Dear Wife

I write these few lines to let you know that I am at the Hospital
 Washington D. C. I am wounded in the right wrist. My Health is fustiate at present. The reason I didnt answer your letter I was wounded the same night. I received your letter, I was wounded last Tuesday night. Between 11 & 12 o'clock at night, at the Baltimore Cross road, the next morning the Brigade moved. I was fetch in a anrolance to yocktown from there ~~to~~ ^{took} the Boat: and came to this place; we have a fine quartus here; all the wounded is well care for and plenty to eat drink and plenty wear; the weather here is very Bad. ^{is} rain for the last 3 day; there is a lady: nusses. There in every word for ⁱⁿ in word.

I havent no more to say, at present I will try to do better next time;

I remain yours
 True Husband
