Christopher Jeaffreson

And the said charter granted by the said John, his son, and heir apparent, to the said Christopher Jaffreson, his heir and devisee, is not to be altered, amended, or canceled, without the consent of the said Christopher Jaffreson, his heir and devisee, or his legal representatives.

The said charter grants to the said Christopher Jaffreson, his heir and devisee, the right to take and receive all the fruits, grains, and other products from the said plantation, as well as the right to appoint and remove the officers and agents of the plantation.

The said charter also grants the right to build and maintain houses, barns, and other buildings on the said plantation, as well as the right to import and export goods.

The said charter further grants the right to the said Christopher Jaffreson, his heir and devisee, to lease or sell the plantation to anyone he chooses.

The said charter is witnessed by the signatures of the witnesses, who are bound by the same obligations as the grantee.

The said charter is valid for a term of 21 years, and can be renewed for another term of 21 years upon the written consent of the parties involved.

The said charter is sealed with the Great Seal of the King, and is witnessed by the signatures of the witnesses.
This Indenture made the Eleventh day of November in the second year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the third by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

One thousand seven hundred and sixty five pounds East Greenwich for and in Consideration of the said Charles Lyn is to be paid to him by the said Christopher Trasseroon at the rate of five hundred pounds per annum payable at the end of each year and in addition thereto the said Charles Lyn is to have and to hold the said plantation and all appurtenances thereunto appertaining and all improvements thereon and the said plantation and all appurtenances thereto to be returned to the said Christopher Trasseroon at the end of the term hereby granted.

Further to be understood that the said Christopher Trasseroon shall have the option of purchasing the said plantation and all appurtenances thereunto at the end of the term hereby granted at the rate of five hundred pounds per annum payable at the end of each year and in addition thereto the said Christopher Trasseroon is to have and to hold the said plantation and all appurtenances thereunto and all improvements thereon and the said plantation and all appurtenances thereto to be returned to the said Christopher Trasseroon at the end of the term hereby granted.

In witness whereof the said Christopher Trasseroon and the said Charles Lyn have hereunto set their hands and seal this eleventh day of November in the second year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the third by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c.
