

London 30th March 1815

Dear Sir

In consequence of a little advance in price of Rum, we have endeavoured to sell yours & the Julius one of which you wished to be sent to you - We are sorry to inform you their quality is very indifferent - indeed our Broker cannot recommend even the very best for Private Use - under these circumstances before we forward it. We wish to have your further directions. The whole Six Punchons are 5^g 0^c under Proof - If we can get the Price we expect [Four Shillings & Gallon]. We will sell them conditionally - One to be reserved for Private Use or not as you may advise
- three weeks ago they would not have sold for 3^g 3^c - We remain with regard

Dear Sir your most obed^t. Hble. Serv^t

Gentlemen

I was duly favoured wth your letter of the 30th ult. & of information respecting the inferior quality of the Rum sent for me by the Delicias is of a piece with the late Conduct of L^o. Rowley Agents at St^o J^o J^o It was always intended the Rum should be of the very best quality made on the Estate & not of an inferior Sort - It was for private Consumption and never intended for Sale - The Agents served me in a similar way the two preceding times of their sending the Rum which makes it highly proper that Lord R^o sh^d be informed of their Conduct - if you will do me [at my request] the favor to represent it to his Lordship I shall think myself obliged as I will save me the trouble of intruding on his Time - As bad as the Rum is represented to be - I beg you will be so good to choose me out ~~the best~~ a Cask of the best quality and send it when an opportunity suits by Sam^l D^oys Newmarket wagon which set out from the Vine Inn. Berhops gate St^o every Thursday at 2 o'clock P.M. The Remainder I shall be obliged to you to dispose of for me & being convinced you will do the best for me in if power - L^o R^o's Rent is now due - I therefore seize this opportunity to request you to lend it as usual - I have omitted to notice the contents of of L^d's letter which you so obligingly forwarded to me some time ago - as I waited in hopes his Lordship w^d en this, have been able to have forwarded a more correct state of the buildings on my Estate If his Lordships Agents there, deceive him as much in other respects as in their representation of my Property he will deserve to be punish'd I have the Honor to be Gentlemen
