and being find my laste to you by Harris the 24 of March Now I did acquaint you of what had bene done in Captaine Boutlers Bignes and I did send you Mr Colmadyes letter of acquainting with you to good Willing to it which I thought with the advice of my friends might doe as well as the Lord Mayors Council I having sent it by Captaine Sanders master of the ante good merchant with our Colmadyes dog catch to it since for I met with Captaine gooder Boutler through mouth Troubbolt and he said him in prison in London for about a fortnight and the Care of his wife and children being so great and I find my self to be very bound I have ~~written a letter~~ ^{written a letter} with him who protest me that he delivered the 4 servants by your order that Capt Rutter did demand them of him by it under your hand and seal of it with you all of your letters with other mony found it to be good I have now at this Contract with him forking twenty pound down and his own bond for twenty more at 12 month that if he ^{any} produce any youth or order under your hand to Capt Rutter for to Redeem the said servant ^{myself} out in his shop that then will he pay him his twenty pound againe and give him by his bond for the other twenty of the month this is the Contract with him the are four for I pray you to acquaint me if there be any youth or order and send me a affidavit if there be no youth or order of you I shall be glad that I may the better agree if youth are returned order should bein future as a great fear of the down and now quarrelling it will be a great falling out of the only God firm I have littell else at present to advise you of but that all the knowlege that is in my hands is Redy for you or your order when you please to see it or order it so I shall be as careful of your business as of my own and art for you as my selfe I suppose his and ear in disor out now and I do hope should be about 3800 with this with my self and my wifes love to you and your good lady with all your littell loves I take my leave and Rest your thorsly
