Woman's Club Song

The following verses, written by Adeline Dickman Miller, were adopted as the song of the Woman's Twentieth Century Club of Ruskin, Fla. It is to be sung to the tune of "Maryland, My Maryland."

My happy heart exults in song.

Oh dawning day, Oh glorious time!

That we to this great age belong.

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

We'll gird us up; we'll forge our will!

Strengthen our hearts and minds until

They'll help with purpose life to fill;

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

Purpose to beautify the hoole,

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

That neither boys nor girls need roam.

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

Expand through the social good,

Great human needs, the stanch of blood;

All things for which the true have stood;

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

The future beckons all to come,

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

To make the world a larger home,

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

We're glad a part in this have we,

A growth to feel, a force to be,

Till all humanity is free,

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

We'll pledge ourselves to right and truth.

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

United stand gainst fates uncouth,

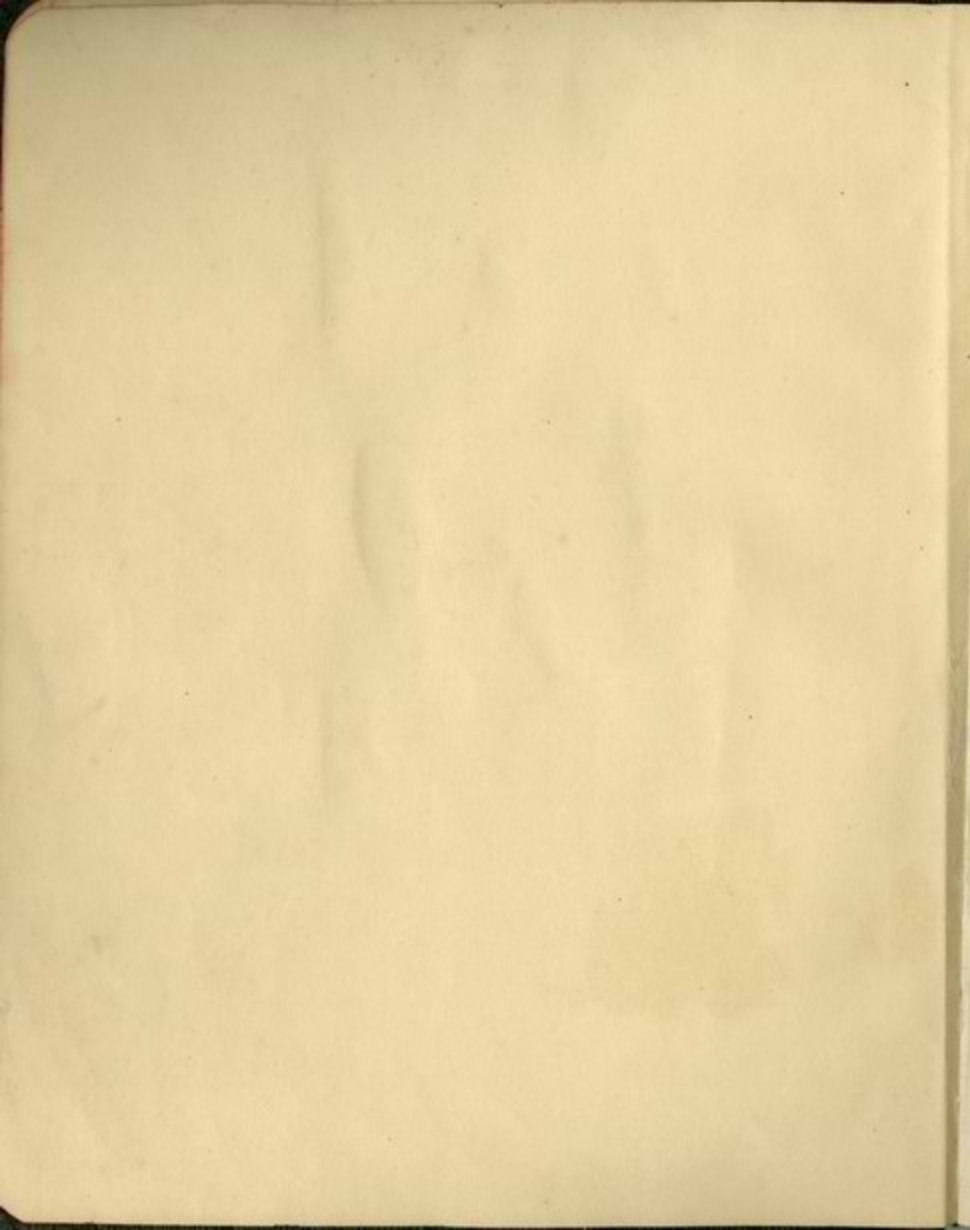

Oh, dawning day! Oh, glorious time!

We will uphold each other's hands,

Teach woman's needs in many lands,

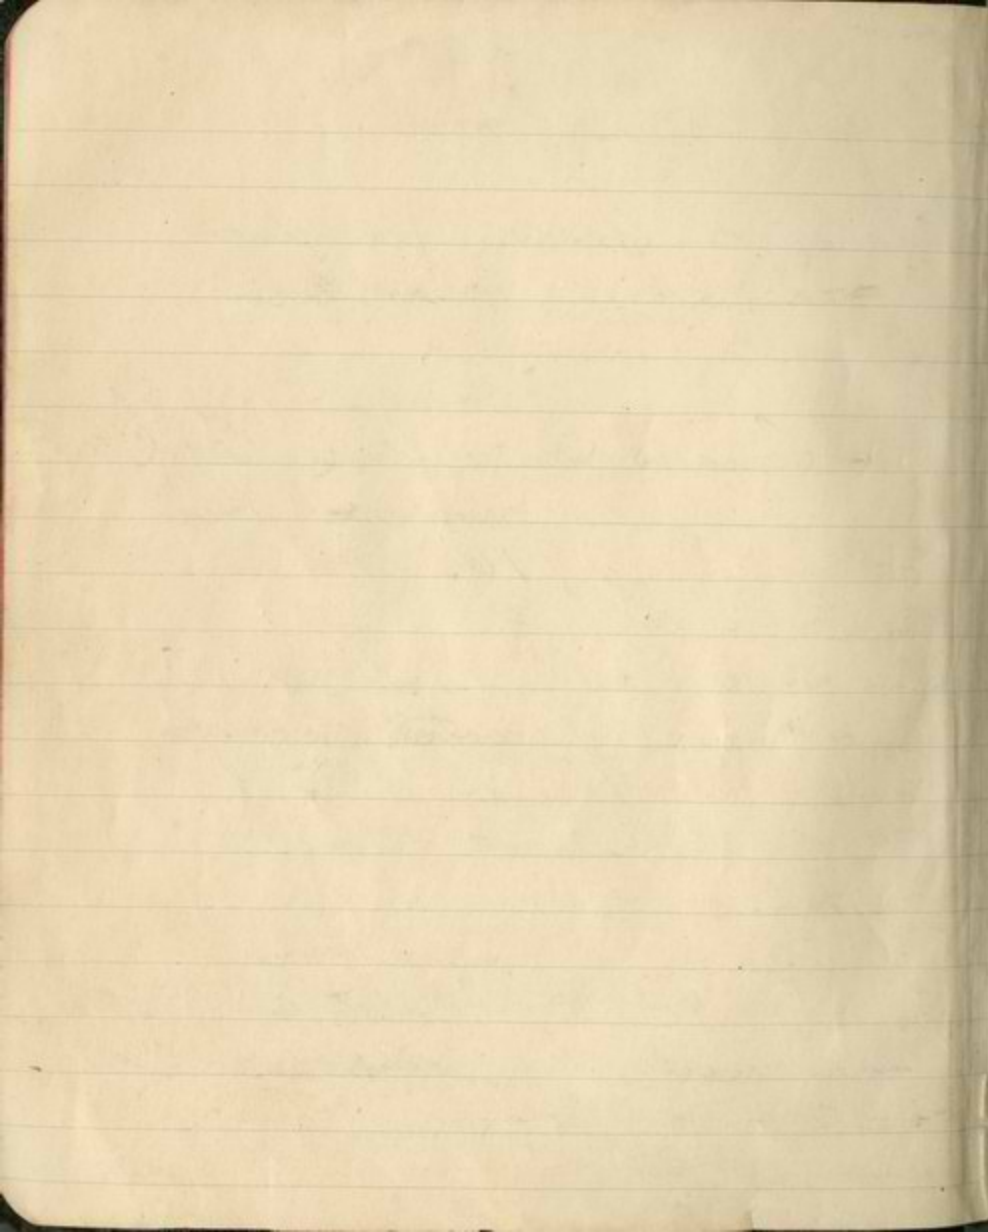

Keep on till each one understands,

This dawning day, this glorious time.
