

Government Office

17th March 1840

Sir

I have received & laid before His Excellency your letter of 15th March, and in readily consenting to the request therein contained, I am desirous to express his Excellency's anxious hope, that the relaxation you require may produce the desired result of restoring your health and enabling you to afford again to His Excellency an avowed that efficient & upright aid, from which himself and his Predecessors have so long benefitted.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient humble servant

W. Stanley

Secy & Treas^r

Honorable

Henry King
