery set costing about ten cents. The arrow has a hollow rubber device on the end and suction holds it wherever it hits. Hang another heart upon the wall and let contestants be blindfolded and given a paper or cloth arrow to be pinned as nearly as possible to the center of the heart. For a change have all sit down. Pass around pencils and paper and ask each person to write a rhyme suitable for a Valentine. These should be read aloud later and if they are collected and read aloud by one person, it would be fun to guess from the rhyme who the author was.

A Written Contest

On the other side of the paper have each person write answers to "heart" questions, the answers being words containing the syllable pronounced like "heart." What heart is a city? (Hartford.) What heart is a flower? (Bleeding heart.) What heart is an author? (Ringheart.) What heart is a coward? (Faint heart.) What heart is cruel? (Heartless.) What heart was Roosevelt called? (Great heart.) What heart is a fern? (Hart's tongue.) If partners are desired for refreshments, it would be appropriate to use divided hearts. Cut hearts of different sizes from paper and cut in two parts of various shapes. Match the parts. For refreshments, a rest of cocoa, heart shaped sandwiches, cakes and cookies might be served.

No Division Among Men Recognized, Father Says

(Continued from Page Ten) founded legitimately, and shall be politically established, universally. I thank you. Blessings of God on Earth I will not bore you with My Talk! ("Oh Father, please go on," pleaded the Throng, as one mighty voice.) The time is well expired, apparently, I thought I would convey a few sketches and reflections of My Personal, Social, Political, Intellectual, and Financial Activities, as being for you, through you, and by others, that all might enjoy the Blessings of God on Earth among the people for which I came. It is indeed Wonderful! In this week's issue of the World Echo, is something I had withheld for quite some time, but I found that it was time for Me once again to present My Body as a Living Sacrifice for the Redemption of men, therefore I have come out on the scene and have made My Declaration known—that for which I am standing—and I will not deviate, I will not retract!

Love Will Carry Through

Live in this recognition, dear ones, and this Love will carry you through. Then as I said, I can see the Churcher, and Religious organizations being converted, as well as you. They are coming to this recognition that God is Ever-present, and they too will accept of this Salvation and will come to their rightful Inheritance, and will enjoy the Spirit of My Presence the same as you yourselves. I thank you. It is indeed Wonderful! Peace Everybody! At this juncture, as I have concluded these brief remarks, they are sufficient to reach your condition, and they are sufficiently inspired, and seasoned with Grace, to suit your taste. (A shout of confirmation came from the vast Audience.) But I have concluded, as the time is well expired, apparently, I just wish to make a few announcements. Firstly, I wish to say, we are still carrying lost and found columns in the New York News, the weekly paper, and also the World Echo, the weekly paper. There are many lost and found articles of value that have been advertised in these columns. If any person or persons can identify any of the lost and found articles, they can have them for the asking, by identifying same.

from My Resolve, but I will accomplish that for which I came, with or without a Bodily Form. It is indeed Wonderful! That is the great significance of the Omnipotence and Omnipresence of God, because it is just as operative without the Body as it is with it, and the independence of God speaks on thus wise—I AM, with or without a Bodily Form. It is indeed Wonderful! Therefore, that for which I came will not be stopped by the Powers of the Cosmic Forces of Nature, neither by the powers of men, for it is Incorruptible, Undeified, and it cannot fade away. It is a Principle, and not a Person, unless it is converted into a Person, and if perchance you happen to be the Personification thereof, you are fortunate to be that person to become the Personification of this Principle that I am Advocating. It is indeed Wonderful!

Village of Sayville Magnified

Nextly I wish to say, we are going to Bridgeport on Sunday. I am still conveying the mystery of the sketch and the reflection of a percent of a fraction of a grain, of the mystery of the reflection and reincarnation, of the expression that brought forth this mystery through the Village of Sayville. It is indeed Wonderful! And you will see the reproduction of same, reproduced and brought into outer expression in Bridgeport, Connecticut.—It is indeed Wonderful,—and not only in Bridgeport alone, but in many of the other Cities, practically all of the Eastern, yea even the Western Cities and Towns, but especially in Bridgeport, which is set apart apparently, as an open expression, as a sketch and a reflection of a percent of a fraction of a grain, of that reincarnation of the expression that was brought to fruition from the Village of Sayville. It is indeed Wonderful! Nevertheless, remember we are still in Sayville the same as ever. I have a large number of Co-workers, Believers and Friends, as being called My Children, out there still, and some of our cars go week end especially. It is indeed Wonderful! Therefore I want to convey this thought, that you might see and know, nothing is lost, no matter where you go.—It is indeed Wonderful,—because of the increase and the unfolding of these mysteries, and the reincarnation of these expressions as being made manifest. Do not think that will cause it to decrease at the place where it was firstly expressed. It is indeed Wonderful! It has long since been said, "And of His Kingdom and of His Increase, there shall be no end." I have no end to the Blessings, therefore I am desiring all of the people to be blessed, and I desire all of the Church people, all of the Bishops, all of the Preachers, and all of the Truth Teachers, and all of the people, to be converted and enjoy these Blessings in the Kingdom of Heaven, as well as you. I thank you.

You Can't Please The Whole World

(An Old European Story) A year-old son was going from the city one day, the man riding on his donkey, the boy walking and running behind him. And they met a man who said: "That is not right, brother, that you ride while your boy walks. Your legs are stronger than his." The father then placed his son upon the donkey and walked behind the animal. But they had not gone far when they met a second man. "That is not nice, my boy," he said, "that you ride while your father walks; your legs are younger than his."

Household Hints

A suds made of napha soap and sprayed over house plants will destroy small insects that infest them. When gum sticks to clothing rub the white of an egg onto gum. This will remove gum without leaving a spot. When swaters need mending and you have no wool to match them, carefully remove the pockets and unravel them, and wind wool on a wet rag. To remove dust from upholstered furniture cover the surface with a large Turkish towel that has been wrung out of water to which a tablespoon of ammonia has been added. Beat with carpet sweeper and all dust will adhere to towel. Rolls, biscuits and muffins may be warmed over successfully by sprinkling lightly with water and placing the pan in which they are in another pan containing water. Then heat in the oven for a few minutes and they will be as fresh as when freshly baked.

How Can They Help It?

MAN is a prisoner of his own weakness, of his own passion, of his own greed, in short, of his own sins. Generally he is not aware of this simple truth, and hence he blames everybody and everything but himself. It is an illusion that envelops man so completely that he becomes blind to the plainest facts that will, if recognized, liberate him from his own weaknesses.

But an average man who thinks he is "intelligent" and "respectable" refuses to see and observe facts, let alone, recognize them. To him an outside agency, an external force is necessary to prove the validity of truths that he stubbornly refuses to recognize.

When mankind is glutted with this type of individuals, God, in His infinite Wisdom and Mercy, always reveals Himself to men and in their midst in forms and ways that will open their mortal eyes and compel them to recognize the Eternal Truth that God exists and that without His aid nothing can exist.

It is for these reasons considered that Father Divine is the Reincarnation of God in the highest degree, who has come to liberate mankind from its bondage. He is demonstrating to the complete satisfaction of even the skeptics that He is that great Principle that is guiding the Universe. When He is converting the sinful to evangelical ways, when He is feeding thousands and thousands at really wonderful Banquets how can they help recognizing in Father Divine that Universal Principle for which the world has been waiting for so long?

Brother Killing Brother

A GREAT pity indeed it was to see that brother was killing his brother in Austria last week. It was so in Germany last year, during the World War, during every other war, during the Russian revolution—and every other revolution.

And yet why do they do it? In the name of what? Merely in the name of party labels or political shibboleths? From surface appearances it seems so but when analyzed it is easy to see that man's greed and stupidity are at the bottom of this human tragedy which forces a man to kill his brother man.

It is in the paramount interest of mankind to strike at the very roots of these evils and not just change around the political, social or religious labels: When truth, love and charity are substituted for falsehood, greed and hatred, all men will live as one, as brothers.

LaGuardia for Irish Freedom Joyful Living Is Aim of Life

'Free State' Is Like One-Half of One Per Cent Beer!

President Eamon de Valera and his efforts to make Ireland a republic were praised by Mayor LaGuardia in an address at a Lincoln's Birthday celebration of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, at Public School 17, 317 West Forty-ninth street. The Mayor received an ovation from the 1,200 persons who attended.

Recalling that yesterday was the fourteenth anniversary of his joining the association, he spoke of its work in the early Twenties during the Black and Tan regime in Ireland. He also paid tribute to its achievements in lending great moral support to the Irish in their struggle for a free country.

President De Valera's present economic policies were defended by the Mayor. "Any one familiar with these policies," he declared, "knows that they are working out according to schedule despite overwhelming odds. No country desires to remain the truck garden of another country all its life. Ireland never had a chance to grow industrially until De Valera assumed power."

Mayor LaGuardia urged American sympathizers with the Irish cause to join the association. "Nothing would give President de Valera greater encouragement than to rebuild this association to its former strength," he said. "There is no such thing as a compromise with liberty," he went on. "A dependent state is to a free state what one-half of one per cent beer is to the real stuff. Liberty cannot be blended or adulterated."

The Mayor expressed the hope that the next meeting of the association would be so large that the biggest hall in the city would not be able to accommodate it. "But whether it is held in Madison Square Garden or in a telephone booth," he declared, "I will attend!"

Mr. Russell charged the English with fostering a deliberate attempt through the years to poison the minds of Americans against the Irish by using subversive propaganda.

Insists Belief in God Does Mean Dispelling of Sorrow

Deploping the tendency of the ministry to become too "funereal and sorrowful," the Rev. Dr. Malcolm James MacLeod, in his sermon at the Collegiate Reformed Church of St. Nicholas, Fifth avenue and Forty-eighth street, said a cardinal purpose of religion was to encourage "joyful living." Ministers, he said, should be "ministers of joy."

"Ministers are coming to resemble undertakers," Dr. MacLeod said. "They are growing sored and pessimistic."

"Life has enough sorrow, and sorrow is a very lonely thing. We need comfort. From the companionship of God and from the encouragement of His Gospel we on earth should derive a meaning in life and delivery from fear."

Dr. MacLeod denounced worshippers whose religion does not go "deeper than the skin." Every moment of the day, he declared, "we are dependent on God's will," and the only way to win His grace is "by deep and sincere prayer."

"The foolish utterances, our stumbling and floundering about in prayer, shows us up to be children crying for their father," he continued. "The need for prayer is more pressing today than ever before. Man doesn't have to believe in God to pray. We may pray to an unknown God. But pray we must."

The fact that we are human beings "is written all over us," Dr. MacLeod asserted, and the need for divine guidance and inspiration is "as important as anything in human life."

He pleaded that men send "an ultimatum" to fear. He declared the fact that many fear death and "se prayer" "as a means of buying off the Creator."

Death is only a quiet door. Set in a garden wall. On gentle hinges it gives, at dusk, When the thrushes call. Along the lintel are green leaves Beyond, the light lies still. Very willing and weary feet Go over that sill. There is nothing to trouble any heart. Nothing to hurt at all. Death is only a quiet door In and wall.

ECONOMIC REVIEW

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The production curtailment regulations of Oil Administrator Ickes are beginning to make themselves felt in the industry. Total stocks of 341,467,000 barrels were reported for the week ending Feb. 3, as against 342,417,000 barrels of the preceding week's holdings. The oil producers, long the wildest of the rugged individualists, seem well on the way to submission to the regulatory medicine taken by the rest of the industrial world.

Airplane production increased in division manufacturing ships for civil use in 1933. The aggregate production for civil, military and export use declined. However, the airplane industry is looking forward to a substantial and permanent rise. With government cooperation many large firms are planning the construction of a cheap, light plane to sell for around $700. By applying the principle of mass production that did so much for auto manufacturers, it is expected that the vast field of the "man in the street" will be opened. Replies to a questionnaire sent out by the Bureau of Aeronautics on the subject are in the main favorable.

Prices for farm commodities continued to rise according to latest reports. Exports, however, show a decline. The general increase was due mainly to local market price increase. The export decline is inevitable, due to the closing of the European markets. It will continue until some means is devised to open the Latin American and Far Eastern Market to our surplus.

Land bank loans totaled $127,000,000 in January. World wide manufacturers consumption of cotton for the first five months of the current season was 2,416,000 bales, the largest in four years. Employment, hours and wages showed little change in the first month of the year. The few prohibition free months of 1933 caused the value of beer imports to leap from the 1932 estimate of $235 to $1,236,075. The cold storage holdings of fish declined 2 per cent, in 1933, according to the annual report of the Bureau of Fisheries. Reduction of 175,000,000 bushels of wheat available for export has been reported by the Agriculture Department.

The cost of living for the average wage earner turned upward again in January after two months of decline. The increase was fractional—3 per cent. Food prices showed the largest increase, with clothing, heat, light, fuel and other staples holding fairly firm.

By the Borders of Canaan

By JONATHAN H. BROOKS

And so we come at last Out of the wilderness of wandering through the past And stand before the troubled waters of Jordan.

The old leaders are buried in Moab And it is a new day. Ancient mercies And hoary benedictions Are passed away.

Behind us are the fishpots of Egypt And the sheen of the waste land of Midian. But before us lies the milk-and-honey land!

The jubilee of promise is at hand, Though Jordan rolls between.

And, as we marvel among ourselves How we shall pass over— Bold leaders rise and speak encouragingly with us: "We shall cross over, somehow," They tell us.

"And eat of the old corn and fruit of the land."

"But remember," they say, "There will not be any manna over there; Whatever charity you receive here—after Must bring its meed of sweating from your brow."

Lord, help us now; Help us to cross over!

Blow, you winds of laughter, For the millennium To come! Drown out the leaves of sleighing For the old years that are dying!

The Midnight Mass

By Winfred Douglas

Listen! The sound of children's voices clear, Merrily shouting, echoes down the flight

Of whirling snowflakes; then against the night, Half-hidden windows through the storm appear.

Where eager faces, making festal cheer With mistletoe and holly, and the light

Of myriad candles through the cedar's height Tell me the birth of Christ is drawing near.

The storm dies down; in sudden, wondrous calm The tranquil stars their benediction glow;

Then, Jesus, whom Jerusalem did know And hail one transient hour with tossing palm, Shine forth like peace on all who may believe

And welcome thus this blessed Christmas Eve.

Racial Conflict and Economic Competition

Some Observations on Hitlerism

By MARY VAN CLEECK

"Decisive Years" (Jahre der Entscheidung) is the title under which Oswald Spengler is publishing a widely read "rationalization" of Germany's historical role. The subtitle is "Germany and World Historical Development" (Deutschland und die Weltgeschichtliche Entwicklung), and under this heading the first section was published in Munich in July, 1933. By September it was in its fortieth thousand, and discussion of it in Germany justifies the opinion that it is to a large number of persons there, including the Hitler régime, a satisfactory interpretation.

The main thesis is that we are on the eve of a great world revolution which is in reality a racial conflict, but that the white race has been weakened in preparation for this conflict by the class conflict, which in Germany has led to "luxury wages" and in all countries has weakened the national strength through the dominance of labor parties and socialist and communist teachings. Even the Catholic Church is held responsible for teachings regarding property which give strength to Bolshevism.

Germany is called upon, in Spengler's thesis, to lead white western civilization in the approaching "color revolution," which will be a struggle of the races for dominance. Germany is geographically located between East and West, and the German people must accept world leadership and prepare themselves for racial conflict by resolutely suppressing the class conflict. The Soviet Union is identified with the colored races, and opposition to Bolshevism is a part, therefore, of the race struggle.

The significance of such an interpretation is its inverted demonstration that the anti-Semitic program of Hitlerism is not racial but economic; but the success of the competitive, capitalistic system, which uses Hitlerism and so-called "National Socialism" as its cloak in these desperate days, must lie in diverting attention from the economic struggle to an issue which will unite the German people as a nation and perchance ultimately win to their support other nations ready to enlist in an international crusade for white racial supremacy.

Such an appraisal of Spengler's position and of its implications in throwing an inverted light upon Hitlerism, cannot be adequately defended in a brief article. Rather it is put forward as a thesis to be tested by readers. The main test would be to follow the line of the economic history of German capitalism and imperialism from its beginnings before the World War and then through its aftermath. For the moment it is only the aftermath which can be sketched.

Germany, defeated, faced an economic struggle for survival which carried its people through all the sufferings of unemployment, lowered standards of living, economic insecurity, and national humiliation. Surrounding nations in which imperialism was also bearing fruit in stronger and stronger nationalism were incapable of any plan of world economic co-operation, and desperate German leaders whose success in international relations depended upon some measure of international economic agreement were naturally ousted from political leadership by the disappointed and humiliated German people.

The economic problem was in the forefront in the minds of the German people, and National Socialism in its beginnings preached the overthrow of capitalism, but it won its support from the equally desperate forces of capitalism and from a middle class which sought to compensate for its defeat through a new sense of national power. Into such a program the disillusioned and discouraged German youth were drawn in large numbers.

Added to the reaction against international submission, was the disappointment at the failure of the Social Democrats and the trade unions to give economic security through the program of the 1918 revolution. Meanwhile the Communists were gaining in strength, particularly in certain urban centers, and the Soviet Union was attaining a new position among the nations, with a new economic system which challenged by comparison the capitalism of Germany.

Why the German people chose at this moment to maintain capitalism through a dictatorship dressed in the guise of a new "National Socialism," with all its inherent contradictions in terms, is a question to which no adequate reply can be given until the unfolding of the historical process gives better perspective. But the posing of the question is perhaps sufficient to indicate that Germany is engaged in an economic conflict which has to establish disguises in order to promote unity as a nation; and its principal disguise, which Spengler has ably and fallaciously interpreted, is racial conflict not only within the nation but approaching on a world scale.

A minor point was the desperate need of the followers of the Nazis for jobs; and a race, in this instance the Jewish race, was a target whose members could be ousted from their positions, thus making place for some of those who had been long unemployed and who would perhaps believe that National Socialism in itself was giving economic security. Not only was a race a target; a sex could also be displaced, and women are losing their economic independence. Their loss is rationalized on biological and racial grounds.

The thesis here offered, that the central delusion of Hitlerism is to suppress the class struggle by diverting attention to the race struggle, is confirmed in the experience of Germany's near neighbor, the Soviet Union. There the new economic system repudiates all theories of racial inequality, insisting that racial supremacy has been merely a triumph of imperialism and another phase of the exploitation of man by man in the class struggle which characterizes the capitalist system. It is certainly clear that even the skeptics or the enemies of the Soviet Union have not attempted to charge against this new nation the survival of racial inequalities. In its provision for political representation of minorities and in its planned economy, a new concept of co-operation between races is growing up. Diversity in culture is not discouraged, but rather given freer scope on a foundation of economic equality.

The negative experience of Germany and the positive experience of the Soviet Union together lead to the clear conclusion that racial conflicts arise out of economic competition in a state divided against itself through private ownership and the unequal distribution not only of wealth but of power which arises out of ownership.

For the United States, clear thinking on these issues is of momentous importance. It is to be expected that with the deepening economic crisis involved in the lowering of standards of living the economic struggle will take the form of racial conflicts.

Unemployment as a characteristic of the economic system can be defined as the maintenance of a pool of reserve labor. The strength of the workers and therefore the strength of human rights is inversely proportionate to the size of that reserve pool of unemployed labor. A minority race is forced in larger proportions into that pool and suffers therefore greater weakness in the economic struggle.

The task of America is to solve its racial problem by solving its economic problem. The colored race, with its special problems, can develop a program of struggle for political and cultural freedom only on an economic base. The white race can solve its economic problems only by a program adequate to eliminate economic exploitation of a minority race.

Is Ability Inherited?

Experiments With Rats Seem to Give Positive Answer

In 1809 Lamarck published his famous theory of descent, based on the observation that use of an organ strengthens it, whereas disuse weakens. The giraffe furnishes the classic example of what may presumably happen. Lamarck bids us imagine a primeval time of great drought. To reach higher leaves, giraffes stretched their necks. Those which were most successful had the best chance of survival and of preserving the species. The offspring inherited something of this neck-stretching ability and in turn transmitted it, until at last a neck was evolved of the extraordinary length we see today. What we have, then, is direct adaptation to the environment.

With the general acceptance of Darwin's theory of natural selection, which supposes that in the struggle for existence there would be giraffes with slightly longer necks and, therefore, with a better chance of survival in a drought, this doctrine of Lamarck's fell almost into disrepute. A few biologists have tenaciously clung to it. What it needs is experimental proof, and it is this proof that Professor William McDougall of Duke University apparently supplies with the aid of generations of trained rats. The last of his reports, which summarizes the work done in collaboration with Dr. J. B. Rhine, appears in The British Journal of Psychology.

Experiments With Rats The experimental rats were dropped into a tank of water from which they could escape by one of two gangways, the one brightly lit but electrified and the other dimly lit and un electrified. The electric shocks that they received on the brightly lit gangway taught the rats to avoid it. After a sufficient number of immersions they learned to escape at once by way of the unalluring but safe, dimly lit gangway. Thus each rat was trained to discriminate between the bright and dim paths. If the Lamarckian theory is valid, the number of errors made by rats of successive generations ought to decrease. The average number of errors made by the

Women In Washington

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Anything that has to do with the air seems to be an insoluble puzzle in Washington. The trouble that Capitol Hill is having with the airplane investigation seems likely to be exceeded by their trouble with the numerous black feathered birds known as Starlings, which inhabit the Capital dome. They have been trying for months and months to drive out these birds so numerous inhabiting the dome and crevices of the Capitol building, but as yet efforts have been of no avail.

What started out to be a grave encounter now subsides into mutual praise and expression of admiration by and between Mary Rumsey and the members of the Washington Junior League. The Junior League, founded by Mrs. Rumsey, is an institution or agency composed of wealthy young society maidens, to be of public service in the communities where they live. There are chapters of this Junior League scattered over the country. Recently Mrs. Rumsey complained that these Junior Leagues were becoming snobbish and were not living up to the purposes for which the organization was set up. The Washington League members took exception to Mrs. Rumsey's statements and challenged their correctness as far as the Washington buds were concerned. The charges arose about the time that the Leaguers were getting ready for their Spring Ball at which they were urging everyone to "wear something new." Now they are sweet with each other again. Mrs. Rumsey complimented the local Juniors not only on the conduct of their organization, but on the purposes of this social event, which if everyone wears something new, it will stimulate trade and business. However, the affable Mrs. Rumsey, it is announced, will appear at this ball wearing the gown in which she made her debut in the early 1900's. The controversy and love feast were good for pictures in local papers and happy publicity.

The Mistresses and Misses, when stepping into their dainty panties, or donning the prized rayon slip, or are ensconced with anything composed of rayon fabric, although not wittingly, will be surrounded by conspiracy. The Federal Trade Commission complains against rayon manufacturing companies, charging them with conspiracy and combinations in restraint of trade. They charge that in October, 1931, these companies entered into an agreement by which production of rayon yarn was restricted and prices fixed. Here is a great chance for the ladies to step out of rayon and into cotton.

If the matter goes much farther of driving out lobbyists and clamping down on promoters of memorials to distinguished soldiers and statesmen, it is going to work a real hardship on the social life of Washington. Such individuals are good entertainers and as such are delightful playmates. When the new deal entered in, no one had an idea it would be so far reaching as to hit the social life of Washington.

Achievement

By C. FAYE BENNETT

O golden dream brought forth in life most high, What promise does this triumphed hour foretell? Once bound within a crystal-lidded cell, Until I heard a strange, emergent cry Of budding wings intruding me to fly, I treasure now my drop from that deep well That portions every spring: A chiming bell Within my heart and life's true toned reply.

It is not mine alone, this hour achieved, It is the voice of unfulfilled desires: The cry of slaves; the song of heaven-ly choirs, Some lingering hope a passing youth perceived, It is the soul of mendicants on wings, My cup is filled with draughts from hidden springs.

Strengthening a Theory Although these results are significant, Professor McDougall reinforced them by other experiments. Thus, to cite but one example, he trained one generation of rats after another and then destroyed one-half of each batch—the worse half. What happened when the retained half was thus bred and trained generation after generation? The progeny continued to improve, the errors falling off from 166 per rat to 43. "I venture the opinion that, if the descriptions and figures given in this and the two preceding reports are accepted as truthfully stated and reasonably objective, even the wand of the mathematician may not easily exorcise the spirit of Lamarck," is Professor McDougall's conclusion.

PRISONS AND PRISONERS

By CLIFFORD C. MITCHELL

Russian Prisons! You've heard the stories concerning street-car conductors taking a street-car ride for pastime on their off day, and of firemen visiting fires on their off day, and the like.

Comparatively speaking I have had a similar experience. A successful Chicago business man left word that I was to call at his office as he had something he thought would interest me. After being ushered into his private office this busy executive explained that he knew of my interest in prisons, and while he hoped to never have anything to do with them, he reads considerably on the subject in order to keep well informed and he explained that he had recently read two articles that if I hadn't already read that he would loan me to read.

One of these articles was by Sanford Bates and appeared in the magazine section of the New York Times for Sunday, February 4th, 1934. The other article was the sixteenth chapter in a recent book, "The Great Offensive," by Maurice Hindus, and published by Harrison Smith and Robert Haas, Inc., 17 East 49th street, New York City. I was glad to read this portion of the book and I heartily recommend it to other readers who are interested in the solution of our prison problem.

Briefly summarized, the author, Maurice Hindus, relates the present prison plan in force throughout Russia as actually investigated and observed by the author on a recent visit throughout Russia. Their system, apparently, is quite the contrary to what the average American conceives to be the purpose of a prison. In this country the layman believes that a prison is a place to punish and at the same time by some mysterious method to turn the punished prisoner out an entirely remade and reformed prisoner.

Those actually connected with prisons, and as Sanford Bates points out in his article, know that prisons dealing with human beings cannot be successfully run on a basis of punishment only. Their policy is to thoroughly analyze each prisoner and to attempt to so appeal to that prisoner as to cause the spark of reformation to plant itself within the prisoners' breast and mind, and once that is done to so encourage the prisoner as to bring out only the good qualities. This method is progressing somewhat in America but not as rapidly as it could because of handicaps caused by our peculiar prison labor and financial conditions, not to mention the efforts of those who oppose every prison policy that does not smack of severe punishment.

In Russia, they do things differently. They feel that if a prisoner is worth saving at all that he is worth saving from the beginning and consequently Russian prisoners are placed in prison colonies where their every action is as near a normal free existence as can possibly exist, yet keeping the prisoner in a prescribed custody and subject to certain regulations. Apparently, the effort is a success in Russia, for every prisoner has work, is paid for it, and during his idle hours is permitted to mingle with his loved ones and to exercise the privileges of normal free persons, within the restricted area and time. In fact, the Russians base their prison success on the fact that in permitting the prisoners to live a normal life, functioning in every way as a normal being is made to function, that they are able to control the destiny of their prisoners without fear of uprisals, escapes, or trouble of any kind, and that once the habit of work, normal recreation and clean living has become a part of the prisoner that he will ever after keep within these bounds.

What to Read

We will be glad to help you solve your book problems, plan outlines for courses of study, or give competent direction in the choice of books. Inquiries should be sent to MISS SONJA KRUTCHKOFF, Readers' Adviser Adult Education Committee, 105 West 135 Street, New York City.

Mrs. A. A. S. of Manteo, Va., wants some books of short plays and pageants suitable for junior boys and girls, also a book on young people's clubs.

MACKAY, C. D. Patriotic plays and pageants for young people. Contains three pageants and eight one-act plays especially suited for school use.

LORD, KATHERINE Plays for school and camp. Pantomime, processional, music and dancing form a part of each of these six plays. Intended for amateurs, but takes for granted a certain amount of direction.

JAGENDORF, M. A. One-act plays for young people. Thirteen plays, varying in length and merit, suitable for children of six to sixteen. Practical advice on costuming, stage setting and scenery is given, supplemented by illustrations.

MARSH, F. A. Plays for young people. Eleven plays (some original, others adaptations of classics) suitable for the youngest High School pupils, with numerous practical suggestions for staging the plays.

STERN, R. B. Clubs, making and management. Incorporation methods, harmless initiation stunts, club names, mottoes, suggestive essays and speeches are among the many topics considered in this useful book on young people's clubs.

KRONQUIST, E. F. Metalcraft and jewelry. The details of designing and making jewelry and ornaments are explained in such manner that they may be followed by any careful worker with little equipment and small expense.

SORENSEN, H. R. & VAUGHN Hand wrought jewelry. A book for handicraft workers. Describes in detail the actual making of jewelry from the simplest to the most difficult processes.

WADE, F. B. Textbook of precious stones. A book for jewelers and gem loving public, which combines trade information with scientific knowledge on the subject of precious stones.

Earth's Sweetest Singer Lines Written by Robert G. Ingersoll on His Visit to the Burns Cottage in Ayr.

Though Scotland boast a thousand names of patriot, king and peer, The noblest, grandest of them all was loved and cradled here. Here lived the gentle peasant-prince, the loving cotter-king, Compared with whom the grandest lord is but a titled thing.

'Tis but a cot roofed in with straw, a novel built of clay, One door shuts out the snow and storm, one window greets the day. And yet I stand within this room and hold all thrones in scorn, For here, beneath this lowly hatch, love's sweetest bard was born.

Within this hallowed hut I feel like one who glads a shrine, When the clasp lips at last have touched the something deemed divine. And here the world through all the years, as long as day returns, The tribute of its love and tears will pay to Robert Burns.

MUNICH—The League of Nations and disarmament were treated heavily to popular derision as a feature of a two-mile-long carnival procession here today. A jackass and a camel symbolized those nations represented as still believing in the League. Part of the procession was devoted to a funeral cortege for the Treaty of Versailles.

The past regime was satirized by a number of "Marxist" figures in red. Jewish emigrants were shown at work producing atrocity stories in the shape of monster toys, which were slain with "the pen of truth."
