The book cover features a dark, possibly black or dark green, textured material. A wide, decorative border in a light brown or tan color runs around the perimeter. This border is composed of a repeating geometric pattern of small triangles. In the center of the cover, there is a large, ornate, light-colored rectangular label. Above and below this label are intricate, symmetrical decorative designs. These designs include a central diamond shape with internal geometric patterns, flanked by vertical lines and topped and bottomed with stylized, leaf-like or floral motifs. The overall aesthetic is that of a classic, possibly early 20th-century, library book cover.
