The undergraduate body and faculty of Colgate University will be on the Hill today, for the most important athletic event of our entire College year, the Colgate-Hamilton game. This event is to Colgate and Hamilton, what the Army-Navy game is to the military and naval undergraduates, and what the Yale-Harvard game is to those two universities.

We have gone down before Cornell and Williams this year in spite of the team's plucky fight, but the memory of those defeats will be blotted out if Hamilton wins today.

The Colgate undergraduate body leaves Hamilton this morning in special cars. The Colgate students have been out every day this week watching the practice and cheering the men. They come to Steuben Field today confident of victory. Little can be ascertained by comparing scores, yet the following comparison surely shows Colgate to be exceptionally strong. To beat this team will require every ounce of strength, grit, and energy we have.

Comparative scores:—

Colgate	29	St. Lawrence	0
Hamilton	29	St. Lawrence	0
Colgate	38	Hobart	0
Hamilton	17	Hobart	0
Colgate	6	Williams	0

The Wednesday Recital.

The second of the series of Wednesday organ recitals took place this week. The audience was larger than that of a week ago, and there were many present aside from the men on the Hill. The music was thoroughly enjoyed, inasmuch that nobody moved at the close of the last selection. The program follows:

1. Handel Sonata in F major.
2. Swedish Dances.
3. Allegro. Guilmant
4. Minuet. Mozart
5. Preislied. Wagner
6. Canzana. Bach

Among the more noticeable numbers, the third movement of the Sonata attracted attention. Its slow dignity and feeling were particularly well-rendered. The Mozart Minuet was by far the most difficult composition on the program. It is unusual in movement and theme, but Prof. Saunders and Mr. Clark interpreted it in a manner leaving nothing to be desired. Both organ selections were fine. The time in Guilmant's "Allegro" is difficult. Bach's "Canzana" was magnificently rendered and was much appreciated. The next recital is on November 16th. Although Prof. Saunders requested, through LIFE and verbally, that there be no applause after the selections, some were careless enough to ignore his wish. He again makes the request and sincerely hopes it will be heeded.

The program for Wednesday, Nov. 16, 1904, is as follows:

1. a Albumblatt, Greig
b Vaterlandisches Lied.
c Arietta.
2. Aria, Durante
Violin.
3. Mozart Sonata.
a Allegro.
b Minuetto. Violin.
4. Melodie in E. Rachmaninoff
5. Aria. Bach
Violin.
6. Gavotte. Raineau
Violin.

Hamilton 28, Rochester 6.

It was a sorely disappointed crowd of students that journeyed back to the Flower City last Saturday night. Rochester expected to win, and in a way it looked as though their hopes had some foundation. They had put up a strong game against Cornell, Union, New York University and Colgate, but they had reckoned without their host when they came to Clinton.

The weather was not at all favorable either for the game or the gate, being wet and cold. The ground was covered with a thin film of slippery mud that favored Rochester's somewhat heavier line and heavier backs. The crowd was fairly large and quite enthusiastic. The yelling, cheering and singing were far better than at any game this fall and presaged well for the Colgate game. There was a little disturbance in the bleachers at times that might easily have been construed as discourteous to the officials and visiting team. This ought to stop, whatever may have been its real import.

Hamilton's offence was fast and hard. The interference was frequently very good, especially on formation plays around the end. The defence was in general very fair, but when pitted against Rochester's fierce line bucking proved unable to check it. That brace of Rochester's was superb, their offence, hard line bucking and formation plays, varied with beautifully worked delayed passes and hurdling, was irresistible and pounded our tackles for just about a hundred yards with the ball in hand.

The showing of the substitutes was particularly pleasing and showed that we won't have to worry very much about our second line of players. Rochester's sub halfbacks too played a better game than the men whose places they took. Holley, Sherman, Barrows, Roosa and Schwartz all played well up to the standard when they got in the game.

Our first touchdown came quickly, just a minute and ten seconds. Sicard kicked to Steere who dropped the ball when tackled on the 20-yard line. LeMunyan made 4 yards along the side and Bramley sprinted around the end for a touchdown from which he kicked the goal.

Sicard kicked to Steere who was stopped on the 25-yard line. Langslow tried right end for a loss, and Taggart punted 35 yards to Bramley who came back 10 yards. Line bucking carried the ball rapidly towards Rochester's goal, Mann and Speh aiding materially in the advance by a couple of 10 and 12 yard gains respectively through tackle. Haggerson went over for the second score from the 4-yard line after six minutes and 10 seconds of play. Bramley kicked the goal. Score 12-0.

Taggart kicked for Rochester. Bramley came back to the 30-yard line and on the first line-up ran the end for 25 yards. Bramley was hurt and Taggart graciously gave time over the allowance. Hamilton failing to gain Bramley punted 35 yards to Rochester's 20-yard line. Four line plunges netted the visitors 15 yards. Jessop ran down the sideline for 15 yards, but Rochester soon fumbled. Speh, Swetman, Mann and Haggerson made an aggregate of 30 yards in half a dozen line plunges. Bramley tried the quarterback kick but the ball went to Rochester. Jessop made a brace of ten yard runs and assisted by Steere, Pryor and Lanslow brought the ball to Hamilton's 25-yard line. Here Holley went in for Bramley. Sicard spilled Langslow 5 yards behind the line. Taggart tried the quarterback kick but Holley received the leather and sent Speh outside of tackle for 8 yards. On a shift play LeMunyan, protected by excellent interference, ran 85 yards for a touchdown. Holley kicked the goal. Score 18-0.

Sicard kicked again to Taggart on the 20-yard line. Rochester was forced to punt. Taggart sent the pigskin 35 yards and Holley ran back 15 yards. Holley punted 30 yards to Taggart who was dropped in his tracks close to Rochester's line. On a fake punt Langslow ran down the sideline 20 yards. On a double pass he ran across the field and gained 10 yards before he was tackled. Rochester tried another double pass but fumbled and Sicard got the ball. Holley and Speh made short gains. Sicard dropped back to the 35-yard line for a drop kick but the timer's whistle blew before the ball was snapped.

Taggart opened the second half by kicking to Holley, who reached the 25-yard line on his way back. Speh then made 2 yards at tackle, Roosa 12 yards around end. Swetman, Mann, Holley and Sherman made short gains. LeMunyan circled Rochester's left end for 55 yards and a touchdown but the ball was brought back as Rochester was not ready to play. Holley got loose on the visitors' right end but was forced out of bounds after running 30 yards. Holley tried the end for 1 yard, and then Roosa ripped off 20 yards to a touchdown. Holley punted out but failed at goal. Score 23-0.

Thompson booted the ball to Goldstein on the 5-yard line. Rochester took a heroic brace and now displayed that attack we had heard about. By hard steady plunges through the tackles, varied now and then by hurdling and delayed passes, Rochester forced the Buff and Blue down the field by gains varying from two to six yards. Slowly but persistently they worked their way the whole length of the field, Steere, Jessop, Priest and Pryor doing most of the work. Hamilton made a stand on her 2-yard line but Steere was forced over the chalk line and Taggart kicked the goal. Score 23-6. Colgate's corps was greatly pleased at this.

Taggart kicked to Holley who ran back 25 yards. LeMunyan was thrown for a loss and Holley punted 35 yards to Rochester's 50-yard line. Hamilton immediately secured the ball, Barrows made 4 yards at tackle, LeMunyan 8 yards around end. Roosa 7 yards outside of tackle, Speh 3 at center. Haggerson 15 yards outside of tackle, LeMunyan 15 yards more at end, Sherman 20 yards to the 4-yard line, and Mann hit up Rochester's line for the last touchdown, Holley failing at goal. Score 28-6.

Thompson kicked to Steere on the 20-yard line. Rochester worked the ball slowly back to the center of the field, when time was called.

Towards the end of the half both teams substituted liberally and it was almost too dark to see the ball when play ceased.

The line-up follows:

Hamilton 28.	Rochester 6.
	Center.
	Reynolds.
	Right guard.
	Gilbert.
	Right tackle.
	Pryor.
	Right end.

	Right halfback.
	Bennett-Roosa-Stryker,
	Langslow-Goldstein.

	Referee—Baxter, of Hobart. Umpire
	—Oatley, of Vermont. Linesman—Bottger, of Princeton. Assistant linesman—
	MacIntyre, of Hamilton, and O'Conner, of Rochester.
	Time of Halves—30 and 25 minutes.

The Bonfire.

The rousing good time we had around the bonfire last week Friday night will not soon be forgotten by those who were there. Shortly after eight o'clock the fellows gathered, and the material collected by the Freshmen was lighted. Everybody was in the best of spirits and the evening was spent in singing, yelling and speech-making.

Dr. Wood, Speh, Humphrey and MacIntyre made speeches; the first telling of the resignation of Schwab and the nomination of Humphrey to take his place. Each one particularly mentioned the benefit of such gatherings and the enthusiasm which was aroused, not only in the college body, but especially in the team. After the fire burned low the crowd went to West College and called for Mr. Turner. The coach came out after some urging. His little speech was just the thing for the occasion, and he was applauded to the echo.

Much credit is due the Freshmen for their promptness in gathering material for the bonfire and for the cider which they furnished.

A telescope recently purchased in England, has been received at the Harvard observatory. The instrument weighs about nineteen tons. The reflecting lens is six inches thick and weighs with its cell about a ton. The focal length is 28½ feet. This gives an image upon a scale of six inches for a degree.

COLLEGE ENTHUSIASM.

To the casual observer the College bonfire of a week ago last night was nothing more than an opportunity for jollification and for expression of good fellowship. When asked what it was for, the ready answer comes tumbling out, oh, to arouse enthusiasm and college spirit for football. And most emphatically do we believe that the outcome of the Rochester game was due to our Indian pow-wow the night before.

But the significance of such a bonfire is characterized by great and more permanent results than the winning of a football game. It has exerted a vital influence on the life of the College. That one bonfire has done more to weld the two hundred individuals of this College into a compact unit than any former single force or combination of forces. Before that roaring fire two hundred hearts were melted and moulded into one great heart. The cider, and the singing, and the cheering, and the speechmaking, loosed the bonds that fettered two hundred spirits, and one mighty spirit encircled the flames. Call it poetic fancy if you will, yet this "great heart" and "mighty spirit" of the College are veritable realities.

The College bonfire and its associations marks the latest bond of college unity. And these bonds have been wound around the College with noticeable rapidity in the last year or two. Commons, football dinners, gym. shows, Carnegie, bleachers and bonfires.

Our salvation is in our unity. United we may stand even against great odds, but divided we inevitably fall. The famous "Princeton spirit" is what has enabled Princeton to hold her own against old Eli and the Crimson.

Remember last year at Colgate! Remember two years ago on our own field! Remember that Colgate has never beaten us on our own field! Remember the Rochester score of last Saturday! Then let's up and fight today. "Colgata delenda est." And the indomitable "Hamilton spirit" can do it.

FOR the last two years Hamilton has given an all-around successful "gym." show in Utica, and now the question of the advisability of such a production for next term confronts us. Would it be practical to give a "gym." show in Utica this winter? The concensus of opinion among the students seems to answer in the negative. Without Ehret and Strickland we would be lamentably weak in just that part of the show which the people like best. And as to the rest of the performance it would be practically the same as it has been for the last two years; and could we draw another Utica audience with this same production sufficiently large to make the repetition of the "gym." show advisable? It seems rather doubtful. However, an indoor athletic contest could be held on the Hill as in former years, and "Uncle" John will probably make arrangements for such a contest if it is decided not to give the show in Utica.

Advisory Board.

The Advisory Board held a special meeting in Silliman Hall last Friday evening. The meeting was called at the request of the management of basket ball. The schedule being practically completed for that branch of athletics the manager desired to obtain the authority of the Board in arranging a couple of games with Syracuse University. An article which appeared in the last issue of LIFE demonstrated the desirability of renewing relations with that institution. It was moved and carried that the Board recommend the Athletic Association to authorize the basket-ball management to schedule games with this university. This will add considerably to the season's schedule inasmuch as Syracuse has a fast five and will give us a good game.

The Board gave its approval to the schedule as arranged for basket-ball, which includes games with R. P. I., Rochester, Hobart, Colgate, Syracuse, St. Lawrence, Potsdam, Allegheny, U.

F. A. and Waterville Y. M. C. A. The last two will be practice games, coming early in December.

The manager of baseball stated that he was negotiating for games with Union, Rochester, Colgate, Syracuse, Hobart, St. Lawrence, R. P. I., University of Vermont and University of New York.

The colleges under consideration by the tennis management were Syracuse, Colgate, Williams, Cornell and Union.

The resignation of Schwab, '05, as manager of football being accepted, Humphrey, '05, was elected to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the season. This is but the proper reward for the service of the latter in the capacity of acting manager, which position he has held all season.

After some discussion, the management of baseball was authorized to secure a college graduate as coach in that department rather than a professional player.

Senior Debaters.

Wednesday afternoon the Senior class chose four men to represent them in the annual Senior-Junior debate which is to take place next term. The four men are: Speh, Beach, Sullivan and MacIntyre.

Soper Thesis.

The thirteenth award of the Soper Prize Thesis was made yesterday to Frank Cuyler Beach, '05. The subject of the thesis is "The Iron and Steel Industries as Illustrating Protection. This prize was won last year by Robert Russell Wicks, '04.

The University Club.

The following table gives universities and colleges represented in the University Club of New York City by a membership of twenty-five or over: Amherst, 31; Annapolis, 146; Brown, 76; C. C. N. Y., 47; Columbia, 331; Cornell, 31; Dartmouth, 26; Hamilton, 30; Harvard, 641; Princeton, 304; Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, 29; Rutgers, 32; Trinity, 50; Union, 37; University of Pennsylvania, 27; West Point, 88; Williams, 173; Yale, 949; and others 356.

Colgate's line is heavy and their ends are very fast. Castleman, the man who ran a very close second to Clapp, of Yale, in the high hurdles in the Inter-collegiate Meet last fall, joined the team for the Williams and Hamilton games and is playing halfback. Runge, the fullback is playing up to last year's form and will be a menace to the Buff and Blue line.

The only Hamilton man not in perfect shape is Bramley. It will be a great disappointment if Bramley's ankle prevents him from being in the lineup.

Holly, sub-quarter, has shown up strongly and can be relied upon to run the team with credit. Roosa, who has done such good work the last two years, may play. He has been laid up with a broken ankle.

The line-up:—
Hamilton. Colgate.

Hemmens	Left guard.	Aude.
Nellis	Center.	Simmons.
Speh, (Capt.,)	Right guard.	Houseman.
Thompson,	Right tackle.	Thurber.
Sicard,	Right end.	Brooks.
Bramley,	Quarterback.	Greene.
Bennett,	Right half.	Brigham, (Capt.)

Colgate subs—Ford (c), Stowell (r. h.), Risley (q.), Castler, Wales.
Hamilton subs—R. U. Sherman (e.), Thompson (l. g.), White (l. e.), Barrows (l. t.), Stowell (r. h.)

The game will be called at 2:30 sharp. Mr. Evans of Williams will referee, and Mr. Case of Hobart will umpire. Thirty-five minute halves will be played.

All undergraduates are requested to meet in front of the gymnasium at 2:15.

College Notes.

—There will be a meeting of the Glee Club in Silliman Hall on Monday evening at 7 o'clock. Everyone is urged to be present to make the rehearsal a success.

—There was a good sized delegation from Colgate at the Rochester game. Needless to say they backed Rochester and went home poorer and wiser than they came.

—Thursday evening the Mandolin Club held an interesting rehearsal under the direction of Leader Stowell, '05. Two new selections were given a trial. About twenty men reported.

—The class of '07 has challenged the Freshmen to a football game, to be played one week from today on Steuben Field. Swetman is captain and Rynd manager of the Sophomore team.

—The following men from the Junior class have been chosen for the Hamiltonian Board: Drummond, P. Miller, McLean, Benedict, LeMunyan, Bloyer, J. Clark, Edie. At present there seems to be a deadlock in the election of officers.

—Sometimes a word to the wise is sufficient. It has been said that the water in the reservoir is very low. While this is very much to be regretted, there is just one way to keep it from giving out and every man in College must know what that way is. So don't think that the Oriskany is at your disposal every time the water is used.

—If rumor may be trusted, this is the afternoon which decides for many a fellow, whether he will walk or ride up the Hill on the cool winter evenings which are coming. Let us all hope that the livery men may have a prosperous business this year.

—An audience of a hundred and fifty enjoyed the second recital of the series given by Prof. Saunders and John Clark, '07. Too much credit can not be given to Prof. Saunders and Mr. Clark for their thoughtfulness in furnishing the College such a chance to hear good music.

—Tuesday morning the campus resounded with lusty cheers from the rival political clubs. However, all voices united in a yell for our Dean. While we appreciate the fact that Washington has been deprived of a statesman, still we congratulate ourselves that we have a professor of Psychology, Logic and Pedagogics.

—Arrangements have been made by the Sophomore hop committee for a special car to be run to Utica after the dance, Wednesday night. This is a great convenience to our guests and the fellows on the Hill appreciate the committee's efforts. Sophomore hops are always most enjoyable affairs and we trust that this year we may have the pleasure of attending a successful one.

—Articles of today's game will be found on other pages of this issue. We have one plea to make. Let us see College banners on Steuben Field this afternoon. With "Carissima" ringing in their ears and waving masses of blue and buff before their eyes, the members of our team will fight in such a manner that no student of the College will have cause to blush for his 'varsity whether it wins or loses. This is the last battle of the year; make it a strong one, men on the sidelines.

—Wibur Downey, ex-'05, has composed a march and to two-step, "The Promenade," which is dedicated to "Old Hamilton", in the pleasant memory of his college days. The composition is characteristic and contains none of those stereotyped passages, too frequent in dance music, by which you always know "what's coming next". The rhythm and swing throughout will make it well worthy of representing Hamilton. Downey has published it in loyal form with a buff and blue cover, containing a fine halftone of the Gym., Chapel and old South. Copies of "The Promenade" may be obtained from Wright, '05.

—"Nelse" Drummond, '02, has been on the Hill for the past few days. Many old familiar faces are seen about the campus this morning. Every football team that Hamilton has sent out will be represented on the sidelines today. Win or loose, Hamilton may be justly proud of her loyal alumni.

—A few days ago a visitor on the Hill remarked that he thought the beauty of Hamilton's buildings would be improved "in many instances" if ivy or woodbine were trained up the walls. We have witnessed feeble attempts at covering the front of the chapel and the ends of of the "gym." Science Hall can boast of a respectable amount of ivy growing up its sides. But what of South and North and the other buildings—they stand there bare and desolate. No one can ever look at North or South in their present condition and think of anything but two grim, gaunt, white fortresses, no, barns. How different they would look with rich cloaks of green. The dormitories at Union give a much more pleasing sensation to the eye than our own, not that they are better, but because they have an appearance of warmth and of color, which changes them into pleasing buildings. No college of its size in the country can boast of better buildings than Hamilton. We are proud of them, from South and Chapel right through the list to Carnegie. Our dormitories stand, and have always stood, in the front row of American college buildings, but would and could they be improved by the employment of a little time and money in caring for the ivy which the graduating classes would only be too glad to furnish?

Congressman James S. Sherman will address the students at the 4 o'clock meeting Sunday afternoon. Special music will be furnished by the music committee. The whole college is invited to be present.

Last Sunday Prof. Wood conducted the afternoon meeting. It was a very helpful service, though the attendance was not so large as usual. The subject of Prof. Wood's address was "Manly Prayer."

Communion service will be observed next Sunday, Nov. 20, at 4 o'clock in the College chapel. The regular preparatory service will be held the Saturday evening before at 7:30. Those wishing to unite with the College church, should present their letter at the preparatory service.

Among the Colleges.

Princeton has received from an anonymous donor two autograph mss. sermons of Samuel Stanhope Smith, D.D., LL.D., who was graduated from Princeton in the class of 1789, and was her seventh president.

Wm. MacKenzie has presented to the University of Toronto the collection of fossils made by Dr. George E. Mathews, of St. Johns, N. B. The collection contains over 400 specimens, many "type specimens" and many not seen in any other collection.

Williams College has been awarded a gold medal for its exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition. The exhibit consists of photographs of the campus, buildings and town, with a history of the college, schedules, courses, requirements and other facts of interest.

Several new artesian wells have just been added to the water supply of Wellesley College. The water of these wells is found by the State Board of Health to be so pure that it will be possible to dispense with the supply furnished by the town for drinking purposes.

President Eliot and the Corporation of Harvard have determined that admission to athletic contests will be free to all Harvard students as soon as the Stadium is paid for, which, it is expected, will be within three years. By buying a special ticket, a student, at present, can limit the cost of witnessing all baseball and football games and track meets to ten dollars.

Hobart has announced new regulations for "admission and graduation".

The altered curricula will go into effect in Sept., 1905. An important change is the dropping of the course leading to the degree of bachelor of letters. This, of course, does not apply to men already in college, who are pursuing a course, leading to this degree. After this year Hobart will confer only three degrees in course, bachelor of arts, philosophy and science.
