Simeon ut ju

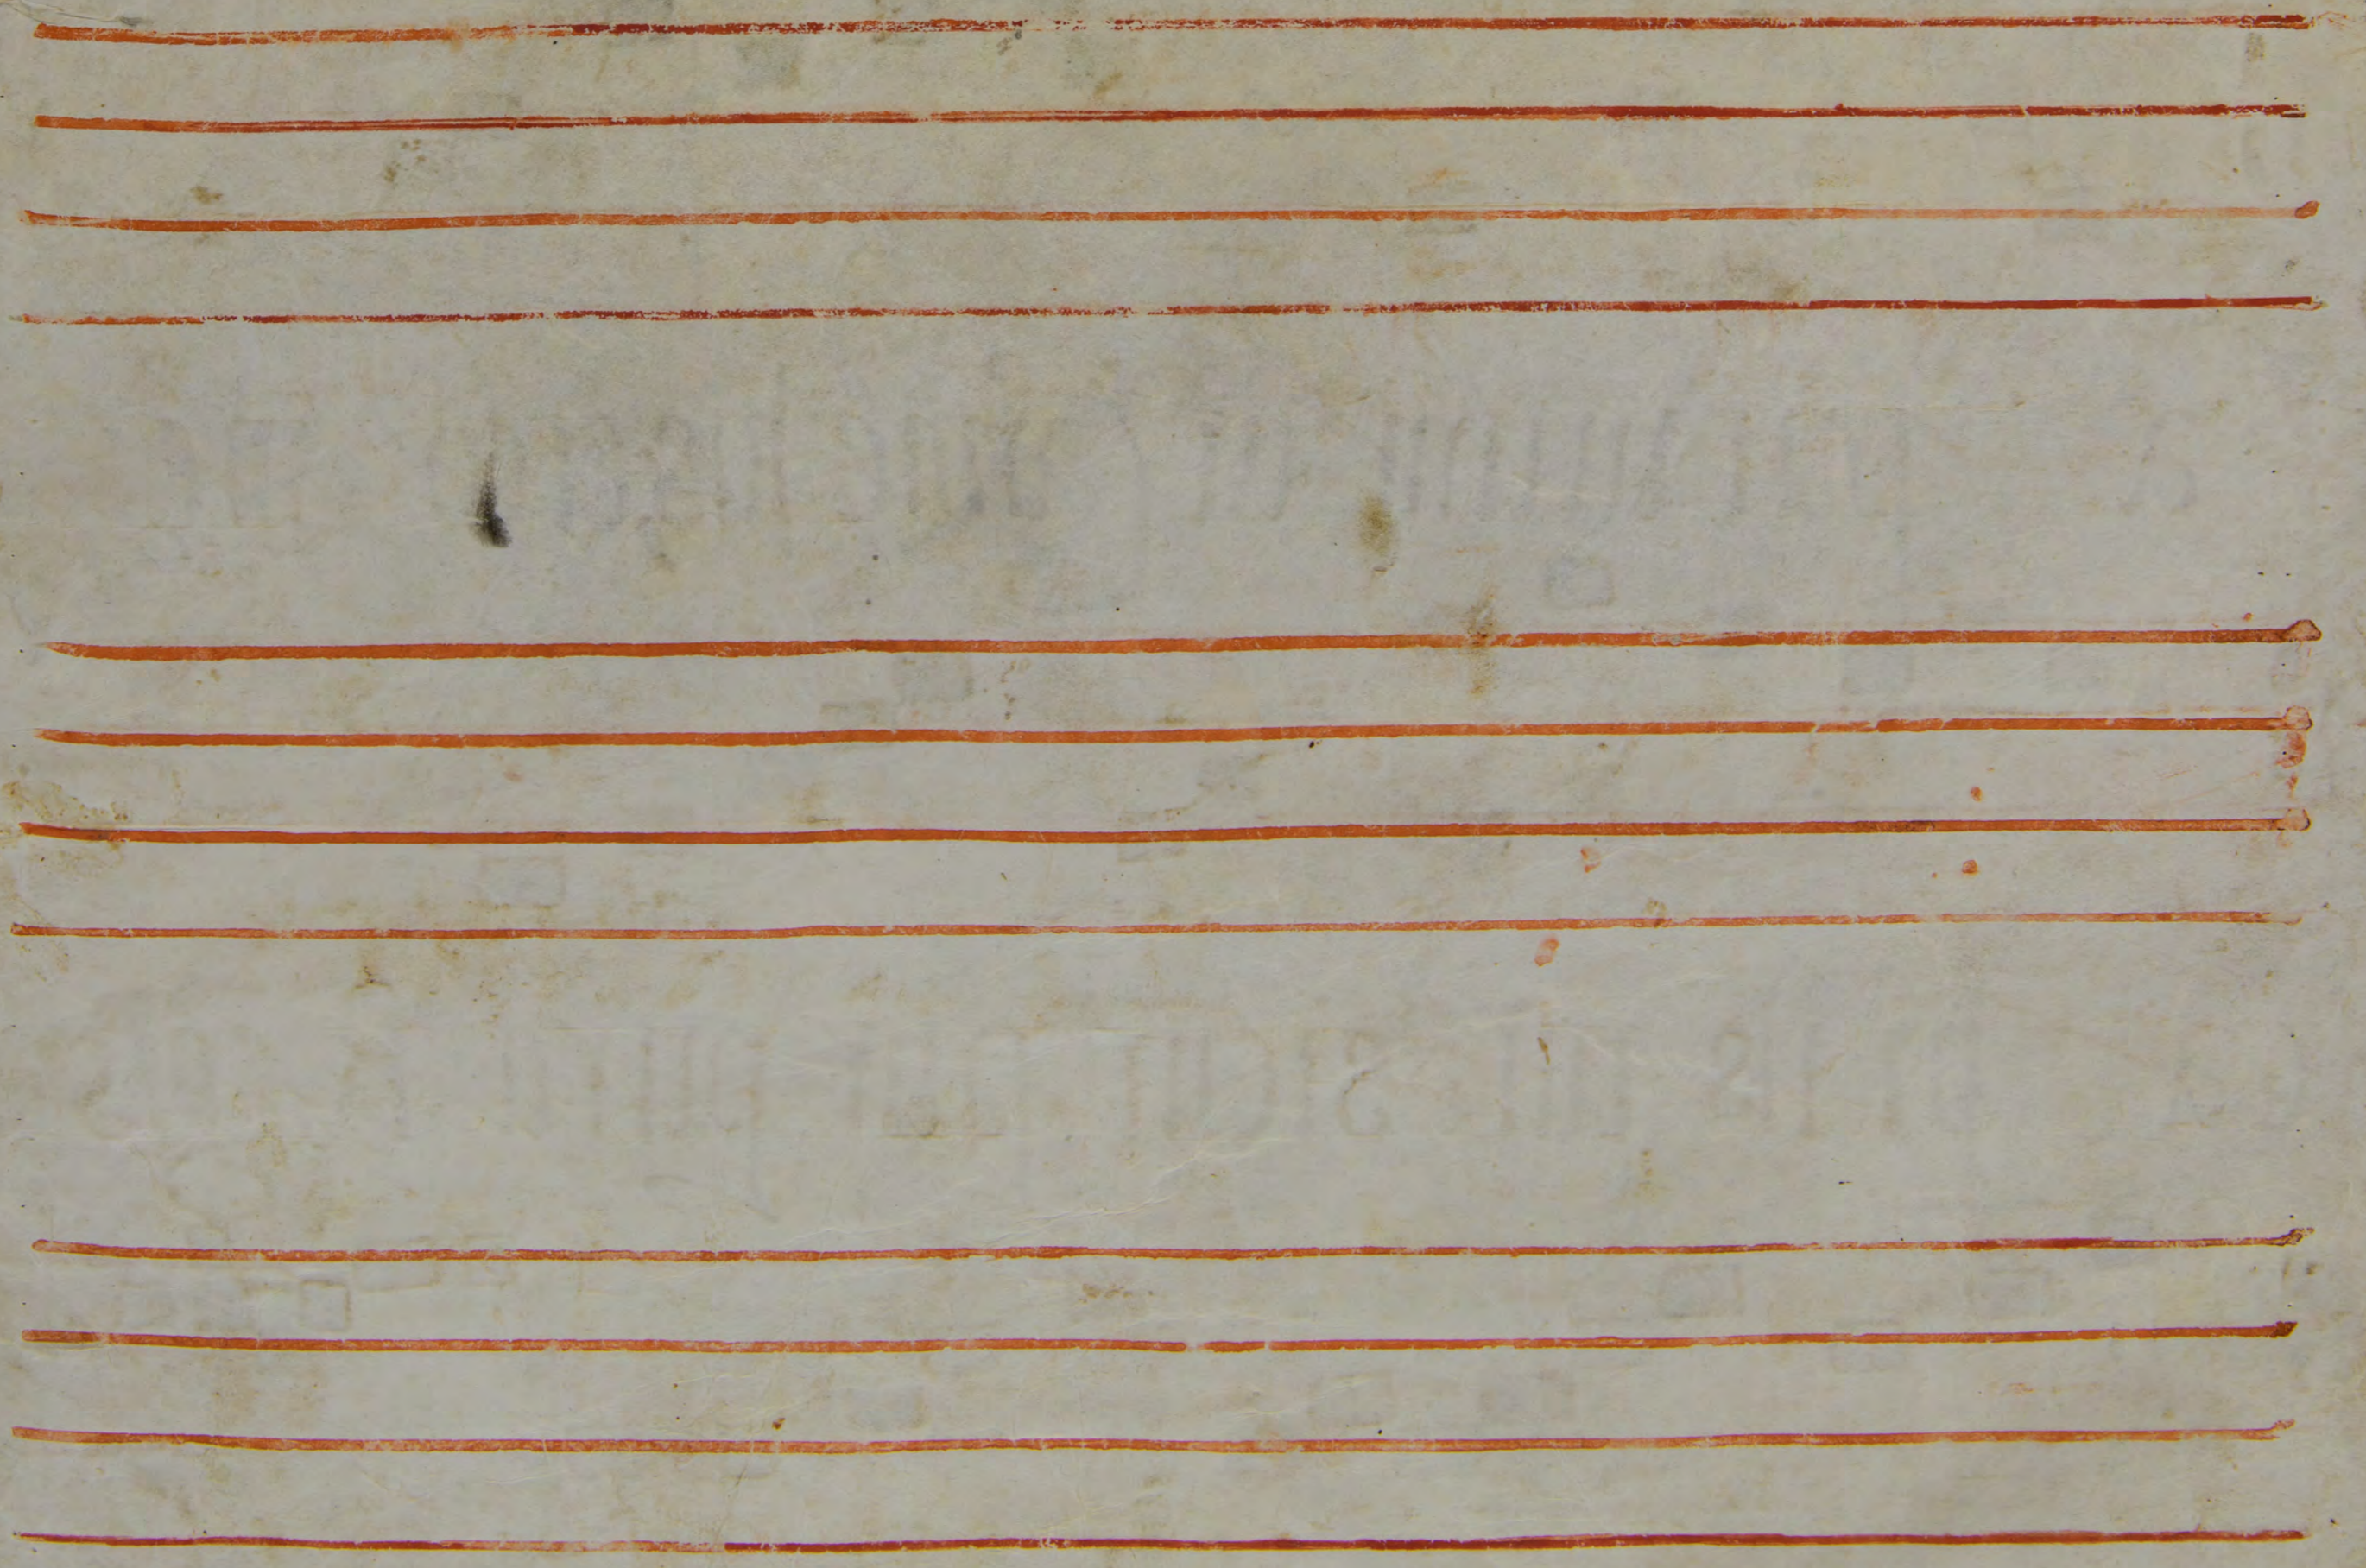

This block contains the first system of musical notation. It features a four-line staff with square neumes. A decorative initial 'S' is written in a stylized, calligraphic font. The text 'Simeon ut ju' is written in a Gothic script below the staff. The notation includes a clef-like symbol at the beginning and a vertical bar line. The neumes are arranged in a sequence that follows the text.

This block contains the second system of musical notation. It features a four-line staff with square neumes. A clef-like symbol is visible at the beginning. The notation includes a vertical bar line. The neumes are arranged in a sequence that follows the text.

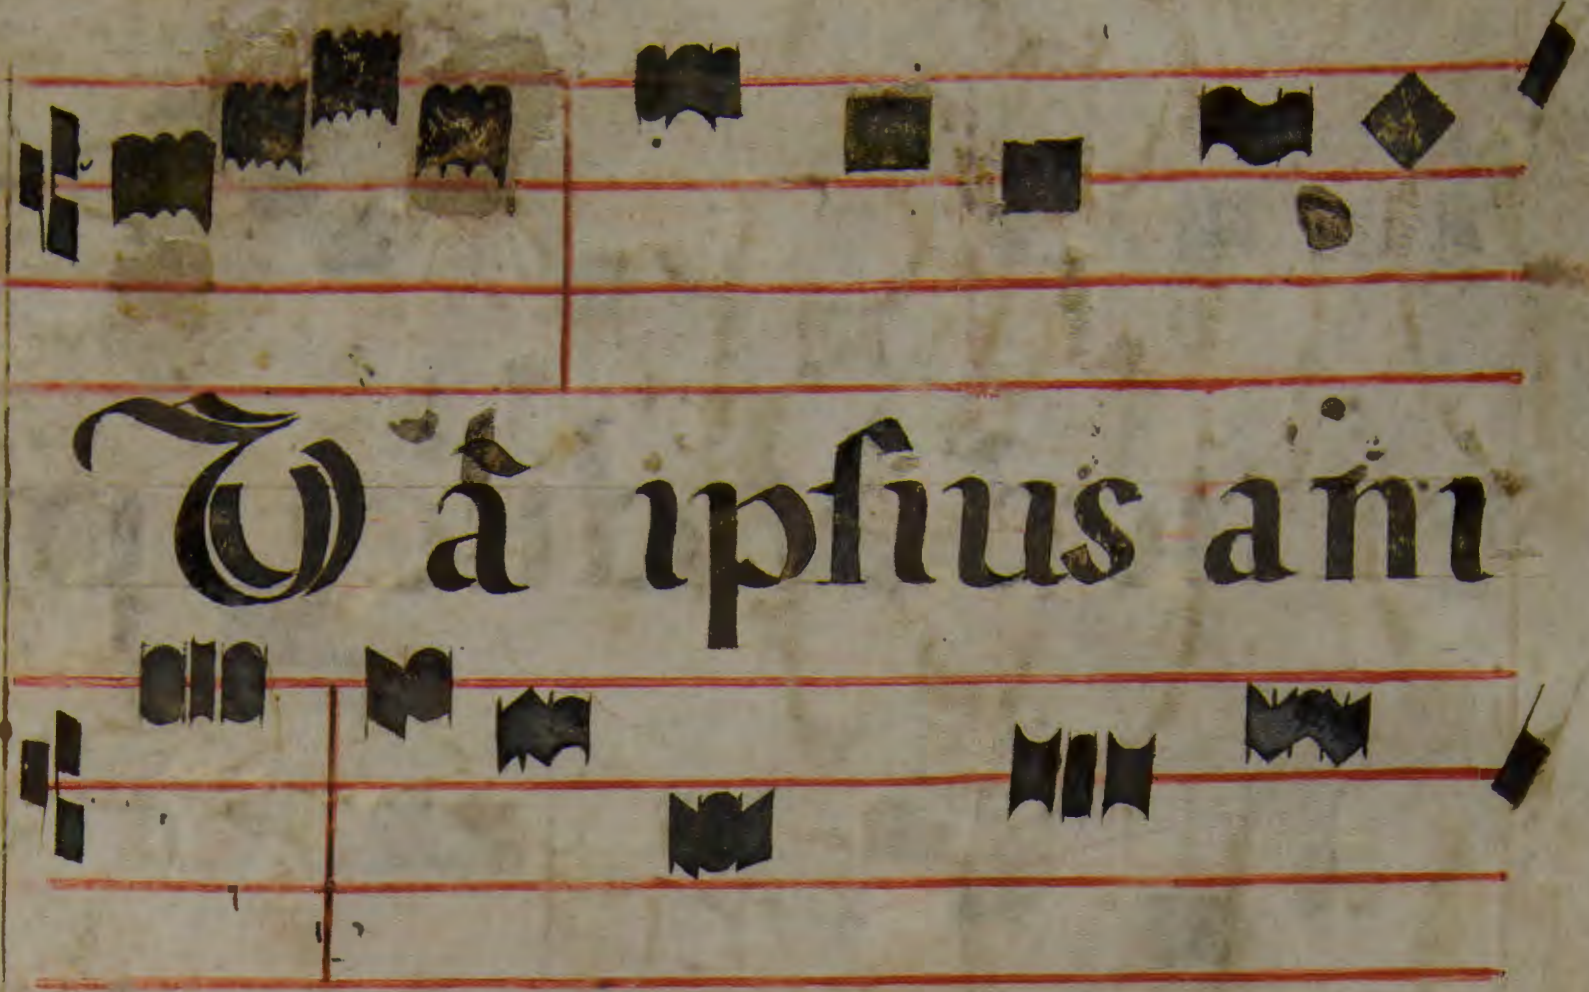

This block contains the third system of musical notation. It features a four-line staff with square neumes. A clef-like symbol is visible at the beginning. The notation includes a vertical bar line. The neumes are arranged in a sequence that follows the text.

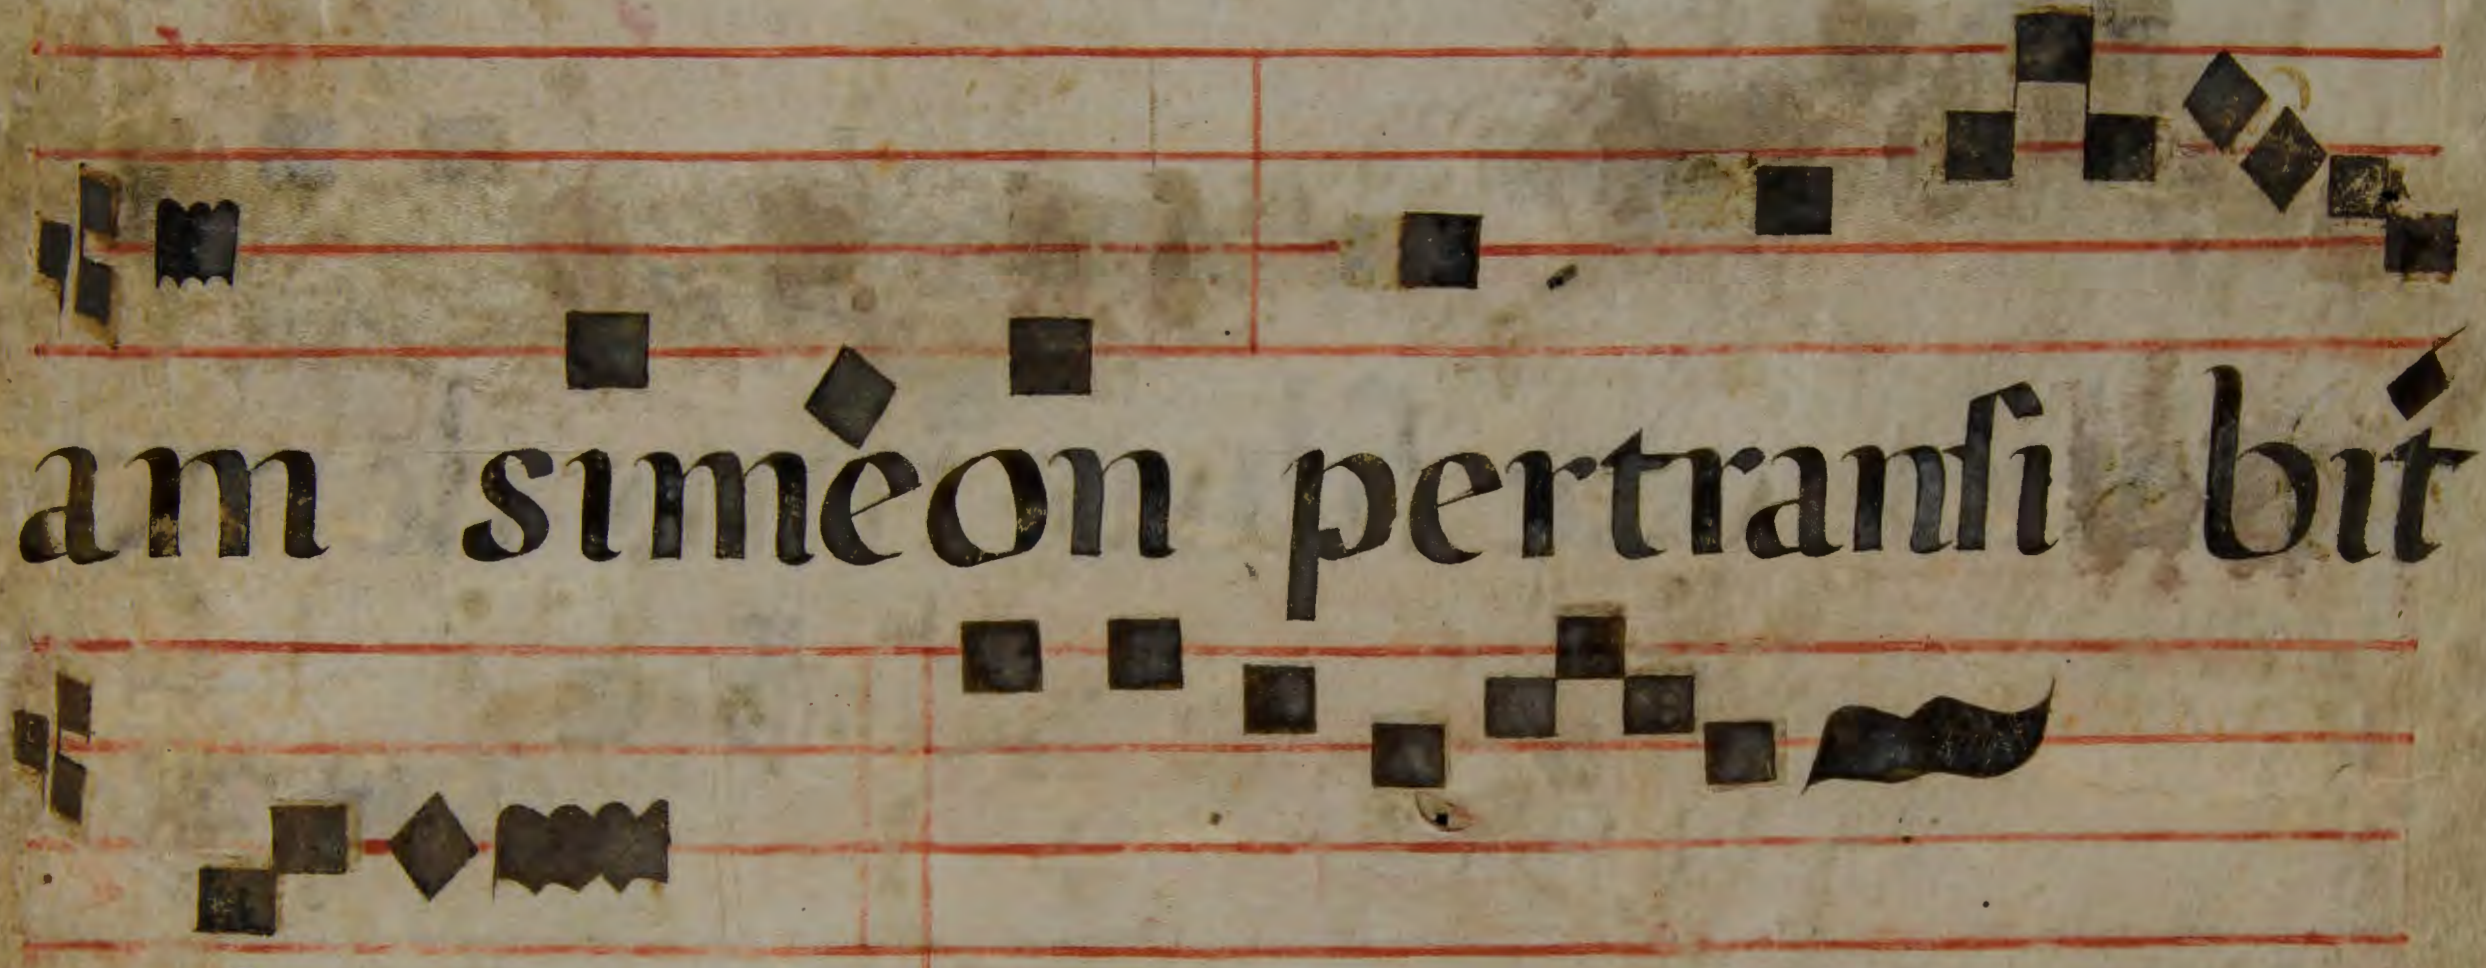

This block contains several empty musical staves, each consisting of four horizontal lines. The staves are arranged in a vertical column and are currently blank.
