Sophomore Hop.

On Wednesday evening the Sophomore class held their annual dance in Society Hall, Clinton. The affair was a success in every way except financially. The crowd was just comfortable for dancing and the floor was in excellent shape. About thirty-five couples were present and all thoroughly enjoyed the pleasures of the evening. During the intermission the usual program was carried out. After a yell for 1907 by the Seniors and Juniors, with no response from the Freshmen, the Sophomores gave their regular class yell for the upperclassmen and a "Royal Gaboon" for the members of 1908. These were followed by a Buttinsky war-whoop and a D. T. cheer. Bergner's Orchestra of five pieces furnished music and Waters served. The patronesses were Mrs. Stryker, Mrs. Root, Mrs. Shepard, Mrs. White, Mrs. Ibbotson, Mrs. C. H. Smyth, Jr., Mrs. Brandt, Mrs. Fitch, Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. A. P. Saunders. The Hop was in charge of the following committee: E. M. Clarke, Bright, Peck, Barrows, G. C. Clarke, Sprague, Day, Gordon and Rood, chairman. The committee wish to express their thanks to all the men who helped to make the affair a success, and especially to the Freshman delegation who were present.

Theta Delta Chi Entertain.

Tuesday evening the Psi charge of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity held a most enjoyable informal at their charge house. The guests were received by Mrs. W. L. Goodier and Mrs. F. D. Westcott, of Utica; Mrs. Watson, of Westfield; Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. C. T. Ives, of Clinton. Among the guests were Miss Nellis, of Topeka, Kan.; Miss Sarah Babcock, Leonardsville; Miss Bentley, of Boonville; Miss Hodge, of Prospect; Miss Agnes Miller, of Johnstown; Miss Rood and Miss Meyer, of Westfield; Miss Childs, of Utica; Miss Garlock, of Little Falls; Miss Sherwood, of Syracuse; Miss Williams, Miss Washburn and Miss Cauldwell, of Clinton.

Football Dinner.

Tonight every undergraduate in College will have an opportunity to show that he is the right sort of a Hamilton man by coming to the "football dinner" in the Hall of Commons. We are proud of our team, we are proud of the games it won and the fine struggles it put up in the games it lost. So let every undergraduate and all the faculty attend and the fine time everyone had last year is guaranteed to be duplicated. The menu:

	Cream of Tomato
	Clams on the half-shell
	Trout
	Roast Turkey
Saratoga Chips		French Peas
	Vegetable Salad
	Rolls
Ice Cream		Cake
	Black Coffee

The Recital.

A good sized audience attended the violin and organ recital of last Wednesday, although perhaps not as many as if a more definite notice had been given out during the day. The program was interesting and much enjoyed. The Mozart Sonata was the most artistic piece of work on the program, and showed good taste from beginning to end. The next recital, which was planned for Wednesday, will take place on Tuesday, because so many of the students will leave the Hill Wednesday noon to spend Thanksgiving Day at home. As usual the music will commence promptly at five o'clock and last just three-quarters of an hour.

Program for the recital on Tuesday is as follows:

1. Scandinavian Song and Dances.
Violin.
2. Chant sans Paroles. Lemare
3. Beethoven Sonata, No. V.
a Allegro, b Adagio, c Rondo.
Violin.
4. Toccata. Bartlett
5. Loure. Bach
6. Adagio. Bizet
Violin.

The Colgate Game.

The closing game of the season for both colleges was played between the teams of Hamilton and Colgate last Saturday on Steuben Field, before a crowd totaling in the neighborhood of two thousand people. The day was par excellence; the ground was averagely firm and all features conduced to a game sans fene et sans reproche.

Both teams had taxed all surviving energies to expend them on the hope of the result. To supplement and complement these efforts, Colgate en masse trailing half the people of the valley villages and headed by a band with fanfaronade invaded the town and Hill. Hamilton watched the outpouring with an output of her own. The stands, bleachers and sidelines were thronged with beauty, all abrandish with pennants and streamers and rooters bubbling with noise and cheer.

The teams sprinted onto the chessboard at 2:30 sharp, greeted by thunders of cheering. The game, of which a detailed account appears below, was a chronological monstrosity. For thirty minutes the Hamilton team, after making a sharp and sure defeat of Colgate's first onset, kept the fight in hostile territory. After a series of exchanges of punts Colgate was pushed back over the line for a safety, the first score of the game and the only one for Hamilton. The game grew in intensity during this period, varied by aggressive offense on the part of Hamilton, followed by as vigorous and valid defense against the Colgate attack. The game, up to nearly the close of the first half, was spectacular, surprising at unexpected points and junctures and a staggerer to predictions.

But the gritty pluck of Hamilton could not, unbacked by weight, withstand the equal persistence of Colgate, complemented by a skill and tact that was at par, coupled with overwhelming beef and brawn. Hamilton's light backs, after their hard and continuous offensive fight, began to weaken in their penetrating powers and the line began to unbend and crumble under the surges that beat against it. The line in part disintegrated, owing to the injuries to several of the men and the exhaustion of the others. The retirement of Bramley and Sicard effected the unity of the team, though their places were courageously and individually well filled by Holley and Sherman.

As the Hamilton defense weakened the Colgate offense won redoubled might and, to the interaction of these circumstances under the length of halves, is to be ascribed the accumulated score.

As to the game, there is but little beside in the nature of general comment to be made. Hamilton was fairly the victim of the worst defeat she has suffered in athletic years. The Colgate team was marvelously the eclipse of last year's aggregation and all of its men acquitted themselves to their great credit. Hamilton's men were too light to stand the team, to say nothing of the time. Its forces were worn away, reaped down, spent. Water drops have worn away the stones of Troy. The team put up a patient, faithful fight even to the last minute of the gathering defeat. To Captain Speh, Nellis, Haggerson and Mann are to be accorded a crown for the undying desperation with which they waged the waning fight to its wan close. "Clan Alpine's best are backward borne" and though many a goodly bough is bent, the tree still stands a monument to Hamilton, to Captain Speh and to Coach Turner. All we can say is that time has and will set all things even.

Carter opened the game by kicking to LeMunyan who ran to the 30-yard line. Haggerson made two yards and Sicard 8 yards on a double pass. Hamilton was forced to punt and Haggerson sent the ball 40 yards to Green. Line plays by Runge, Brigham and Carter forced the play to Hamilton's 20-yard line where strong defence secured the leather by spoiling Colgate's fake place kick. Hamilton failed to gain and Haggerson punted 40 yards to Castleman who was thrown hard by Bramley. Castleman tried the end but Haggerson got the ball and after a try at the line punted 40 yards to Green, who ran 10 yards. The Blue and Buff held for downs on Colgate's 40-yard line. Sicard tried a place-back. Runge punted to LeMunyan who came back 20 yards. Hamilton couldn't gain and Haggerson punted to Castleman close to Colgate's line. Brigham made 5 yards, Runge 2 yards, and then Nellis broke through and tackled Castleman for a loss. Runge punted 35 yards to "Bram." Mann launched his 145 pounds against Simmons for 5 yards, Haggerson made 2 yards, Mann 3 yards at tackle. Haggerson punted 45 yards to Colgate's 5-yard line. Castleman attempted to run the end but Haggerson broke through and tackled him for a safety. Runge punted out. Mann hit center for 4 yards. Haggerson punted 40 yards to Colgate's 10-yard line. Colgate by line plunges carried the ball to their 40-yard line where Green was forced to punt. Bramley ran 10 yards, Mann made a good gain through center, 15 yards for holding put the ball on the 35 yard line. Bennett hit tackle for 6 yards, Mann plunged into Colgate's line thrice for a total of 10 yards. Bennett and Haggerson both made a yard. Bramley tried a place kick, missing by about six inches. Runge punted out to Sherman who made a brilliant run of 20 yards. Haggerson punted 40 yards over the line. Runge punted out from the 25-yard line. Haggerson punted to Colgate's 25-yard line. Stowell and Runge made several short gains, then Runge broke through the line for 40 yards, being caught by Roosa. Runge carried the ball in five successive plunges that scored a touchdown. Carter kicked to Holley. Mann hit the line for 5 yards. Haggerson failed to gain and Holley punted 30 yards to Castleman. Runge got loose and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. Mann tackled him on the 3-yard line but was rolled over.

Carter kicked to LeMunyan on Hamilton's 30 yard line. Bennett plunged against Thurber for 4 yards, Mann broke through center for 8 yards and Haggerson 12 yards inside of tackle. A fumble pass gave the ball to Colgate, Stowell running 20 yards on the fumble. Fierce hard plunging took the ball over from the 30 yard line for Colgate's third touchdown just before time was called for the first half.

The second half was all Colgate's. Hamilton was exhausted and weakened by injuries which compelled most of the 'varsity men to withdraw. Nevertheless the light Hamilton backs three or four times carried the ball considerable distances against Colgate's beefy line, Mann in particular doing spectacular line plunging and defensive work. We were completely powerless against Colgate's heavy, fast, concentrated plays, and after the first 10 minutes of the second half they scored almost at will. That twenty pounds disparity told particularly in the mass plays and individually Nellis was the only man who overcame it to the end. The game was somewhat shaken on account of darkness.

The line-up:—

Hamilton, 2.	Colgate, 66.
	Left end.

Referee—Mr. Evans, of Williams.

Umpire—Mr. Case, of Hobart.

Linesman—Mr. Munroe, Bowdoin.

Assistants—Acker, Colgate; Evans, Hamilton.

Time of halves—35 minutes.

The Junior Debaters.

Wednesday the Juniors elected four men to represent them in the interclass debate, which is to take place the first part of next term. The chosen four are Edie, McLean, Melrose and Purdy. In the debate they will be pitted against Speh, Beach, Sullivan and MacIntyre, the Senior team. If all reports are true, the Juniors will debate in a manner that will compel their more experienced opponents to hustle, if they desire to come out victorious.

—A valuable addition has been made to the mathematics department of Williams College, and through the generosity of Francis L. Stetson, '67, and F. B. Jennings, '71, who have together given $2,000 for the purchase of models. The figures are the famous Brill set from Martin Schilling, Halle, Germany, and may be divided into three classes: Thread, to show surfaces and curves generated by straight lines; plaster, to show the form of geometrical surfaces of various orders, and brass.

J. G. CLARK, . . . . . R. B. JEROME.

IN ANOTHER column we print a letter from an alumnus. Communications of this sort are always welcomed. We like to know what our alumni think about us and how they regard our actions. From their position on the outside, they are able to see things as we do not, and no one will deny that their eyesight is apt to be far keener than that of the shortsighted undergraduate.

WHEN chapel was summarily dismissed last Saturday, many regarded it as a huge joke. But when you come right down to the point, it was not so funny as it first seemed. Imagine it! Men, acting like so many high school—no, grammar school—boys. We have seen youths who had an all-conquering passion for showing-off. This is the most noteworthy characteristic of the lad of fifteen. Is it possible that the students were showing off to the ladies in the gallery? No, probably not. The easiest way to explain it, is it to bury ourselves under that ever sheltering word called "thoughtlessness." We forgot ourselves, lost all consciousness, so to speak, of our whereabouts. That excuse may serve a few times more, but some of these times the shock of returning to self-realization may have a lasting effect. Don't drive a lame mule too hard.

HAMILTON in the big game with Colgate last Saturday was overwhelmingly defeated, "snowed under," if you please. But neither the chapel bell was tolled nor were the usual Sunday services postponed. College work went on in the same routine as before. In a word, the college is still doing active business.

Old Hamilton suffered defeat, but her spirit is not broken. Her team was shattered, but not her hope.

It was a crushing defeat nobly sustained. The losing team was loyally supported. They say that defeat frequently sourballs. Not so here. Hamilton has lifted her head, and with the spirit that "will not stay down" has girded her strength to prepare for the next year's battle. There is no whining nor cursing the luck nor slandering the other team. We are taking our defeat philosophically and in the spirit of true sportsmen, we hope, without bitterness nor envy.

Library Reference Books Abuse.

An outrageous instance of vandalism and wanton destruction has recently been thrust upon the notice of the editors of LIFE. Notwithstanding the fact that much adverse criticism and fault finding has appeared in recent issues of LIFE, we cannot permit this new discovery to pass without comment.

The facts are, simply, that in some of the most important reference books, such as the bound volumes of the Outlook, Review of Reviews, and Political Science Quarterly, whole pages have been cut out with a knife.

The special instances we have references to are upon the Popular Election of Senators. After weary search through the indexes for references, then an irritating hunt to locate the disarranged volumes on the shelves, and finally after laying hands on the precious volume, to discover that some villainous wretch has knifed the article, who has words to describe the rage and wrath, and later the withering scorn and contempt for the perpetrator of such a crime? It is well-nigh incredible to think of an intelligent college man committing such a wanton act of barbarism.

The books are useful primarily for debate. When possibly the only article valuable for our purpose is thus removed, the volume is worthless. The article can not be replaced, and if it could be, expense and inconvenience are inevitable. Unless the book in its mutilated condition is removed from the shelves or is marked "imperfect," unlimited annoyances and waste of time will be the reward of the luckless victims who draw the volume and find the desired article missing. None but selfish and illegitimate motives could prompt such acts of abuse.

The Hamiltonian Board.

The Hamiltonian Board is to be congratulated. They have broken the deadlock and are ready for business. It really looked as though the Board was hopelessly entangled, but the meeting on Monday night set things going. LeMunyan was chosen editor-in-chief, McLean and Drummond are the literary editors, Clark and Miller assure us that the art department is in good hands. Benedict and Edie say they know how to drum up advertisements, while "Bill" Bloyer will look out for the business side of the book.

The Psi Upsilon Dance.

The Psi Upsilon Fraternity gave a dance at the chapter house Friday evening, Nov. 11. The guests were: Mrs. Squires and Mrs. White, of Clinton, Miss Baker, Miss Porter and Miss Elizabeth Porter, of Rome; Miss Mattice, of Albany; Miss Childs, Miss Jones, Miss Taylor, Miss Gilmore, Miss Richards, Miss Spencer and Miss Bremer, of Utica; Miss Cauldwell, of Clinton. Keeney ex-'06 Hoffman, '05, Signor, '02, and Assemblyman Jay Pratt of Verona were also present. Rath's Orchestra furnished music for the evening.

Basket-ball.

Football is over and now we can give our undivided attention to the winter's game, basket-ball. In order to get interest awakened there will be a series of interclass games. Everybody knows what fun these games are. Talk about class rivalry being on the wane! If you think so, be on hand to see those games. It is a good method of arousing enthusiasm just to witness one of them.

The first practice game for the 'varsity will be on Dec. 3, when Waterville Y. M. C. A. will send a team to play us on our floor.

It is a fact that our best men are in rather poor condition. "Tommy" with his bad ankle, "Jimmy" LeMunyan and George Sicard with their mementoes of the Colgate game. But a little time ought to fix them. Of course there is no rule against the college body attending practice, although some seem to act upon that assumption. Make it a rule to drop in on each practice, see who is making the best run for the team, and incidentally give a few college yells.

A Letter.

To the Editor of Hamilton Life:

At the risk of being accused of being presumptuous and meddlesome may I answer your question upon page 4 of LIFE of the 6th inst? The translation of the cannon was no crime, to my mind. The episode of the outhouse was dirty. By the rest of the evening's comedy (?) the College most certainly is disgraced. The pranks played in the new buildings were not funny in the light of sober thought. They were silly and senseless and merely serve to accentuate some one's lack of poise. I do not think that the men who did the jokes (?) referred to were any more than thoughtless. But it is easy to understand the deep resentment of the man who scorched the irresponsibles. His self-control is remarkable. He had occasion not only to be angry, but to be heartily disgusted. Surely, no man in college expected (the morning after) to be flattered and patted on the back for the exploits of the evening previous. The place for school boy pranks in Clinton, N. Y., is at Dr. Wheeler's Preparatory School on College street, near the old canal, but not on the Campus on College Hill.

Ever since they have been on the Campus, the new buildings have been held to be not the proper places for the exercises of "practical jokes, played in roguish fun and with rash recklessness." I am certain that "the unbiased judgment of disinterested judges" is that the jokers had no business to be where they were and to do what they did. It is my private opinion that the younger alumni of Hamilton, from '98 on, who had the pleasure to escape from the frigid, unattractive, antiquated recitation rooms in South, North, the Chapel, the Gym, and the old "Lab." into the cheery and attractive rooms in the new buildings; who formulated, upheld, and enlarged the application of the unwritten law of the sanctity of the new buildings, will have no patience with men who break or who uphold the breaking of that law.

The sentiment of the men who know the difference in equipment between 1893 and 1904 will be dead against the assiniuity of Hallowe'en. It is to be hoped that the good sense of the college will prevent a repetition of such unthinking nonsense. I am sure it will.

"Prex." made a mistake. They were not "hoodlums and toughs"—they were simply school boys.

With best wishes for LIFE's success, cordially,

IRA W. HENDERSON, '00.

College Notes.

—Dr. Bartlett, of the class of '52, was a visitor on the Hill Friday.

—Remember that basket-ball is now on. Get out and help it along.

—Now is the time for the Freshmen to place their orders for new sleds and for the others to have their steeds put in sliding condition.

—The bleachers have been taken down and stored in the cellar of Language Hall. They will be used next spring during the baseball and track seasons.

—A few things which have happened on College Hill this fall will become history: Hallowe'en 1904, the Colgate game, "Rube" Maynard's run against Clinton High School.

—Bright, '07, passes away in French. After three attempts Prof. Shepard wakes him and dryly remarks: "Mr. Bright, you are at liberty to finish your nap on the campus."

—The following men have won the right to wear the football "H": Sherman, '05, LeMunyan, '06, Sicard, '06, Swetman, '07, Holley, '08, Haggerson, '08, and Hemmens, '08.

—Thursday night the Mandolin Club held a rehearsal. A goodly number turned out. Everything points toward an unusually skillful organization. The Glee Club is also hard at work.

—Sophomores will take their final exam. in Dutch sentences Monday morning. This promises to be a busy

Sunday for the men of '07. One thing with which to console yourselves, "There're not half what they used to be."

—The Sophomore-Freshman football game will be played on Steuben Field this afternoon at 2:30. Both teams have been practicing daily and some good work is looked for. MacIntyre has acted as coach for the Sophomores. Everyone has taken a hand in turning out the Freshman team. Both Captains Swetman and Haggerson feel confident of winning.

—Rumors are afloat concerning a series of interclass football games. Such a set of games would be of great interest to the College and much sport could be obtained, also a few black and blue spots. It is a good plan. Who knows but what some "DeWitt," "Palmer," "Rockwell," "Wright," "Mills," "Farmer," "Kinney," "Lawrence," "Miller," "Hoyt," "Brown," or "Weeks," may be discovered and roused from slumber to win glory for names already famous.

—Among those back for the Colgate game were: Sherman, '78, Peck, '79, Calder, '82, Heacock, '80, Hinman, '83, Smyth, '82, Collier, '86, Rogers, '87, Foster, '93, Weaver, '91, Cookingham, '96, Johnson and Ames, '97, Butler, '98, Merwin, '99, Stone, '99, Redmond, A. S. and C. T. Hatch, '01, Harwood, Drummond, Signor, Reeves, '02, Maxwell, Croft, Hunter, Arthur, Hodges, Carmer, Putnam, '03, Judd, Evans, Sherman, Hoffman, McGaffin, Wills, '04, France, ex-'05, Hosmer, ex-'06.

—The boys of the Clinton Preparatory School have just finished a most successful football season. It is now two years since they have been scored upon and three since they have tasted defeat. During the fall they have beaten the second team of the Clinton High School three times. They have tied and later on beaten the Utica Advanced School. Rome Preparatory School was defeated by a large score and a team composed of the pick of the first and second teams of the Clinton High School was held to a tie game. Prof. Wheeler can well be proud of his boys. What is the cause of this success? Why, "Jim" Carroll, '06, coaches the team.

—At a meeting of the members of the football team held in the gymnasium Monday, Howard Creige Bramley, '06, was elected captain. We don't need to explain to the College and friends who "Bram" is. Everybody who has heard of the Hamilton team knows that "Bram" has played a great game at quarter for the past three years. A brilliant man with the ball, a sure defensive player, he combines a level head with prompt action in running the team and is one of the best quarterbacks in the game. While the football men are all sorry to lose "Herm," they know that their interests for next year are in good hands. May the team of 1905 have a successful season.

—Football for 1904 is over. "Herm" and "Harley," "Dick" and "Battey" have worn khaki for the last time as Hamilton 'varsity men. Mr. Turner has left Clinton and expects to study law at Michigan. That he was one of the best and most popular coaches we have ever had cannot be doubted. Not only the football squad, but the entire student body, admired and respected him and were sorry to have him leave. Just before the Colgate game Captain Speh, in behalf of the team, presented him with a gold seal ring. Hamilton of late has been most fortunate in securing good coaches. With Rymer, Berrien, Sweetland and Turner, we have a list of which any college might be justly proud.

—On Friday evening, Nov. 11, the gentlemen of the Alpha Delta Phi opened their new Hall with a reception and dance. Refreshments were served by Owens of Utica and music by Rath. The patronesses were Mrs. Stryker, Mrs. Brandt, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Shepard, Mrs. Davenport, Mrs. Bartlett and Miss Dwight. The guests were Misses Stryker, Williams and Carey, of Clinton, the Misses Schwab, the Misses Simpson, and Miss Stone, of Binghamton, Miss Chase, of Johnstown, Misses Kilby and Merrill of Carthage, Miss Beergnard, of Brooklyn, Miss Millington, of Herkimer, Miss Stone, of Mohawk, Misses Burdick and Bristow, of New York, Miss Judd, of Batavia, Miss Heacock, of Iilon, Dr. Stryker, Dr. Wood, and Prof. Davenport, and Messrs. Hurd, Hogue, and Munro, of Utica.

The "Job Lots" Play.

On Wednesday, in one of the fiercest games ever played on Williams Field, the "Hamilton Job Lots" and the Clinton High School football teams played each other to a standstill. The final score was 0-0. The feature of the game was "Rube" Maynard's run around full-back's back for a 15 yard loss, a fierce tackle by Clinton's left end alone saving the "Job Lots" from having a safety scored against them. "Rube" took the ball on a trick play and, by skillful dodging, managed to carry it back fifteen yards. The "Job Lots" outweighed their opponents, but the Clinton line played low and, charging hard and often, held the fierce line plunges of Ferris, for no gain. Munger, Clinton's left half, (no relation of Hank's,) once cut loose for a forty-yard run around Driscoll's end, and was only stopped by a fine diving tackle by "Flicker" Ferris, who seized him around the neck. Several Hamilton students who were in attendance backed up the team in good shape.

The lineup:—L. e., Maynard, '06; l. t., Scott, '07; l. g., Rupert, '08; c., Fake, '06; r. g., Lawrence, '06; r. t., McLean, '08; r. e., Driscoll, '06; q. b., McCarthy, '08; r. h. Carroll, '06; l. h., Benedict, '06; f. b., Ferris, '06.

The officials were:—Referee, Sicard, '06; Umpire, Drummond, '06; Timer, Bloyer, '06.

Among the Colleges.

—President Harper, of Chicago University, has issued a new book entitled "Religion and Higher Life."

—University of Pennsylvania has met with success in the establishment of its evening course in advanced business science. The course was designed for bank clerks principally and nearly 200 are now in attendance.

—The question to be debated by Oberlin College and Notre Dame University is: "Resolved, That labor and capitol should be compelled to settle their disputes through legally established boards of arbitration."

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The regular communion service of the College Church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the chapel.

There will be no meeting in Silliman Hall Sunday afternoon on account of the communion service.

In spite of general depression and physical exhaustion a fair sized audience listened to Congressman Sherman's address at the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday afternoon. Coupe, '08, sang a solo.

During the month of December the chairman of the religious meetings committee has arranged to have two Life-Work meetings. These meetings are a part of a series which will be continued next term. Mr. Cookinham, one of the prominent lawyers of Utica, will speak in behalf of the legal profession, from the Christian lawyer's standpoint.

At another meeting Secretary Street, of the Utica Y. M. C. A., will present the Y. M. C. A. secretaryship as a life work.

The purpose is to make this series of Life-Work meetings exceptionally strong. Particular effort has been made to secure able men to present the professions. Speakers have been selected to present next term the subjects of a business career, journalism and the ministry.
