Commodore Peary's Lecture.

A fitting close to the best interscholastic day Hamilton ever had was Mr. Peary's address at the Hall of Commons in the evening. Every man attended and the floor was an imposing sight with its two hundred students and equal number of visitors. Prof. Saunders had placed his lantern in the center of the Hall, and notwithstanding the Clinton Electric Light Co., was able to exhibit the various views with which Mr. Peary illustrated his talk.

A general feeling of surprise was evident throughout the audience when Dr. Stryker introduced a dark complexioned, erect, young-looking man as Commander Peary. It was the general idea that this noted explorer was an elderly man who showed the terrible hardships which he had experienced.

The lecture began with a comprehensive explanation of the geography of the Arctic regions and a discussion of the various routes. In this connection Mr. Peary spoke of his own disappointments but showed his audience that he believed his next attempt would be successful, because his previous apparent failures had put into his hands a vast amount of information. Then too he is the only man who uses the Esquimaux, and this gives him a great advantage over other explorers. Now followed a careful description of the routes, equipment, and difficulties connected with Arctic explorations. Mr. Peary said that he was sent out by the Arctic Exploration Association of which Mr. H. H. Benedict, '69, is a member. Before concluding his lecture Mr. Peary dwell at some length on the charm which the Arctic regions threw over one who had visited these vast silent regions. To one who has once wandered over these vast fields of ice, the desire to revisit continually returns.

The lecture was highly instructive and interesting. Mr. Peary gave his audience a wide view of these snowbound regions by his many pictures. Then too, his explanation of what the pole was and of what advantage its discovery would be to science presented Arctic exploration in a new light to the audience.

When Mr. Peary had finished light refreshments were served and the college settled down to a good rousing time. Mintz, '01, Van Allen, '02, and Campbell, '02, were on hand to help things along. Of course the college insisted in hearing from them. Strickland and Ehret proved their funmaking ability once again.

With several college yells and finally Carrissima the crowd broke up, and one more interscholastic day was history.

Bring in Your Suits.

A notice has been posted on the bulletin board during the past week asking for the return of all football suits which need washing. This method has been adopted rather than that of visiting every man who may have a suit and asking him for his equipment. The reason for this is that all the suits, especially the new ones, may not need washing, and in this case there is no use of making a useless collection. Furthermore, some of the fellows have suits which they wish to keep, and if all these were collected there would undoubtedly be some which would not find their way back to their owners. Therefore it was thought best to ask the fellows to bring their suits to the gym., or to speak to the manager or assistant manager.

THE MANAGEMENT.

"The Hamiltonian."

Much to the sorrow of the editors of The Hamiltonian they were unable to get the book out for Interscholastic Day, as they had hoped. There were delays, in making cuts and obtaining pictures, which could not be foreseen and avoided. However, the book will be out next week, which will be but a few days later than the date of publication last year.

Hamilton vs. Union.

Hamilton played a return game of baseball with Union last Friday afternoon, and again she lost by a small score and in a evenly contested game. Hamilton should have won, but costly errors gave Union a lead which, despite the best efforts of the Buff and Blue, could not be overcome. The game in some respects was like that played with Hobart, especially the hitting, which was hard. However, as a game of baseball it was far more interesting.

Mahar led off for Union with a single to left field. Hagar flied out to Sherman and Goff hit out a home run, scoring Mahar. Bradley was caught at first and Davis struck out.

In Hamilton's part of the first inning Stiles struck out, LeMunyan got a base on balls, and Farrell struck out. Ferris then came to bat and lined out his second home run of the season, bringing in LeMunyan. Bramley hit and stole second, but Sherman struck out, retiring the side. Score 2-2.

In the second inning Rider took three bases on a hit to Ferris, Robinson was put out at first, and Sawyer hit to Judd, who threw home too late to catch Rider. Harvey struck out. Mahar got two bases on an error by Stiles, and Sawyer went to third. Hagar made a clean two-base hit, scoring Harvey and Mahar. Goff did likewise, bringing in Hagar. Bradley reached first, but Davis retired the side.

For Hamilton, an error by Goff, a bunt by Judd and a sacrifice by Soper scored Nixon and left Judd on second. Stiles flied out. Mahar gave three bases on balls, forcing in Judd and filling the bases, but Bramley struck out.

In the third, for Union, Rider was hit by a pitched ball, Robinson, Mahar and Hagar made singles and Goff lined out a three-bagger. These, with a passed ball by Sherman, netted Union four more runs.

For Hamilton, hits by Sherman, Nixon and Soper brought in two runs, making the score 10-6, with Union still in the lead.

In the fourth, Davis reached first on a wild throw by Nixon and second on a passed ball by Judd. Rider was hit by a pitched ball and went to second on Robinson's grounder. Both scored on a two-base hit by Sawyer. Hamilton failed to score in her half, leaving the score 12-6.

In the fifth Hagar reached first on an error by Soper and Goff was safe on Bramley's error. Hagar came in on a two-base hit by Davis and Goff on a hit by Rider.

For Hamilton, Farrell was hit by a pitched ball and came in on a three-base hit by Bramley. Score 14-7.

Union did not score in the sixth. For Hamilton, Soper, Stiles and LeMunyan made safe hits. Farrell drew a base on balls, Bramley and Sherman hit safe. Before the third man was out five men had crossed the plate and the score was 14-12.

In the eighth Bradley reached first on a hit, took third on a passed ball and came in on a hit by Hagar. This was the last score of the game. Hamilton had two men on bases in the ninth, but neither was able to score.

Certificate of Athletic Character.

LIFE prints in full the certificate which is now demanded, properly filled out and signed, of every athlete competing in any league contest.

ARTICLE X.

Eligibility—No person shall be allowed to play on any team who is not an amateur athlete and a bona fide student of a college or university represented on the advisory board. A bona fide student is defined as one pursuing a regular course leading to a degree, or any regularly entered student taking at least twelve hours per week. Also, no student shall play on any team who has more than two term conditions.

College.

I, the undersigned, after careful inquiry, do hereby certify, that Mr. _____

fulfills in all respects the requirements of the N. Y. S. I. A. U. in regard to eligibility as an athlete, as stated in articles IV and X of the constitution of the above mentioned organization.

Office _____

To be signed by President of college, Dean of the faculty, chairman of the faculty athletic committee or the President of athletic association, if he be a member of the faculty.

ARTICLE IV.

Definition—An amateur is a person who has never competed in an open competition, or for money, or under a false name; or with a professional for a prize; or with a professional where gate money is charged; nor has ever at any time taught, pursued or assisted at athletic exercises for money, or for any valuable consideration. But nothing in this definition shall be construed to prohibit the competition between amateurs for medals, cups or other prizes than money. And it is hereby expressly declared that this definition is not retroactive.

To prevent any misunderstanding in reading the above, the Union draws attention to the following explanations and adjudications:

An athlete has forfeited his right to compete as an amateur in any particular branch of athletics, and has hereby become a professional, by—

(a) Ever having competed in an open competition, i. e., a competition the entries to which are open to all, irrespective as to whether the competitors are amateurs or professionals, and whether such competition be for a prize or not, in any athletic exercise.

(b) Ever having competed for money in any athletic exercise.

(c) Ever having competed under a false name in any athletic exercise.

(d) Ever having knowingly competed with a professional for a prize, or where gate money is charged, in any athletic exercise.

(e) Ever having taught or pursued as a means of livelihood any athletic exercise.

(f) Ever having directly or indirectly accepted or received remuneration for engaging in any athletic exercise.

An athlete shall hereafter forfeit his right to compete as an amateur, and shall thereby become a professional, if, at any time after the foregoing definition shall take effect, he shall:

(1) Directly or indirectly receive payment for training or coaching any other person in any athletic exercise.

(2) Directly or indirectly receive payment for services personally rendered in teaching any athletic exercise.

(3) Directly or indirectly receive payment for services rendered as referee, judge, umpire, scorer, manager, director, or in any other capacity at any other professional exhibition or contest of any athletic exercise whatsoever.

Note—Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the acceptance by an amateur of his necessary traveling expenses incurred as referee, judge, umpire, scorer, or starter, in going to and from the place of any amateur contest.

(4) Directly or indirectly run, manage or direct, for prospective profit, any professional exhibition or contest.

An amateur shall not forfeit his right to compete as an amateur, and shall not become a professional by

(a) Receiving compensation for services rendered as ticket taker or ticket seller at any contest or exhibition of amateur athletics.

(b) Receiving compensation for services personally rendered as secretary, treasurer, manager or superintendent of any athletic club.

CONKLIN MANN.

THE college body realizes that to Mr. Rogers of Utica it owes much. The last benefit received from his hands was the lecture given by Commander Peary Saturday night in the Commons. It was without doubt the most instructive and interesting talk that the college, as a whole, has had the privilege of hearing on the Hill for some time. And best of all, we were able to share our gift with the many visitors who were with us for the day.

TODAY'S TRACK MEET.

Today Colgate comes to Hamilton and Hamilton College should, in a body, meet her on Steuben Field. So far this season the fellows have not given track athletics the support that they deserve. At the interclass meet only one-third of college was present. This will not do. Every man is needed this afternoon, and no one should shirk his duty. Give the track team the same support that the baseball team received during the Union game. Let's get our enthusiasm up to the sticking point this afternoon and hold it there till after the Colgate baseball game Tuesday.

IMPORTANCE OF COMMONS.

It is strange how quickly in our course of living we adopt new things and then wonder how we ever got along without them. After the entertainment of last Saturday evening who could help thinking what an important place the Hall of Commons has taken in the life of this College. The opportunity it affords for getting together the whole college for social enjoyment and for the entertainment of a company of prospective Freshmen could never have been appreciated when no such building existed. Even though at present only a small portion of the college body enjoy the privilege of eating there regularly, certainly everybody can feel its value from the three or four public functions that have been held there. The alumni banquet of last June gave to those who have left us a conception of what this building means to the College. At this time we cannot but mention these facts and express again our gratitude to those whose generosity made all our new pleasures possible. Surely they builded better than they knew. When they think of the numbers who in after years will find pleasure there, and of the volume of thanks which will go up from that throng, they surely must appreciate what a favor they have conferred upon the alumnus they love so well.

Prize Speaking Contest.

The fifth annual interacademic prize speaking contest was held in the chapel last Saturday noon, May 14. A large crowd of students and visitors gathered to hear a very creditable exhibition. The program was as follows:

1. Rome Free Academy, Perry M. Armstrong.
2. Binghamton High School, Robert W. Clark.
3. Syracuse High School, Robert J. Cooney.
4. Troy Academy, D. F. Dunn.
5. Oxford Academy, Frank G. Dunn.
6. Albion High School, J. Sawyer Fitch.
7. Springville High School, Edward D. Fox.
8. Ithaca High School, Hurlbut Jacoby.
9. Dansville High School, Dorr C. Price.
10. Watervliet High School, James Waters.
11. Ogdensburg Free Academy, Stillman Westbrook.
12. Masten Park High School, J. H. Willoughby.

The contest was close and interesting. While some of the speakers were not drilled in the Hamilton style of speaking they were nevertheless good. Opportunity was given to compare entirely different styles of speaking, and surely none who heard could fail to see that the best appearances were those which were in accordance with the principles taught here at Hamilton. One pleasing feature of the exhibition was the absence of time-worn declamations. The selections were all new and interesting. The awards seemed to be satisfactory. First place was given to Stillman F. Westbrook of Ogdensburg Free Academy, second to Dorr C. Price of the Dansville High School.

The Interscholastic Meet.

On Saturday afternoon, with twelve Preparatory and High Schools competing, Hamilton held her fourth interscholastic field meet on Steuben Field. It was by far the record breaker both in attendance and entries. The committee in charge should be congratulated for their thorough and earnest work. Although the track and field was not in the best of condition, three new records were established which will no doubt stand for some time to come. The first record broken was in the 120 yard hurdle, when Brownell, of Potsdam, clipped 1 and 3-5 seconds from the previous record. In the shot put Sherman, of Mt. Vernon, had everything his own way. With apparent ease he set a new goal with a put of 44 feet 1 inch. Wood, of Potsdam, easily beat out his competitors in the 220 yard dash and lowered the former record by 3-5 of a second.

Although Potsdam sent but three men to compete, the Normal School representatives easily took first place in the contest with a total of thirty-three points, Syracuse High School came second with 25 1-2 points, and Gouverneur a close third with 23 points. The rest of the counts were divided about equally between the other nine teams.

ORDER OF EVENTS.

100-Yard Dash—First, Wood, Potsdam; second, Hartley, Gouverneur; third, Mackinnon, Clinton. Time, 10 3-5 sec.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

On May 22nd H. Roswell Bates, '95, of New York city, will speak at the 5 o'clock meeting in Silliman Hall. Mr. Bates is engaged in settlement work in the metropolis. Those who have heard him, declare that his description of this work is fascinating. Mr. Bates himself is of the type of college man that appeals to the admirers of the strong, keen, and vigorous man.

Begin to agitate the Northfield Conference. The aim is to send a delegation of ten men from Hamilton.

At the presidents' eastern conference, held at Buffalo immediately following the International Conference, about a hundred presidents, general secretaries and chairmen of committees from the college associations of the eastern states and Canada were represented. It was a splendid and representative gathering of college men which sat in conference with Mr. John R. Mott and his associate secretaries. Papers and reports were read on various problems and achievements in the college fields. An open parliament was held, at which these problems were freely discussed. Powerful addresses were made by the national-foreign Y. M. C. A. secretaries of Japan, China and India. The conference was invaluable for opportunity to broaden friendship and for the broad vision of the purposes and actual accomplishments of the college associations.

A Yale Alumni Association has been organized in Texas with a membership of twenty-five. Each man traveled nearly 200 miles to attend the first meeting.

Local Notes.

—P. H. Judd, '04, spent last Sunday in New York.

—Dr. Root celebrated his 66th birthday last Wednesday.

—MacIntyre was in Johnstown Monday visiting his parents.

—Hosmer, '07, is back in college after an absence of one term.

—The Junior Prize Stab last Wednesday was very interesting.

—The Interscholastic Day was a great success, and ought to bear fruit.

—The D. K. E. fraternity entertained informally on Wednesday evening.

—Warburton, '06, attended the Y. M. C. A. convention in Buffalo last week.

—Hutton, '04, has been confined to his room for the past week with tonsillitis.

—Bastian, '04, has had as his guest for the last week his brother, Carl Bastian.

—The chess management has received a challenge from Rochester for May 28.

—The Alpha Delta Phi defeated the Sigma Phi in baseball Wednesday by a score of 23-12.

—A number of the fellows have been invited to a dance at the Balliol School in Utica this evening.

—The four most dreaded men in Hamilton College today are Day, Paton, Drummond and Maynard.

—Bloyer, '06, is suffering from a sprained ankle, received in the interfraternity game Wednesday.

—The Colgate Freshmen met the Hamilton Freshmen in an exciting game of ball on Thursday. Score, 8-7, in favor of Hamilton.

—The declamation which took first prize in the interscholastic contest was one written by Dr. Stryker when he was a Freshman.

—The field and track meet with Colgate is held this afternoon on the campus. No fellow needs to be told where he is expected to be.

—The College owes Hon. Charles B. Rogers a vote of thanks for his securing Commander Peary for the lecture of last Saturday evening.

—Dickinson has returned from a trip to Madison, Wis., at which place the annual convention of the Psi Upsilon fraternity was recently held.

—The straightaway 220-yard track has been widened several feet this spring. It is now possible to run six men in the sprints and five in the hurdles.

—Due to a scarcity of funds in the treasury of the Athletic Association of Union the track meet, which was to have been held next Saturday, has been cancelled.

—There will be a game of ball next Friday between the Alpha Deltas and Theta Deltas. At present the Alpha Deltas show signs of being the champions among the fraternities.

—Among the alumni back for interscholastic day were Palmer, '81, Carver, '98, Welsh, '99, Humeston, '99, Keogh, '01, Mintz, '01, Van Allen, '02, Grant, '03, and Maxwell, '03.

—The Freshmen are to be congratulated on the formation of a baseball team which really plays games. The game with Colgate Freshmen on Thursday was a good start.

—We shall never be able to eliminate peculiarities in our buildings. The windows which are being installed in Carnegie put the Commons and Chemical Lab. far in the shade.

—The work on the new dormitory is going fast. The corner-stone was laid Tuesday. Three windows were placed in time to show our guests what they were going to be. A great deal of the pointing and plastering has been done and the work of panelling has begun.

Gifts amounting to $15,000 have been received by New York University during the past three weeks.

In the present session of Congress there are seventeen former students of the University of Michigan.

The financial returns from "Alice in Anotherland," the play produced by the Mask and Whig Club of the University of Pennsylvania during Easter week, amounted to nearly $25,000, the largest sum ever made by the club.

Buffalo Y. M. C. A. Convention.

Important questions and keen men to solve them, characterized the 35th convention of the International Y. M. C. A. of North America recently held in Buffalo.

The Convention opened on the morning of May 11th with an hour of devotional service, followed in the afternoon by a business session in which the Honorable Henry B. F. McFarland, President of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, was chosen president of the convention. And it was to his kind, gentlemanly, yet firm conduct of the business of the convention, that its success and harmony were largely due.

On Wednesday evening a complimentary banquet was given the delegates at Convention Hall. The 1300 men at the tables were graciously served by the ladies of twenty-five of Buffalo's churches. After the meal, James G. Cannon, President of the 4th National Bank of New York City, took charge of the program, which consisted of speeches on the railroad work, the army and navy work, the boys' department and the students' department, and an address by the Rev. C. A. Barbour, D. D., of Rochester, on the relation of the Association to the religious life of men.

Nearly all of the day sessions of Thursday and Friday were taken up with an animated discussion of the report of the Committee of Twenty-one, which had been appointed at the last convention to investigate and report on the relation between the International Committee and the State and Local organizations. This committee differed in their views and conclusions and therefore two reports were submitted, a majority and a minority report. The former favored the complete jurisdiction of the International Committee over all departments of Association work, and finally won the fight.

On Saturday morning the business of the convention was concluded, and in the afternoon the delegates visited Niagara Falls.

All the evening sessions were held at Convention Hall, which has a seating capacity of thirty-five hundred. As these meetings were addressed by men of great spiritual power, such as J. Campbell Morgan, Robert Speer and John R. Mott, the hall was taxed to its utmost. Each evening, in addition to the principal address, the various departments of association effort were presented by leaders in the work.

At 3:30 on Sunday afternoon a great mass meeting was held for men with an address by Fred B. Smith, of New York City. Four or five thousand men attended this meeting, and several thousand more were turned away for the lack of room. As a result of this meeting over three hundred men signified their intention to live a Christian life.

The closing session of the convention was held on Sunday evening, at which time the subject of foreign missions was presented. Brockman, of China, and Fisher, of Japan, were among the principal speakers of this meeting. Before the meeting closed between $4,000 and $5,000 was raised to help defray the expenses of students who were going to the foreign field.
